Muhammad -Assistant Editor- Last updated: Nov 5, - 8: Analysts say the wealthy elites and politically powerful have forgotten about Black America, and the poor in the United States. The Blueprint calls on 16 million Black wage earners to give 35 cents a week to a national treasury. Black America suffers poverty and want Many factors contribute to the dire conditions existing in Black households that already experience disproportionate levels of poverty and food insecurity when compared to Whites. The most recent U. Over one-fourth of Blacks, Of that group of Blacks in poverty, According to the most recent data available from the United States Department of Agriculture, 15 percent of the American population or A remaining 19 percent of SNAP participants are of unknown race or ethnicity. While statistics show there are many of all races and ethnicities in need of crisis level intervention and assistance, the Black condition is especially dreadful. It is perhaps the most beautiful aspect of what the Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan is asking us to do. Washington who through his establishment of the National Negro Business League and his work at Tuskegee Institute later to become Tuskegee University identified and implemented effective ways to merge the entrepreneurial class with the agrarian class in moving towards economic progress. Land as a central focus of the Economic Blueprint is key, he noted. That dealt two fatal blows because without land you cannot have an economic system and without farming you cannot control the quality of what is designed to nourish you. No people can survive or prosper who do not own what is under their feet or control what goes into their mouths. A lot of people are too poor to feed their families even in this richest country in the world. Another reason the economic resources of the Black communityâ€™”though substantialâ€™”appear to lack the same power as the dollars that flow within other communities has been the various strategies to generate income and wealth, which are not sustainable. The AAC has been in existence since The economic principle of supply and demand and survival are universal principles, said Mr. Bowlds, however, for too long, the Black community has used only the temporary fix of having a job and only poor strategies and techniques to generate income. As an example of a poor model to generate income, Mr. It is perhaps the most beautiful aspect of what the Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan is asking us to do:

From the standpoint of survival preparedness for economic survival, what are the specifics that may be unique to this type of preparedness versus say, preparing for a hurricane? Loss of confidence for the future. Heavy loss of investments. Cash hard to find. Higher unemployment, Lower home values. How do you specifically prepare for economic collapse? First think about the money. Sure, all bets are off if it turns into a zombie apocalypse, but until then, for goodness sakes, save some money! Cash will be King in the early stages of a major collapse. Most funny money is in the form of digital dollars. But if the digital system is in upheaval or unavailable for a time a. Therefore, keep an ample supply of Cash at home, not at the bank. Keep some silver at home. If the dollar devalues rapidly inflation , then the price of silver and gold will continue to go higher and higher. You will hold your value through the storm with gold and silver commodities. Whatever comes out the other end, will surely transfer your silver and gold to the new currency. The less money that you owe, the better you will survive through the economic storm. Be wary of taking on any new debt at this time. Debts eventually come due. Lower your monthly expenses. Look closely at your regular bills and your regular habits. Find ways to trim them back, save the cash or buy a silver eagle or two! Do not invest in Wall Street. Even though the Fed and US government is doing what they can to keep it propped, the problem is, it could and probably will suffer another very serious drop soon - probably worse than Be aware of which banks are in the most trouble. Often you hear their names in the news. Here is a good website to check on the financial strength of your bank. Think of the things that you will need, before you ever become short of money, and buy those things now, before there is a problem. In other words, stock up! Your regular weekly consumable supplies, your food and other items that you consume each month. Work out a plan to eliminate your debt. Pay cash for everything instead. Seeing cash leave your hand is harder to part with than handing over a credit or debit card. Think about other ways that you could earn some money, should you have to. Examine your inner self and the things that you enjoy. So, there were a few ideas about how to prepare for economic collapse. If you have more ideas, please add a comment to this post!
