

1: Discovering God's Truth Promises and Timing ~ A Christian Mindset

Discovering God's Promises in His Word: Psalm The prayers and petitions of this Psalm are literally a praise offering of esteem for God's Word. As I have been reading commentaries on this Psalm I have found multiple exhortations to commit the entire passage to memory.

Yet the knowledge necessary in grasping this truth takes a personal commitment to learning His word. And when we engage in the Bible without reservations, then God unleashes His wisdom. God and truth are inseparable. This revelation shows up in His creations and attested through scripture. When the Lord inspired Moses to write His word it explained the reason heaven and earth exist Genesis 1. In fact, every recorded Scripture captures His faithfulness in carrying out His promises. God makes knowing Him a relationship full of hope and filled with love. Many other Old Testaments verses support the authenticity of God. In the New Testament God uses the same demonstrations to heighten His unwavering nature. When Christ became human, it validated the Prophets message that God keeps His promise to send a Messiah. As a matter-of-fact Christ proves God is the one real God. Once the Lord saves a soul, then Jesus takes over and sanctifies the heart. He assures us if we accept Christ as the way to heaven John Each of us understands this reality because Christ takes away temptation and supplies a courage to walk away from sin. In my personal relationship with God, everything He promised came true. Agnosticism ruled my mind. I centered my life in skepticism unwilling to accept God. And when my disbelief led to self-destruction, He rescued me. Today I know the way of faith. For as long as I stay willing to put Him above everything God never leaves me without a solution. This means we need to continue praying and meditating on His truth. No matter how troublesome our lives become God is our greatest strength in moving past our problems. The key in knowing the spiritual actions Christ directs us to take is spending private time with God. And the more we absorb His truth our ability to recognize His commands emerges. Since our Father is Spirit, then the measuring stick in knowing how to go ahead becomes engaged in the spiritual realm. Sometimes God stays silent. Here we need to examine ourselves and make sure our approach is faith-centered. Scripture reminds when asking God for wisdom is trusting Him James 1: Other useful tools in waiting are patience and perseverance. Perseverance is faith in action. Given these points, we can agree God is the truth, honor His word and never fails to give the spiritual food necessary to live according to His purpose.

2: The Promises of God: Discovering the One Who Keeps His Word by R.C. Sproul

Discovering God's Truth Promises and Timing It's easy understanding God's perfect honesty. The knowledge necessary in grasping this truth takes a personal commitment to learning His word.

The knowledge necessary in grasping this truth takes a personal commitment to learning His word. And when we engage in the Bible without reservations, then God unleashes His wisdom. Infinite Truth God and truth are inseparable. This revelation showed up in His creations and attested through scripture. When the Lord inspired Moses to write His word it explained the reason heaven and earth exist Genesis 1. In fact, every recorded Scripture captures His faithfulness in carrying out His promises. God made knowing Him a relationship full of hope and filled with love. Many other Old Testaments verses support the authenticity of God. In the New Testament God uses the same demonstrations to heighten His unwavering nature. When Christ became human, it validated the Prophets message that God keeps His promise to send a Messiah. As a matter-of-fact Christ proves, God is the one real God. Once the Lord saves a soul, then Jesus takes over and sanctifies the heart. He assures us if we accept Christ as the way to heaven John Each of us understands this reality because Christ takes away temptation and supplies courage to walk away from sin. Agnosticism ruled my mind. I centered my life in skepticism unwilling to accept God. And when my disbelief led to self-destruction, He rescued me. Today I know the way of faith. For as long as I stay willing to put Him above everything God never leaves me without a solution. This means we need to continue praying and meditating on His truth. No matter how troublesome our lives become, God is our greatest strength in moving past our problems. The key in knowing the spiritual actions Christ directs us to take is spending private time with God. And the more we absorb His truth our ability to recognize His commands emerges. Since our Father is Spirit, then the measuring stick in knowing how to go ahead becomes engaged in the spiritual realm. Sometimes God stays silent. Here we need to examine ourselves and make sure our approach is faith-centered. Scripture reminds when asking God for wisdom is trusting Him James 1: Other useful tools in waiting are patience and perseverance. Perseverance is faith in action. Given these points, we can agree God is the truth, honor His word and never fails to give the spiritual food necessary to live according to His purpose. Often people misunderstand the characteristics of a saved life. I hope you will share your faith with me so we can grow together in the image of Christ. View all posts by walterkahler.

3: Discovering God's Promises Through Personal Prophecy

The Promises of God: Discovering the One Who Keeps His Word and millions of other books are available for Amazon Kindle. Learn more Enter your mobile number or email address below and we'll send you a link to download the free Kindle App.

The promise of being blessed and made a blessing. The promise of increase. The promise of good health. The promise of the Holy Spirit. The promise of His leadership and protection. God had us in mind when He made promise to Abraham and sealed it with an oath. This is how the Bible puts it: He will never fail. However, we all have a part to play to make what He says concerning us come to pass. Here some things to take note of: All of that is so he can kill your confidence in God, destroy your faith and make you lose focus. But I challenge you to keep believing no matter what and know that your deliverance is at hand. It was said of Abraham: Somebody reading this is about to share a mind blowing testimony. You need to show patience and walk in obedience to God By experience, we can bear witness that God never lies and never fails. God does everything beautiful in His time. Patience is about waiting for a thing for as long as it will take the thing without complaining, worrying or fear. Patience and obedience go together, this is why the Bible says: You see, the devil knows that if he can frustrate you, get you to be upset with God and walk away from His Word, he can interrupt your destiny. Doing the will of God keeps you within His will and purpose for your life Doing the will of God is your only Guarantee that what you are believing for will come to pass. You forfeit a lot not knowing and not walking in the will of God. One of the things you must do when you are experiencing a delay is to check it out and make sure that the delay is not as a result of disobedience to God. Check out every aspect of your life and be sure that you are doing the will of God there. However, never forget that you are always going to need patience - Remember, God only does everything beautiful in His time. I decree and declare into your life and destiny - the arrows of the enemy against you will not prosper. The mountain before you will come low. In the mighty name of Jesus your victory is here! Keep Doing the will of God Posted by.

4: Discovering God's Promises through His Word: Psalm - Journeys in Grace

*Fear Not! Discovering God's Promises For Our Lives [Virginia D. Ripple] on www.enganchecubano.com *FREE* shipping on qualifying offers. When life seems impossible to cope with, God reaches out to remind us of his promises for our lives.*

It has been a consuming love affair for me from the day I found the Truth embedded there for me to discover. However, whenever I feel down or discouraged, weary or broken, hopeless and distraught, or unsure, Psalms has been my prescription of choice. I often call it the Rx for my everything. It is absolutely full of so much goodness and it all reminds us that we are loved by God with a deep and true love that meets us right where we are. Sola Scriptura- Scripture alone. It is wise to study His Word. That word, as John 1 reminds us, is the beginning of all things. All things were made and came into existence through Him; and without Him was not even one thing was made that has come into being. We need to ingest it as a divine meal of holy proportions. Feasting on the supreme Wisdom of God, getting it in front of our eyes, listening to it with our ears, writing it down with our hands, and speaking it with our mouths opens up every gate of entrance to our heart. And out of the abundance of the heart we live by the words we speak. Look at what Hebrews 4: Please understand that sermons, essays, blogs hello, you are reading mine , and books that expound upon the validity of His Word and His way are necessary for our growth. As I have been reading commentaries on this Psalm I have found multiple exhortations to commit the entire passage to memory. This Psalm is an acrostic poem that actually becomes a prayer. The number 22 is significant for a few reasons: Each section corresponds with a significant letter of the Hebrew Alphabet. Our breath prayers are often an example of poetic praise, elevating God as we journey through life. Most writers believe the Psalm is a collection of experiences over a lifetime, not something penned in one sitting. How fitting to consider, the possibility of our breath prayers as a Psalm of praise and reflection. The more one studies it, the better they are. The theme of this Psalm is simply, the Word of God. As we read it, the practicality of the words draw us in and get our attention. Our God is a personal and real God. He is not beyond connecting with. And yet, we can easily forget that He is God, and we need to revere and respect Him in awe and wonder. When we consider that his Law and His Word are synonymous it should fill us with deep appreciation for Truth. His testimonies are complimentary all throughout the Word. The Word literally testifies of itself over and over. His commandments are given by authority and are trustworthy. His precepts can be should be personally applied in all our life situations. The Word, Christ, is all and in all. His judgments are wisdom which leads us to judge wisely in life. His righteousness is holy and they set our standard of conduct. His statutes are perpetually fixed as the physical laws which govern our world. Science and Creation are not combative but complimentary. His Truth is verified. It is the foundation upon which everything else has been built in eternal faithfulness. Our lives should be influenced by His Word so much that the influence leaves a pattern of His fingerprint upon all our ways. The whole Psalm is designed to illustrate the influence of one who seeks after God. May we learn by example the humble art of writing out our sacred petitions directed by His Word igniting a fire of faith in our hearts.

