Mike Coolen had joined as full-time drummer. However, every song was soon after leaked onto the Internet. Within Temptation tried to prevent the leak before the release date. Limited promotion CDs were sent strictly to journalists who had to come to a listening session. During the album promotional phases, the birth of Logan was reported on the Within Temptation website. On the digital Rock Charts, Faster became a hit, reaching the No. The single was a little different from the others, including 3 remixes of the music made by 3 different DJs. Proceeding on promotion of the album, the band presented at the Sziget Festival , but The Unforgiving Tour officially started August 12, at the Huntenpop Festival, where the band played the whole The Unforgiving album among other albums hits, in a special show as "The First Challenge". Robert will focus on production and songwriting, while Stefan Helleblad is taking his place on stage. Most of them were played in acoustic version. In the run up to the 15th anniversary of Within Temptation, the band was asked by Belgian radio station Q-Music to choose and perform an existing track in a "Within Temptation style" once a week during fifteen weeks during their special program Within Temptation Friday. Lead vocalist Sharon den Adel stated that: So not going the easy way by using only a piano or an acoustic guitar for example, but really trying to put all the elements of a Within Temptation track in this new version. It was quite a challenge because we had only one week to get it right, while recording an original Within Temptation song can sometimes takes up half a year! But this pressure also gave us an [sic] creative boost and it was very rewarding to get it done in time each week. Also, we learned a lot from the in-depth analysis we needed to make on these hits, written by others, in combination with implementing our own sound and style in each new cover. That is why they have such an incredibly loyal worldwide fan base. Their fans are in for a real treat come later this year! The band also established a licensing deal with Dramatico for the United Kingdom release of the album. Upon making this announcement, den Adel said: It will be fascinating to hear how the end result will sound like, once the album is released. After announcing that the lead single would contain a guest musician, on September 13 the band officially announced that Tarja Turunen was set to appear as a special vocalist on the title song. Due to the great reception of Hydra in the United States, the band decided to tour again in North America, travelling from West to East coast and passing over twelve cities, being two in Canada and having some venues with sold out tickets. As the end of the European leg, the tour had an attendance of over Critics approved the changes in the musical direction and stated that the album "reveals new dimensions in the concept of metal. Later, the band released The Q-Music Sessions album, the most divergent genre variation from their original sound to date. From left to right:
