Bringing your Book To Print With our enthusiastic team of qualified editors, typesetters, illustrators, cover designers and publicity experts, we have the tools and skills to transform your rough draft into a professionally printed hard-copy book and reader-friendly eBook. Every manuscript receives a comprehensive review for grammatical, organizational, spelling, word usage and consistency by one of our seasoned editors before it can be published. A Typeset Artist will creatively design the pages of your book using elements of typographical style in order to ensure the most aesthetically pleasing final product. Any illustrations created by our award winning artists will also be placed during this stage. A Cover Designer from our highly skilled design team will, using input and direction from you, produce an eye-catching cover for your book. After your book has been fully prepared, it will be professionally printed on premium paper with a full-color glossy cover and "perfect" binding. The printed hard-copy, along with your eBook edition, will then be made available to the public via our worldwide distribution channels. A professional press release will be created and sent to thousands of media outlets to create a "buzz" about your book. A custom produced book trailer will digitally highlight the themes of your book while increasing its online presence and giving it viral potential. A high-quality webpage about you and your book will be created and hosted on the CFP website. It will feature your cover, your video trailer, a brief synopsis of the book and links to where readers can purchase it. Every book we publish is distributable worldwide to over 39, retailers, libraries, schools and online retailers including Amazon. Our authors are very proud to have published with us - here is what a few have to say: I am looking forward to what God has in store for us. What a mighty God we serve. My design suggestions were implement- ed but the actual design is better than I could have ever imagined. My designer was so easy to work with, thank you CFP. I am so excited that you chose to publish my book. The staff is very kind and professional in handling the whole publication process.
