

1: Daily Devotionals and Bible Devotions

Daily Devotion Life with a Purpose By Cathy Irvin. In the body of Christ, we want to do things for the Lord. We mean well and get involved before we really seek the Lord about it.

We mean well and get involved before we really seek the Lord about it. Maybe we do it out of guilt or feel pressured by well-meaning friends. I will just be doing the work of the Lord with no real purpose. Everything we do must be done with a willing heart devoted to the Lord. Otherwise, it is empty. That is like a bobble-head doll. They have a spring inside, the head is bigger than the body, and they are hollow inside. Do you ever feel like you go through the motions, yet your heart is not in it at all? That is what it is like to be a bobble-head. The thing to do when you feel this way is to stop and ask yourself some questions. Is this what the Lord wants from my life? Am I bobbing up and down, taking up space? If you are a leader, get out there and lead with confidence. If you are a behind-the-scenes person, then do it with excellence. Step into the right position in the body of Christ, and the Lord will add gifts to your life. You may be multi-talented, but where is your passion? For example, I can teach and sing. We each have our own areas of ministry. We want to please the Lord, not man. We need to keep our heads on straight, and look to the Lord for our callings. Let us do the very best in the place He shows us, and run with a heart after God. There is a book currently gaining a lot of attention in the Christian community. There are some groups that are conducting Bible studies centered on this book. Individuals are reading and talking about it. One church is building its sermons and cell groups on the Purpose Driven Life theme. No one is a bobble-head on purpose, and we certainly want a purpose driven life. Paul prayed that God would bless the Christians in Corinth, so they might abound in every good work. And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work 2 Corinthians 9: He expressed confidence that God would continue to enhance the good work begun in them. Search your heart and see what your passion is, and then go after it. Use your gifts and talents, watch the Lord bless you. Surely, you will be content and there will be no more bobbing around. You will be moving forward -- being all God has called you to be. Copyright Cathy Irvin.

We read books, attend seminars, take personality tests, and try to define our deepest desires – all part of a crusade to figure out the meaning of our existence. In fact, it is so simple that most of us miss it completely in our desperate search for direction. In John 15, Jesus gave His disciples what may be the most profound and beautiful command in the entire Bible. He cleared life of all its complexities and confusion in one simple phrase. He summed up the essence, the grandeur, the mystery, and the marvel of life in but a few life-altering words. He meant, Find the meaning of life in Me. Find your value and confidence in Me. Find your purpose and direction in Me. Find the source for all spiritual achievement in Me. Find the strength to live each moment in Me. Find the wisdom to navigate the many turns of life in Me. Find forgiveness from all your sins in Me. Find the satisfaction of boundless joy in Me. Find the most glorious peace in Me. Find the most perfect love and acceptance in Me. Find the most satisfying life for all eternity in Me. To abide in Christ means to allow His life to possess you at all times and in every situation life brings. God created us to abide in Him. Abiding in Him is what we were created for. Abiding in Him is the reason we are here. We are here on this earth to intimately know and enjoy our God. We are here on this earth to let our lives be used, owned, and operated by His almighty grace. We are here to allow His life to evidence itself through our being. And all these things rolled into one say that we are here on this earth to abide in Christ.

Is it important for a Christian to have daily devotions? Daily devotions is a phrase used to denote the discipline of Bible reading and prayer with which Christians start or end their day. Bible reading in daily devotions can take the form of a structured study using a devotional book or a simple reading of certain passages. Some people like to read through the Bible in a year. Prayer in daily devotions can include any or all of the different types of prayer—praise, confession, thanksgiving, petition, and intercession. Some people use prayer lists for their daily devotions. Others prefer to pray as they read the Word in an interactive manner, listening for God speaking to them through the Bible passages and responding in prayer. Whatever the format of daily devotions, the important thing is that our daily devotions, as the name implies, be truly devoted to God and occur daily. It is important to spend time with God in daily devotions. Of course, this light comes only from knowing God through Christ. The marvelous treasure of the Holy Spirit is given to each Christian, and we need faith to believe and act upon that truth. In all reality, if we truly yearn to experience the light of our Lord, we will need to be with God every day. As the children of God seek a closer relationship with God, they will find God is closer than ever. The impure and double-minded will have no such yearning in their hearts. In fact, they will seek to separate themselves from God as much as possible. In daily devotions, we want to draw near to God. Under the regulations of the Old Covenant, the priests represented the people before God. This meant he had to bathe, wear the proper garments, and offer the proper sacrifices. His own heart had to be right with God. This verse applies the language of the Old Testament ceremonial system to us today. Just as those ancient priests prepared themselves to be near God, we also should prepare ourselves spiritually to worship Him, whether in formal worship or in our personal devotional times. After salvation, the spiritual growth begins. The believer will, like Enoch, naturally want to walk with God Genesis 5: He will, like Asaph, desire to be near God Psalm He will, like the disciples, yearn to pray effectively Luke In short, the child of God will want to find time for daily devotions.
