Honestly, I expected Barry Trotter and the Shameless Parody to be hilarious because well, it's a parody. But instead, it turned out to be intolerable, unnecessary and straight up stupid. But instead, it turned out to be intolerable, unnecessary and straight up stupid.

Cover story of Mad No. Appeared in Mad No. The edition also reprinted all of the above articles, as well as additional Potter-related material that had been published by Mad. Army publication Preventive Maintenance Monthly, which instructs soldiers on how to maintain their equipment, featured a spoof comic based on Harry Potter, featuring a character named Topper who resided at Mogmarts School under Professor Rumbledore. While trying to find a boarding school for Cubert, the crew visits a magic school on the planet Rowling VI. The character Tozzer also is occasionally depicted with a swastika scar on his forehead, and believes that he is a magician. The Unwritten is a comicbook series about the nature of stories and storytelling, and their social impacts, which incorporates several elements of Harry Potter into its preeminent fiction-within-a-fiction series Tommy Taylor. In the novel an unrecognizable Harry is portrayed as the Anti-Christ, and all his adventures have merely been staged to manipulate him into destroying the world. On learning this, Harry destroys Hogwarts and murders everyone in it, including Ron and Hermione. None of the characters or locations in the series are mentioned by name to avoid conflict with J. Rowling, as Moore has done with other characters belonging to other authors. No references are made to any of the actual events of the series, and the summary given of them is inconsistent with the actual story. There was also a cancelled episode, The Potter Puppet Pals Adventure, that still exists in audio form, and has been animated by a member of the Lemon Demon wiki. Originally published July, the YouTube video has more than The videos feature the original movie dubbed in German. Harry Cook and the Goblet of Borscht Russian: is a Harry Potter parody produced by kora The episodes involve Harry trying to cope with a post-modern, non-magical society. For instance, he still believes that Lord Voldemort is after him and that Dementors and death-eaters are a constant threat, to the great annoyance of his roommates. There is a fourth actor whose name changes in the opening credits of every episode. First produced in April, the video series has more than a million YouTube views. A parody of the Harry Potter universe it is set ten years after the last book ignoring the epilogue. Hermione sings to the audience about how she was the one who really did all the work and should get the recognition instead of Harry. Published March, the video has more than 83, views. Dirty Potter, a trilogy of audio shorts were made through creative use of word splicing and sound editing. The characters have been reimaged into overly lustful and sex-crazed; frequently engaging in comedic and lewd activities and using vulgar language. Each audio short is narrated by British actor Jim Dale, who also has been reimaged in the context of the parody. These clips were previously only hosted on YouTube, but were "removed due to a Terms of Use violation". It was written and voiced entirely by Andrew Lemonier, former actor and comedy writer. The videos are available on YouTube. Webcomics[edit] The Order of the Stick used a character for strip No. He subsequently defeats a plot by Professor Santory Snapekin to achieve ultimate power. The parodies are modelled after the movies, not the books, and follow the movie releases. The result is Harry and Edward getting into a fight after several insults are exchanged. Just before the bully can hang the boy who looks exactly like a cartoon Harry Potter up on the flagpole, Annie and Kat stop him and chase the bully away. However, instead of being grateful he claims that he and his wand had it under complete control. When Annie points out the "wand" is just a twig, he gets offended and tries to cast a spell on Annie and Kat in exactly the same pose as Harry in many of the movies when he casts a powerful spell. Nothing happens and Annie and Kat end up hanging him up on the flagpole themselves. Wizard School is a webcomic parody of Harry Potter, in which an eight-year-old "chosen one" with a mark on his forehead is replaced by the villain with a drunken adult jerk with a tattoo, who attends the school for wizards in his place. It follows the plot of the movies, as if the characters had been players in an RPG. The AI program is fed all 7 volumes of J. It abbreviates all seven canonical books into seventy minutes.
