

1: Animal Babies and Families Coloring Pages 1

Story time for babies and toddlers. Listen and watch as we see many different types of animals from around the world.

At the beginning of Applebuck Season , Applejack diverts a cattle stampede headed towards Ponyville. Afterwards, a white and brown cowâ€”DaisyJo [1] â€”apologizes to Applejack and explains that her friend Moo-riella saw a snake which frightened the cows into stampeding. On My Little Pony: A group of outlaw bulls appears in the story arc The Good, the Bad and the Ponies. The deer live in a village called Thicket deep in the Everfree Forest. There they share a close relationship with the animals and nature, and they use magical potions harvested from the earth and forest plants. Discord has a deer antler. Rainbow Rocks animated short Shake your Tail! These reindeer appear to use their antlers to perform magic the same way that unicorns do. Donkey Cranky Doodle and Matilda. Donkeys are another major species capable of speech and socializing. The first donkeys in the series appear in A Friend in Deed , the first being Matilda , a female donkey living in Ponyville, and Cranky Doodle Donkey , who moves to Ponyville after years of searching across Equestria for his long lost love. She turns out to be Matilda, and the two reunite. Donkeys appear to be capable of mating with ponies as mules also exist in Equestria. They communicate with Iron Will by bleating, not talking. Discord has a goat beard and a goat leg. Hedgehog Hedgehogs in Winter Wrap Up. Hedgehogs appear in Winter Wrap Up during the titular song and when Fluttershy wakes up the animals for spring. Human Humans are a species of sapient beings that appear and are alluded to throughout the My Little Pony franchise. Friendship Games , where they are shown to be residents of the human world. Mule Not offended by the term "mule" A mule appears in a single shot in Applebuck Season as a sight gag when Twilight Sparkle chastises Applejack for being stubborn. Unlike other incidental animals in Equestria, this mule is capable of speech. The term "mule" is used later in the series as an insult. She appears to be deeply offended, genuinely or not, for being called a mule, and likens it to being called ugly. In the cold opening of Hurricane Fluttershy , Rainbow Dash says "Be cool or be mule", this time meaning boring. She then flies down to tell the resident mule "no offense"; he responds with the same "none taken" line as his previous appearance. Pony Ponies are the main characters in the series. Rabbit Rabbits A large number of rabbits are seen in Applebuck Season when Fluttershy organizes an annual rabbit census. The census goes awry when Applejack and Winona aggressively corner the bunnies, and the frightened bunnies panic and stampede Ponyville. Fluttershy keeps one bunny, Angel , as a close companion, going so far as to consult him about getting the extra gala ticket in The Ticket Master. Angel, like other rabbits, seems to be incapable of speech. On the subscription cover of My Little Pony: Friends Forever Issue 5 , two rabbits appear. Raccoon This article may require copy editing for grammar, style, cohesion, tone, or spelling. You can assist by editing it. Some more raccoons appear in Magic Duel among the animals Twilight magically levitates. A raccoon appears in the Rainbow Rocks animated short , Shake Your Tail , wearing a party hat and blowing on a party kazoo, along with the other animals. A raccoon also appears in Princess Twilight Sparkle - Part 1. A family of raccoons , including Smoky, Softpad, and Smoky Jr. Their request goes unheeded and they are ignored. In Dragon Quest , Spike hitches a ride on a sheep going up a mountain. Several sheep of both varieties appear, making only generic sheep noises, in Fluttershy and the Fine Furry Friends Fair. Several yaks appear in My Little Pony: Yaks are also featured in My Little Pony: Friends Forever Issue Zebra Zecora A zebra named Zecora is a recurring character in the show. A fan-designed WeLoveFine T-shirt depicting a host of non-Hasbro characters shows a zebra pony mare along with two half-pony zebroids, one of them a half- Earth pony mare and the other of them a half- Pegasus zony stallion, as described by Samantha Bragg, the artist of the T-shirt design, in posts on DeviantArt. The citizens there are shown to speak in rhyme just as Zecora does. One of them explains to Celestia that they were once invaded by manticores and they conjured up protective shields to defend themselves. Since then, they have made the zebra land forbidden. Other animals Bat For the seventh episode of season four and the song within the episode, see Bats! A mob of bats After being scared in Winter Wrap Up , Twilight Sparkle backs into a den before rushing out again, chased by these flying mammals.

For our family, reading is already an important part of each day, but we were still eager to take part in the national event. To make The Reading Hour unique for our family we decided to prepare some special food and play book-related games. We had already decided that The Family Hour in Australia would be an ideal book to read for the occasion. It was an incredible night, which Cam has been begging us to re-create. I broke my camera just minutes into our reading hour and relied on my phone to take pics. Preparations for the The Reading Hour: Cam and I read through the book in advance trying to find a family that was most like ours. We decided on the Ringtail Possum family because there was a mother, a father and a child. They were enjoying a picnic in front of the movies We just love picnics and movies. I wonder which of the 15 animal families is most like yours? With that decided, we chose to set up a picnic rug for our family reading. Hubby and I read the book together in advance and brainstormed some easy but fun games to play. We based our games on these pages from the book: Did you know that platypus swim and search for food with their eyes closed? Mum and Dad finch catch insects and feed their babies together. Numbats eat termites by scooping them up with their long sticky tongues. We started our day by playing libraries , looking for other books to add to our reading list. You can read details and reviews of these books at the bottom of this post Our Reading Hour Supper: Did you know that echidnas drink pink milk? Our reading supper consisted of pink milk, kangamite and cheese sandwiches, and popcorn which is a staple food item for all of our special family occasions Our Reading Hour Games: We thought this game would be a great way to simulate searching for food with our eyes closed. Each player takes a turn to be blindfolded. They must search through the cornstarch peanuts with their hands to find the hidden treats. Scatter the toy insects on the floor. Each player must use the chopsticks to pick up as many insects as possible and place them into their egg carton. The player with the most insects wins. We lined our insects up to see who had collected the most. Each player is given a sticky hand, which is used to pick up as many foam shapes as possible. By the time we had finished the games it was nearly bedtime and we were all rather excitable. Omnibus Books for Scholastic Australia , September This is a simple but sweet and beautiful counting book that showcases creatures and objects from the original Possum Magic. Illustrated beautifully by Julie Vivas, children will find themselves counting tails, slippers and lamingtons along with possums, kookaburras and koalas. Windy Hollow Books , July Illustrated in a rich, deep colour palate, this book shows us an array of Australian animals anxiously waiting for Dingo in the Great Sandy Desert. It takes you on an evening journey through the Australian bush as 13 sleepy Australian animals each finds a cosy and sheltered place to settle for the night. They add a comforting tone to the calming text. Some other Australian animal-themed books: Can you suggest any other titles to add to this list?
