Align the hairline to a natural position by pulling the lace forward. Ensure the front ear taps are even and all the edges are at a natural position. Carefully cut the lace off the edges of the wig. Ensure there is a small amount on the hairline all around your head. Line the wig to just before the adhesive. Position all the edges are in place. Push the wig down to form to the glue. Gently pull down the back hairline. Cleaning the Human Hair Wigs Human hair wigs is durable, generally costs more, and has the most natural look and feel of any wig you can buy. And can be dyed and treated the same as any human hair that grows from the scalp. Detangle Gently remove tangles using a wide tooth comb, working gradually from the ends to the base. Rinse Rinse with cool water to remove shampoo. Gently press with a towel to remove excess water. Do not rub or wring. Wash Submerges your wig in cool water. Mix in a small amount of Shampoo for synthetic hair. Soak your wig for minutes. Gently swirl without rubbing. Styling the Hair It is advised you take it to a profession stylist for restyle. For a synthetic wig, a simple shake and go method works just fine. Place the wig on its wig stand and use hot rollers or a curling iron on a low setting to style the hair to your liking. You can clip and pin different sections for a change of style, but as you get used to the wig, you will most likely find that you do not have to do anything if at all in maintaining its style. Storing the Hair When not in use, always put your wig on a mannequin or wig stand to maintain its shape. Frequency of cleaning will depend on your environment, lifestyle and amount of perspiration. Suggested guidelines for cleaning are after 10 to 14 days of wear. It is best to store the human hair in its original container. Or you can store the hair in a plastic bag. Is blonde hair suitable for black girls? Every day thousands of dark-skinned girls ask themselves this question. Some are worried about the way the blonde locks will match their dark skin while others are afraid of the hassle the blonde hair may bring.

If you are over 50, you might be concerned about the appropriateness of your hair. Having a haircut that is not flattering can make you look older than you are and draw attention to areas that you might not want to show off. Here are 50 Hairstyles for Women Over 50 that are simple yet stylish.

Short Tucked Layered Bob A shorter cut with lighter hair color can make you appear a lot younger than you are. Sharon Stone in the above picture is well over 50 yet could pass for a woman 20 years younger. This cute bob is easy to style.

Shoulder Length Swept Back Layers The shoulder-length cut is ideal for a lot of women that like enough hair to style but want manageability as well. Swept back layers add softness to your look.

Ear Length Highlighted Bob 4. This is a short look, but the color is what makes it so amazing. You can be out the door in minutes, and it is so easy to maintain. Carefully placed custom highlights add an edginess and fashion-forward style you have to love.

Asymmetrical Short Bob With Layers If you want a super cut face-framing cut that flatters then ask your stylist to leave longer layers in the front and shorter in the back. Highlights are a nice touch as well. The layers add volume while the bangs draw attention to the eyes.

Short Heavy Razor Bob If you are lucky enough to have thick hair, then this is a cut that can emphasize the beauty of your hair while allowing for manageability. We love this color, but there is a lot more you can do with it at the colorist.

Very Short Textured Pixie Very shortcuts offer texture and showcase the face, and they have the major plus of being super easy to maintain with the occasional trim. Some fun foil highlights can add interest.

Rounded Face Framing Bob The tapered layers and bangs put your face front and center. The bangs can hide a larger forehead with ease if this is an area of concern. Side swept bangs make it look like you put more effort into style than you did.

Short Curly Wild Bob Short curls have a lot of style and are very feminine. If your hair is already short, you may want to grow it out some as curls decrease length.

Long Gray Elegance Very long gray hair is beautiful if you still have the volume to pull it off. This is good for thick-haired women that love it long.

Neck Hugging Shag Lots of layers and elegance are characteristic of this style. It is edgy but still totally right for a woman over 50. Those that work in offices will find this an excellent choice. This long red look can be achieved with some color and lightly layered side-swept bangs.

Angled Wavy Bob This wavy angled bob is gorgeous when balayage color is used. Just make sure that length is not so great that it makes your face look too long.

Wavy Little Bob Helen Mirren demonstrates how cute a little wavy bob can be on mature ladies. This is a great look for thin to medium hair. Thicker hair can be layered more for manageability.