5: Discovering, Enabling & Fulfilling Destiny: God's promises for you is sure and will come to pass

Discovering God's Promises USB Drive The Discovering God's Promises USB Drive contains over 30 hours of teaching from Gary! 1. Understanding Kingdom Authority 4 CD teaching.

I needed to be reminded of the promises of God, and Dr. He reminded me of the unshakable covenants God has made. Man has failed in keeping up his end of the agreement time and time again, but God did not fail. He sent His Son, the second Adam, to fulfill all that was required of us. I do This book includes a study guide and questions at the end of each chapter which was a surprise. I do not agree with every word in this book e. Here are a couple of quotes that were a blessing: I believe that the hardest thing for people to grasp in the Christian faith is that salvation is of the Lord. It is God who saves. The story of Abraham leaves no doubt about this. God brought the descendants of Abraham into the Promised Land. However, Paul could not have been clearer â€” God did not foresee some difference in behavior between Esau and Jacob. Furthermore, what was there in the life of Jacob that might cause God to choose Jacob rather than Esau? Jacob was a liar, a supplanter, and a cheater from the beginning. But God gave the covenant promise to him so that His sovereign grace in salvation should be made manifest. The Creation covenant, sometimes called the Adamic Covenant is referred to as a covenant of works. Mosaic Covenant is an extension of the Abrahamic Covenant of Grace. They are packed with the meat of the word. Dec 03, Sean rated it it was amazing Wonderful book. Well written and takes complicated issues - such as the different covenants - and makes them understandable and accessible to the average reader.

6: Exceeding Great and Precious Promises

It also reveals God's promises for your life. God has already given you everything you need to create the promise He has made to you and bring it into manifestation. Whatever promise God has made to you, He has already created it for you through something that already exists in your life.

