Sat Jan 02, 7: Mermaid on the Mountain. Place the nine candles in alternating colors around you, light them in a counter clockwise fashion and sit in the center facing North. Repeat the following words and place an object from your love in the poppet. Then place the poppet into the cauldron. The words you need to repeat are as follows: Your love will wither and depart from my life and my heart. Bury the ashes and any remaining pieces of the poppet. The next spell is something that you can use if you want to focus on personal healing and growth rather than working to ban the person from your life. Cast your circle as you normally would and then write down the name of your past love on the piece of paper. Place the white candles to the left and the right of the red candle. Light the red candle first, then the two white candles. As you light the candles, repeat the following words, and then light the piece of paper with the flame from the red candle: I burn your name so it shall be Cast out of my memory name of your love your name burns with fire To get over you is my desire. Once you light the paper on fire, place it in your cauldron to continue burning. Snuff out the red candle and bury it with the ashes. Let the white candle continue to burn until it is done. Hold your nose and take the plunge. Make the potion by mixing together equal parts ginger, cinnamon, lemon and water. Add a dash of salt and pepper and crush three rose petals into the mix. You should gather your ingredients and do all of the mixing of the potion within your ritual circle. So mote it be. At this point, you drink the potion. You may want to have some extra water near by to wash it down. Thank you God and Goddess for renewing my heart, I am ready to accept the new in my life. The bean represents new life and potential. Sleep with it under your bed pillow for seven days and then plant it somewhere in your garden.