Super Shiny Short Cut This pixie style cut relies on awesome shine. Luckily when hair is this short, it is easier to keep it in good condition. Gloss treatments can help further.

Ultimate Mid Shag This might appear to be a younger look, but it is flattering on women of all ages. Sometimes it can be nice to have length but not so much that it is heavy and weights down the volume. Can you say fabulous textured layers?

The Classy Updo The updo always looks cool and sophisticated. If you leave it a little bit messy, then your look is more casual and relaxed. Of course, this means at the end of the day if your hair falls a bit, who cares?

Half Up Half Down There are so many ways to accomplish half up half down, but it is a great look. If you have a pony or bun up a bit higher than the pic, it can add volume to thinning or fine hair.

Loose Waves We love loose waves because they look good on everyone and you can get the look with rollers, curling iron, or body wave at your stylist.

The Career Bob There is a reason why you see so many classy working ladies with this cut. It is beautiful, easy to manage, and frames the face which is important if you work with others a lot. This is a hip look that will take years off your face when done well.

Sleek Updo For this look, you need to make sure your hair is as smooth and straight as possible. You will need shoulder length hair or longer for best results, but with some skill, you can do this with shorter locks. Bangs are a manageable length and require little styling. For the curl, you may have to get some help at the stylist or use a good iron with a larger barrel. There are plenty of younger women trying to copy the look. This pixie cut has some fab texture, and we love the purple opal color. You can get the same with a tint at the stylist. The Marilyn Bob Style has no age and this sexy pin up worth bob and wave prove it like no other. You can look good no matter what you are getting into day or night. Mussed Up Curls Messy curls look fun and playful thus taking years off your age. Darker haired beauties we recommend getting some highlights to add definition to your curls. Messy Bun The messy bun is sexy, easy, and youthful. This is a perfect look for a relaxing weekend or getting together with friends. A few hair elastics and maybe a few pins are all that is needed. The Ultra Short Women that want to show off a beautiful face and personality can usually pull off the ultra short. Regular trims are a must to keep this looking right. Chandelier Bob This bob is cut to add a lot of volume on the top but not too many layers. The layers appear down below, and the overall effect helps soften a square jawline and face. The Editor This all one length side swept bob will make you look like you just stepped out of journalism school. A sophisticated look that is suitable for those with straight hair that want class and manageability. The Page Boy The page boy cut is classic old style and easy to get at any stylist. For added fun have some foils done. The striped highlighted and low lighted color trend does well with these cuts. Sleek Long Shiny Gray If your natural color is now gray or you are heading in that direction, then you may consider going with it. Gray hair is popular with younger and older people now, and with a gloss treatment or toner, it can come alive. Short Wedge Cut The wedge cut is classy and easy and suitable for all hair types. Curly or thick hair can be thinned with this cut. Color Enhanced Gray Shoulder Length Bob You have to love the bright and fun colors that older women are using now for a hip new look. This temp color can be done at a stylist, or you can even use clip in extensions for instant color. The face framing layers will put you front and center. Long Silver Ombre The ombre look is hot, and you can pull it off with silver hair with ease. Just ask for a lighter or darker color on the bottom of the hair. Rounded Short Layer Cut Classy and sophisticated, this shorter cut is ideal for busy women that want to look elegant. A razor comb can help you keep the layers and look at home. Add some extra color to it for variation. Major Volume Mid Bob This style does an amazing job of maximizing volume. The attention to highlights and lowlights makes this style have a lot of depth. To get this, you will need a very large barrel curling iron or rollers. Pull half of hair up into a mid-level ponytail. You can tease hair how you want it. Long Blonde Blonde hair can make you appear younger because lighter tones soften facial features. Hair gets darker as you age in many cases so lighter tones can be age defying. Naturally Curly Controlled Cut Curly hair can be hard for some of us to manage. This cut does a good job of putting curl on display without being too long. Shoulder Length Ombre If you have wanted to try ombre out then here is your inspiration. This beautiful shiny color with lighter tips is perfect for women over Natural Wind Swept Carefree Cut If you like to be outside and a natural, carefree look than let your real color shine through and go for a shoulder length cut with major volume. Slick Style Wave and volume are key to this look. This can be worn by women of all ages and is manageable.
