I have recently graduated from university and finished my degree in accounting. I am planning to pursue music in the future. Where are you from? I am from Hong Kong and I live in Toronto. What do you like? I like playing songs from K-pop, K-drama and Anime, as well as instrumental sound tracks from video games. Besides from piano, I also like drawing and designing. XD How long have you been playing the piano? How much time do you spend on practising piano? My practising time ranges from 0 to 7 hours everyday. Who do you admire as a youtube pianist? Animenz, marasy8, Theister and kylelandry. These are the people who also love to share music around the world. They are my favourite pianists on Youtube. What is the opening song in most of your videos? XD I might compose the rest later. How long have you been arranging songs? I first started arranging songs from K-pop, K-drama and Anime 3 years ago. Having said that, I spent a considerable amount of time the past year and actually improved a lot during I learnt a lot of new arrangement ideas from other YouTube pianists. Do you have perfect pitch? I am completely self-taught in terms of arranging. I learnt mostly from other Youtube pianists, Youtube tutorials in order to understand basic music theory and gain new insights, as well as experimenting different patterns, techniques and chord progressions on my own. How can I support you? My Gears and Software Your digital piano is so beautiful, what model is it? What camera do you use? I am using canon T5i to capture the video. How do you record your audio? It also serves as a reference for you to improvise or develop your own version of music. It is free for everyone to download. Hard version is basically the version I played in the video, not every cover will have a hard version. This is for more advanced piano player. female artist in country music history to log eight weeks at 1 on The Billboard. In mid-January, Swift became the first country artist to top the 2 million mark in paid downloads with three different songs. He has also appeared in several films. Collins sang the lead vocals on eight American chart-toppers between and ; seven as a solo artist and one with Genesis. His singles, often dealing with lost love, ranged from the drum-heavy "In the Air Tonight", to the dance pop of "Sussudio", to the political statements of his most successful song, "Another Day In Paradise". His international popularity transformed Genesis from a progressive rock group to a regular on the pop charts and an early MTV mainstay. In Genesis, Collins originally supplied backing vocals for front man Peter Gabriel, singing lead on only two songs: His concurrent solo career, heavily influenced by his personal life, brought both him and Genesis commercial success. He is married to Son Hye-im. Yiruma is well-known throughout the world, and his albums are sold all over Asia, as well as the United States and Europe. These pieces are widely mistaken for being associated with the movie Twilight. Although he formerly held dual citizenship as a citizen of the United Kingdom and South Korea, in July he gave up his British citizenship and entered the Republic of Korea Navy to begin his military service, which is compulsory for all male South Koreans. He has lived in Osaka, Japan for 5 years to promote album sales before giving up his dual citizenship. His over compositions include works widely acknowledged as pinnacles of symphonic, concertante, chamber, piano, operatic, and choral music. Mozart is among the most enduringly popular of classical composers, and many of his works are part of the standard concert repertoire. His works spanned the period during which that style transformed from one exemplified by the style galant to one that began to incorporate some of the contrapuntal complexities of the late Baroque, complexities against which the galant style had been a reaction. In addition, he was a versatile composer and wrote in almost every major genre, including symphony, opera, the solo concerto, chamber music including string quartet and string quintet, and the piano sonata. While none of these genres were new, the piano concerto was almost single-handedly developed and popularized by Mozart. He also wrote a great deal of religious music, including masses; and he composed many dances, divertimenti, serenades, and other forms of light entertainment. Clarity, balance, and transparency are hallmarks of his work. Queen Queen were an English rock band formed in in London by guitarist Brian May, lead vocalist Freddie Mercury, and drummer Roger Taylor, with bass guitarist John Deacon completing the lineup the following year. While it is uncertain how many albums the band has sold, estimations range from million to over million albums worldwide. The band is noted for their musical diversity, multi-layered arrangements, vocal harmonies, and incorporation of audience participation into their live performances. Their Live Aid performance was voted the best live rock performance of all time in an industry poll. Queen had moderate success in the early s, with the albums Queen and Queen II, but it was with the release of Sheer Heart Attack in and A Night at the Opera the following year that the band gained international success. They have released fifteen studio albums, five live albums, and numerous compilation albums. Eighteen of these have reached number one on charts around the world. The band signed to Universal Records after the success of their song "Kryptonite". The band has since sold well over 15 million albums worldwide since their debut album, The Better Life, which was released in His music is recognized by its use of a large variety of instruments in relatively minimalist compositions, often with a touch of either European classical music or French folk music, using primarily the piano, accordion or violin together with instruments like the melodica, xylophone, toy piano, ondes martenot, harpsichord and typewriter. They have been described as one of the most innovative and commercially successful bands of all time. Rolling Stone called them "innovative, precise yet sensual, calculated yet galvanizing" and declared that the band "changed the sound of black pop". The band was founded in Chicago by Maurice White in , having grown out of a previous band known as the Salty Peppers. The band has received 20 Grammy nominations; they won six as a group and two of its members, Maurice White and Bailey, won separate individual awards. As well the band went on to be bestowed with the Congressional Horizon Award. Williams has composed theme music for four Olympic Games, the NBC Nightly News, the rededication of the Statue of Liberty, and numerous television series and concert pieces. Williams is a five-time winner of the Academy Award. With 45 Academy Award nominations, Williams is, together with composer Alfred Newman, the second most nominated person after Walt Disney.
