Not an American user? Description Bob the Builder: After that Bob and the team roll up to the castle where the castle courtyard is the main menu with a number of hotspots triggering the mini games and activities that eventually unlock the Medieval pageant. The games and activities in this product are. The first group of games takes place in the castle. In each Bob finds a door and must solve a puzzle to unlock the door. Bob cannot get through a castle door because some big scary spiders are hanging in front of it. The object of the game is to chase the spiders back into their holes so that Bob can enter the room. In this game Bob must complete a Simon Says type of puzzle to open the door. Here Bob open chests to find keys to unlock other chests with the key to the door being in the last chest. The next two games are accessed via a hole in the courtyard wall. There are holes in the castle walls which must be fixed. The right shaped pieces are available but the holes are occupied by crows. The player must deliver of the building block when the crow files off for a drink. In preparation for the pageant bunting is strung from the castle walls but the row of flags is incomplete. The player must select the appropriate flags to complete the pattern The next two games are accessed via the castle gateway. The player moves Spud into position with the mouse and then clicks on the rubbish when it is in front of him. They must then place the rubbish into the correct recycling bin. The final three puzzles are set in the castle maze. In this game the player controls Lofty the crane. The player races against three AI characters to reach the centre of the maze In the castle courtyard is a treasure chest, here the player can access all the pictures they have earned by completing the above puzzles. When all puzzles have been completed Bob and his friends can enter the pageant where there are three activities. Here are four postcards but with holes in them. The player can insert the faces of Bob and his friends, or even a picture of themselves, similar to the old seaside attraction. This is a piece of animation of the pageant which ends with a firework display over the castle. The inlay states that there is footage from the TV episode so presumably this is it.
