Even when she was still a newborn I always read her one book before bed for the bedtime routine and now, as a 10 month old, we read at least 5 and a lot of times twice. I get asked a lot, since so many of my friends are having kids, what our favorite bedtime books for baby are so I thought it might be fun to talk about those today since it IS my favorite time of the day " though we DO read before every nap and other random times during the day because she is obsessed with books. Will will pick her up off my lap and she will yell at him and crane her neck to look at her books. I relate too much to my child. She will happily let me read other books during the day but for bedtime she only wants her favorite bedtime books. Your reading portion of the bedtime routine might not be as long as ours but its something we really enjoy and love making part of our evening once she started to show a preference to it over spending more time in the bath which for a while was her favorite part.
