Then, we split it. Go to a trapeze class! They have them in my city and they just might have them on your city too. Have friends over and play board games Go to an antique store and talk about the past lives of old objects Go to the neighborhood pool Test drive an expensive car Go on a tour beer, food, etc. Find out what tours businesses in your city offer and try one out. Go thrifting or garage sale-ing together Do a breakfast date Breakfast is the least expensive meal option and tastiest if you ask me. Make a new recipe together Play strip poker Find a free or very cheap class and take it together Go for an ice cream date. Find cheap sporting event tickets or go to your local high-school or college games Drive up to the highest point in your city, spread out a blanket, and then gaze up at the stars Go to the animal shelter and pet the animals This is the perfect opportunity to teach each other Take photos of each other Maybe your social media profile pictures are out of date. Spend an afternoon photographing each other. Research your local train and bus lines There just might be a train that goes right up to the mountains or a cheap bus ride might get you to the beach. Make a time-capsule Go through your old yearbooks Tell your partner all about your high-school days. Reminisce about your 1st date Train for a race together A book club for two Select a book, check out a copy for each of you from the library and then discuss it as you go. Paint a room together Take swing dance classes together Make a pizza at home Write out the story of how you met Talk about your future together Write love letters to each other than read them to each other Do a puzzle together Wash the car and flirt with each other Draw each other Close your eyes and draw each other. Yoga Most yoga studios offer free yoga. The worse you are at yoga the more fun it is; Pick fruit This is a good one for the spring and summer months. Go to a friends art opening Bake a cake together Make each other breakfast in bed Then you each try to cook something edible. Sweet and sour corn muffins? Scavenger hunt Spend some time planning a scavenger hunt either around town or just in your house. Leave something like a sweet letter at the end of the trail for your partner to find. Take turns doing this for each other. Take online relationship tests The Love Languages one is specifically good. Pray or meditate together This will make you feel very close and can also be intimating and make you feel vulnerable. But humor me and give it a try easier said than done, I know. Transcendental meditation for 20 minutes at least twice a day! Like, yeah, yeah, yeah, of course we love each other! But, really telling each other? Break a record Look at the Guinness Book of World Records and see which record you two should try to break together. Dream about your dream house Look at Pinterest and dream about what your house would be like if you had no limit on money! This is my dream home board It can still go pretty far in an arcade. Go to the arcade to play skee-ball, air hockey, and video games. Hit golf balls at a driving range Go to a midnight movie Make a mix tape together Go look at dream house status real-estate Find a cheap psychic and get a reading Give each other haircuts Yep, I went there. Still trying to convince my husband to let me try giving him a homemade hair cut Make wishes in a fountain together Watch YouTube videos all night Prank videos or kitten videos for hours?! Climb a tree Ask around Keep your ears eyes peeled on your social media sites for free events going on around town or ask your friends if they have any ideas. What are your favorite cheap date ideas?
