Please carefully read the requirements below to ensure that your visit is as fast and efficient as possible. The location the you have chosen offers driving tests for non-commercial vehicles Class C licenses only, NOT for commercial drivers. Who can schedule a driving test online? A teenager who has held a valid Texas learner license for six months and is at least 16 years of age OR An adult who has: Already applied for a driver license AND Has passed the knowledge test. If you do not fall into one of these categories, please visit a driver license office to schedule a driving test appointment. He or she must schedule the test in an office. Individuals completing a teen driver education course must also complete the ITTD requirements. Preparing for your driving test To make sure you have everything you need for your visit, please carefully review what you will need to apply for a driver license and bring the following items to your appointment: Your Texas learner license or Texas driver license with B restriction; The driving test fee or the payment receipt if you have already paid. You will be required to make payment again after expiration. Depending on the type of class you took, you will need one of these documents: Current registration sticker; Two license plates with the front plate attached to the bumper not required if you are borrowing the vehicle and it is properly registered in a state that does not require two plates ; No unusual mechanical issues such as having doors that do not open from inside or outside the vehicle “ this will result in failure of the vehicle inspection ; AND All of the vehicle safety requirements described at Driving Test Requirements. If you use a rental vehicle for the test, the person taking the driving test must be listed on the rental agreement as an authorized driver. You must show proof that the rental vehicle is covered by liability insurance either by accepting the liability damage waiver when you rent the vehicle or by showing proof that your personal auto liability insurance covers rental vehicles. A customer may only schedule one appointment. A driving school may not schedule the appointment for the customer. Duplicate appointments will be canceled without notice. If you did not provide a cell phone number for the appointment, please contact DPS at If you do not, your appointment may be rescheduled Ready to go? It may take a moment to load the page.
