How does your family celebrate Thanksgiving and Christmas? We had company often for Thanksgiving, and we always had a "Pilgrim reading" and saying what we each were thankful for around the table. For Christmas we were not often inviting people for dinner because our older children wanted "just family". Then , every one had to have beds made, be dressed, and kitchen and rooms cleaned up before we sat down to open the main presents under the tree. For Christmas Eve, we had leek-potato soup either before or after a Christmas eve service, then had the story of Jesus with candles, and a fire in the fireplace, opening one present before we all went to bed. Shepard Family Do you keep in touch with any of the other missionary children who were killed with your Father? Can you explain to us how your devotions have changed now that you know longer have small children? I learned after about 15 yrs. How did it change when they became teenagers and when they went off to college? What about once they became married and had children? For the children that are gone, I pray that God will bring them strong Christians who can influence them and that the "image of Christ" will be born in them. And they feel guilty. I say that "my time" is when I spend in quiet with the Lord, because He refreshes me, and that is what I need most. Asking Him if He wants me to have more than that, I will trust Him to provide it for me. Every day has to be given to the Lord, and if we are asking for wisdom to do the right things each day, He will show us. We have to also ask Him to help us keep our minds on the good and right and beautiful. Will you please encourage the mother whose child has gone away to college? Pray without ceasing, call or write them at least once a week. Valerie will you please encourage the reader, of this interview, to continue in their quiet time with the Lord? Ask Him how to find and make the right and best time to spend alone! What are Walter and you up to now? Planting a church in Southport, NC How can we pray for you? How do you have your quiet time?

Providers Only I am an independent mature companion living in the San Francisco Bay area, available to discerning individuals who desire the stable company of a classic beauty with a carefree spirit. I provide the ultimate experience of being cared for on a regular basis without the cost of it being emotionally draining and obligatory. I am your intimate confidante! You are given my undivided attention each week, every month, or simply every so often. I lead two lives. One that is inconspicuous. The other is with you. I spend my time with only the most seasoned individuals, those who are respectful, intelligent, generous, and have a great sense of humour and humility, among other attributes. My Midwest upbringing, East Coast education, world-travel, and diverse career choices serve me well. I think of myself as an authentic, organically refined person who loves to be made to purr. We all agree that I am grounded, flirtatious, and have a terrific sense of humour. People initially choose me because I am real like the girl next door. When they meet me, the third dimension adds an experience that melts the libido yielding a sense of lust and many times, love. I have soft, faintly freckled, lightly tanned skin in funny places. My complexion is clear. I wear very little to no make-up. My short and sassy hair is brown and silver. My eyes are green which radiate in the sun. I have a belly ring and small gold nose stud. I am told that I look years younger than I really am! I enjoy accumulating years because with that comes the benefit of experience and the appeal of a cultivated character. Such a relationship conceived and managed professionally assures safe and consistent boundaries. My fee is a reflection of what I have learned from one-half a lifetime of experiences. For now, as long as you believe we are a match, I wish to have the opportunity to meet with you. I understand that money exchanged is for time and companionship only.
