Zakir Naik has 71 books on Goodreads with ratings. Zakir Naik's most popular book is The Qur'an and Modern Science, Compatible or Incompatible.

In the Light of Science", one of his most-cited debates. Lectures on Islam have been presented by Naik and twenty other Islamic speakers. He said Naik was a "hate-monger", and that his views did not deserve a public platform. Saleem Kidwai , Secretary General of the Muslim Council of Wales, stated that "people who know about him [Naik] know that he is one of the most uncontroversial persons you could find. He talks about the similarities between religions, and how should we work on the common ground between them", whilst also inviting Davies to discuss further with Naik personally in the conference. The conference went ahead, after the Cardiff council stated it was satisfied that he would not be preaching extremist views. He also claimed that his comments were taken out of context. Gambian cabinet ministers, religious leaders, students and thousands of people attended his lectures on subjects including "Terrorism and Jihad: With the initial support of the Government authority, the event went ahead as planned. According to Naik, Islam is a religion of reason and logic, and the Quran contains verses relating to science, which he says explains the number of Western converts. No other religious text or scripture claims this fact. He has condemned dancing and singing because they are prohibited in Islam. He has also recommended that the United States implements this logic in order to reduce criminality. He argues that "as far as the family is concerned, a man is the leader. So, he has the right", but he should beat his wife "lightly". The TV channels are to be blamed". For example, he has stated in that certain verses of the Quran accurately describe embryological development. He suggested that, "We should use the same media to remove the misconceptions, misquotations, misinterpretations, and misrepresentations about Islam. International media, be it print, audio, video, or online, use a number of strategies to malign Islam by first picking up the black sheep of the Muslim community, and portraying them as though they are exemplary Muslims. A year-old Muslim marrying a year-old girl willingly is a headline, but a year-old non-Muslim raping a six-year-old girl appears as brief news or filler. They say Islam does not give rights to women , and is an illogical religion. While Indians were fighting for their freedom , the British government was labelling them as terrorists; same activity, same people, but two different labels. The same happened with Muslims who are labelled as terrorists in media, so we should look into backgrounds and reasons for an activity before labelling people. If anyone really wants to know how good Islam is, he or she has to study its authentic sources; the glorious Quran and Hadith rather than looking to its followers Muslims as is the case with a motorist whose reckless driving should be blamed for an accident rather than the latest Mercedes car he was driving. The best exemplary Muslim is the last and final messenger prophet Muhammad , peace be upon him. We in Peace TV, for example, do not use such deceit. He said in unequivocal term that, even in Islamic Jihad, there are laid down rules and regulations as when and how to kill a person, which he noted, totally contradicts what is currently happening around the world, by some groups who claim to fight for Jihad. Speaking of Osama bin Laden , when Naik was asked whether the former was a terrorist , he stated that he did not have an opinion since had not met him, [] nor interrogated him, and is neither a friend nor an enemy. He believes in checking up information before passing it on to another person. If he is terrorizing America , the biggest terrorist, I am with him. Every Muslim should be a terrorist. The thing is that if he is terrorizing a terrorist, he is following Islam. What is the meaning of the word terrorist? Terrorist by definition means a person who terrorises. So in this context every Muslim should be a terrorist to each and every anti-social element. So in this context no Muslim should ever terrorise a single innocent human being. But, if suicide bombing is used as a tactic of war, then it may be permitted. He also added that, "the Quran says so - if anyone kills an innocent human being, Muslim or non-Muslim, it is as though he has killed the whole humanity. So how can any Muslim kill innocent human being? Because they are anti-Islamic. I am totally against killing innocent human being. He said, "We should say anti-Islamic state kills them as Quran affirms that whoever kills an innocent person is as if he kills all humanity, and he who saves a single person - disregard his religion, is like saving all humanity. He accused the media of a "double-standard strategy" saying, "the same double-standard strategy is happening with a man related by nothing to Islam but by his name who killed over 50 gays in Orlando.

Kuntap means the consumer of misery and troubles. Thus meaning the message of peace and safety and if translated in Arabic means Islam. Kuntap also means hidden glands in the abdomen. These mantras are called so probably because their true meaning was hidden and was to be revealed in future. Its hidden meaning is also connected with the navel or the middle point of this earth. In many revealed books it was the first house of Divine worship where God Almighty gave spiritual nourishment to the world. Thus Kuntap stands for Makkah or Bakkah. Several people have translated these Kuntap Suktas like M. The main points mentioned in the Kuntap Suktas i. Mantra 1 He is Narashansah or the praised one Muhammad. Mantra 2 He is a camel-riding Rishi, whose chariot touches the heaven. Mantra 3 He is Mamah Rishi who is given a hundred gold coins, ten chaplets necklaces , three hundred good steeds and ten thousand cows. Mantra 4 Vachyesv rebh. Kaurama also means an emigrant. The Prophet migrated from Makkah to Madinah and was thus also an Emigrant. He will be protected from 60, enemies, which was the population of Makkah. The Prophet would ride a camel. This clearly indicates that it cannot be an Indian Rishi, since it is forbidden for a Brahman to ride a camel according to the Sacred Books of the East, volume 25, Laws of Manu pg. According to Manu Smirti chapter 11 verse , "A Brahman is prohibited from riding a camel or an ass and to bathe naked. He should purify himself by suppressing his breath". No rishi in India or another Prophet had this name Mamah which is derived from Mah which means to esteem highly, or to revere, to exalt, etc. It is incorrect to apply grammar to an Arabic word. Actually shas the same meaning and somewhat similar pronunciation as the word Muhammad pbuh. He is given gold coins, which refers to the believers and the earlier companions of the Prophet during his turbulent Makkan life. Later on due to persecution they migrated from Makkah to Abyssinia. Later when Prophet migrated to Madinah all of them joined him in Madinah. The 10 chaplets or necklaces were the 10 best companions of the Holy Prophet pbuh known as Ashra-Mubbashshira 10 bestowed with good news. These were foretold in this world of their salvation in the hereafter i. A cow is also called Go and is a symbol of war as well as peace. The 10, cows refer to the 10, companions who accompanied the Prophet pbuh when he entered Makkah during Fateh Makkah which was a unique victory in the history of mankind in which there was no blood shed. The 10, companions were pious and compassionate like cows and were at the same time strong and fierce and are described in the Holy Quran in Surah Fatah: Battle of the Allies described in the Vedas. These liberators drink these feats of bravery and the inspiring songs gladdened thee in the field of battle. When thou renders vanquished without fight the ten thousand opponents of the praying one, the adoring one. The 10, opponents mentioned in the Mantra were the enemies of the Prophet and the Muslims were only in number. The last words of the Mantra aprati ni bashayah means the defeat was given to the enemies without an actual fight. Totally there were about 20 chiefs to rule the population of Makkah. Muhammad pbuh overcame his enemies with the help of God.

