But Sophie may have attracted a lover who is too dangerous, even for her. Someone is stalking Sophie, slipping into her home, watching her day and night. Out of options, Sophie turns to ex-soldier Lex Jensen for protection. A man trained to kill. A man too used to evil. A man who will take any risk as long as he can claim Sophie. Because there is one thing that Lex wants in this world—one person he desires above all others—Sophie. And no one will hurt her, not on his watch. Such a very nice one it was. But he made himself lift his gaze once more. Sophie was one of the best defense attorneys in the area. A hot, savage blade of fury. What the hell is going on? Pulled her out of that gas filled brownstone. Lex had held her limp body in his arms and felt things—hell, things he had no business feeling. Emotions that he absolutely did not want to analyze. She had the checkbook in hand and she was scrawling fast. He reached for her. She slapped a check in his hand. The woman was getting under his skin. Before she could pull her hand away from his, he curled his fingers around hers, crushing the check between them. His right hand kept hers trapped while his left wrapped around her waist. Sophie was a delicate woman. He kept forgetting that because of the furious energy that filled the air when he was near her. He had to be careful with Sophie. Had to remember that she was breakable. He never wanted to break her.