In the Light of Science". Naik has said that "despite the strident anti-Islam campaign, 34, Americans have embraced Islam from September to July For example, he says certain verses of the Quran accurately describe embryological development. In a YouTube video, speaking of Osama bin Laden, Naik said that he would not criticise bin Laden because he had not met him and did not know him personally. He added that, "If bin Laden is fighting enemies of Islam, I am for him," and that "If he is terrorizing the terrorist, if he is terrorizing America " the terrorist, biggest terrorist " I am with him. Every Muslim should be a terrorist. The thing is that if he is terrorizing the terrorist, he is following Islam. In , Naik said that he had been quoted out of context regarding the remarks on terrorism. What is the meaning of the word terrorist? Terrorist by definition means a person who terrorises. So in this context every Muslim should be a terrorist to each and every anti-social element. So in this context no Muslim should ever terrorise a single innocent human being. Propagation of other faiths in Islamic states Naik says that propagation of other religions within an Islamic state is forbidden while he appreciates people of other religions allowing Muslims to freely propagate Islam in their country. He claims that Taliban respect women a lot and fake videos of Taliban are being shown on the T. Other countries Visit to Australia and Wales In Naik, at the invitation of the Islamic Information and Services Network of Australasia, made an appearance at Melbourne University, where he argued that only Islam gave women true equality. He said the more "revealing Western dress" makes women more susceptible to rape. Saleem Kidwai, Secretary General of the Muslim Council of Wales, disagreed with Davies, stating that "people who know about him [Naik] know that he is one of the most uncontroversial persons you could find. He talks about the similarities between religions, and how should we work on the common ground between them", whilst also inviting Davies to discuss further with Naik personally in the conference. The conference went ahead, after the Cardiff council stated it was satisfied that he would not be preaching extremist views. May said of the exclusion order, "Numerous comments made by Dr Naik are evidence to me of his unacceptable behaviour". Naik argued that the Home Secretary was making a political decision and not a legal one, and his lawyer said the decision was "barbaric and inhuman". He also claimed that his comments were taken out of context. Film producer Mahesh Bhatt supported Naik, saying the ban constituted an attack on freedom of speech. It was reported that Naik would attempt to challenge the ruling in the High Court. His application for judicial review was dismissed on 5 November He was ranked 82 in the edition. Sadanand Dhume writes that Naik has a "carefully crafted image of moderation", because of his gentle demeanor, his wearing of a suit and tie, and his quoting of scriptures of other religions. He is also mentioned in the book "The most influential muslims " " under honourable mentions. He also criticized him for calling for India to be ruled by Shariah law. He added that, according to Naik, Jews "control America" and are the "strongest in enmity to Muslims. He concluded that unless Indians find the ability to criticize such a radical Islamic preacher as robustly as they would a Hindu equivalent, the idea of Indian secularism would remain deeply flawed. The Times of India published a profile of Naik entitled "The controversial preacher" after he was banned from the United Kingdom. According to The Times, "the fact is that barring the band of Muslims whose bruised egos Naik suitably massages through his Islam supremacist talks, most rational Muslims and non-Muslims find his brand of Islam a travesty of the faith". The Times also claimed that "the Wahabi-Salafist brand of Islam, bankrolled by petro-rich Saudi Arabia and propagated by preachers like Naik, does not appreciate the idea of pluralism. A community nursing a huge sense of betrayal and injustice naturally lionises anyone who gives it a sense of pride. Indian journalist Khushwant Singh says he "disagree[s] with almost everything [Naik] has to say about misconceptions about Islam". Yoginder Sikand wrote in that influential sections of the Deobandi community in India were beginning to hold a negative view of Naik. Torkel Brekke, a professor of religious history in Norway, calls Naik a "very controversial figure" because of his rhetorical attack on other religions and other varieties of Islam. He writes that Naik is "strongly disliked" by many members of the Indian ulema for ignoring their authority and stating that anybody can interpret the Quran. Conservative Deobandi mullahs have accused Naik of "destroying Islam" by driving Muslims away from the correct religious authorities. While being lauded by some of his Muslim contemporaries for his dawah work and for the fact he has brought people to Islam, he has been criticised for his opposition to taqlid; that is, the following of one of the four accepted madhabs, or schools, of Islam. Taqlid is one of the established principles of Islam, so fundamental in fact that some have accused those who reject it of "deviancy", a much weightier claim than the word might otherwise indicate. Praveen Swami considers Naik to be a part of the ideological infrastructure created to feed "Tempered Jihad", which he defines as Jihad calibrated to advance Islamist political objectives.