Every Believer has been predestinated to be like the Son. Sanctification is the process of becoming more and more like Jesus. To Him be glory both now and for ever. Our day-to-day needs have been ordained by God to cause us the necessity of discovering some new aspect of the character of the LORD Jesus that we may lay hold of by means of the Exceeding Great and Precious Promises. Rees Howells, a Welsh coal miner who exemplified intercessory prayer, understood that need to please God and recorded: God requires man to live by faith. All men have a moral likeness to their Creator. That likeness means the ability to make a moral decision of choosing or rejecting good or evil. No, that does not make one a child of God without repentance and faith. But, even with this God-given capacity of every man to choose or reject God, man never does what he should without the gracious intervention of God. Our claiming of the Promises only occurs with the continual help of God. In this fashion, God rightly demands us to exercise faith in our own salvation and sanctification, while giving us His help freely, as a Father to a child, to ensure our likeness to the Only Begotten Son. Through Jesus "we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand" Romans 5: The Veracity of God promise assumes the veracity and ability of the one who makes the promise to keep it. What is Scripture but the account of a Faithful God dealing with man? Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of His Counsel, confirmed it by an Oath: That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us" Hebrews 6: What "two immutable things" are meant by Hebrews 6: God cannot lie because He has chosen not to lie. God is what He is because He has chosen to be so, not because someone else caused Him to be that way. Thus, He is what He has chosen to be, and deserves the greatest honor and credit for being the Faithful God. The Father has made the deposit. His authorizing signature is His Word. Your name has been carefully included on the line, "Pay to the Order of". To ensure no difficulty in your cashing of the check, our Loving Heavenly Father has written your name as "Whosoever Will"-- "whosoever will, let him take the Water of Life freely" Revelation All that remains is your cooperation, in endorsing your signature on the back of the check, to tell the Bank that you have accepted the check. This can only be done by faith. What hinders us from claiming the Promises of God? The absence of faith. Sometimes we refuse to believe what God has said-- for whatever selfish reason. Other times, we simply lack the faith to honestly believe because we do not understand the Promise. And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind. For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you. After we have claimed the Promises, we may falter because we become impatient. That too, is sin. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing" James 1: Gaining from God the very thing we desired and for which we prayed the Promises, has the added benefit of God perfecting us to be more like the LORD Jesus. For instance, we have been promised prosperity and success, but on the condition that we abide in the Word of God. We have been promised a secure and happy family, but on the condition of fearing i. We have been promised escape from the Tribulation Week as understood from Daniel 9 and Matthew 24 , but on the condition of our continual watching and praying that we would be accounted worthy to escape. The examples are endless. With all the love that He lavished upon our original parents in their Edenic Paradise, it must have truly pained Him to cause death to fall upon Adam and Eve after they ate the Forbidden Fruit. Noah "being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house" Hebrews Jehovah said, "I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth" Genesis 6: He promised Noah the delay of years before the Flood would come, which was enough time to build the Ark. The Promised Land is Israel. Though Abraham was promised to possess all the land on which he dwelled, he was still only "a stranger and a sojourner" Genesis By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise" Hebrews What motivated Abraham to continue living as a stranger in the land that God had promised him as a possession? Abraham looked for an eternal dwelling with his God. In other words, Abraham was patient about receiving the Promised Land from God because He was motivated by the higher desire to dwell with God forever. Rahab is another excellent example of how God has kept His Promises. And it shall be, when the LORD hath given us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with thee" Joshua 2: Rahab had a further condition to fulfill in addition to her silence about the whereabouts of the two spies. And it shall be, that whosoever shall go out of the doors of thy house into the street, his blood shall be upon his head, and we will be guiltless: And if thou utter this our business, then we will be quit of thine oath which thou hast made us to swear. And she said, According unto your words, so be it. And she sent them away, and they departed: Because Rahab fulfilled the conditions for her promised preservation, she not only received her life in the bargain, but was one of the direct ancestors of King David and the LORD Jesus Christ. Truly our God is "able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the Power that worketh in us" Ephesians 3: Thank God for the faith of Rahab! Also, consider the fact that we can only stand on the Promises in the present tense. It is appropriate to say that we have stood on the Promises in the past and will stand upon them in the future, but only today can we say that we are Standing on the Promises of God. If we cannot have a present victory in our dependence on the Promises of God, the past and the future lose significance. May we be as presently optimistic as Brother Paul when he announced to his fellow lost-at-sea shipmates their certain deliverance. If God is presently sustaining us, then we have confidence in God. Walking by faith, claiming the Promises, and believing God, all describe confidence in God. Pray that God will give us a strong grip on Himself. What a wonderful prayer that God will most willingly grant! Can we lose our reward? Our confidence in God and in His Promises has great reward. When we backslide from the LORD, we lose ground from where we were previously standing. We need Promises from God to ensure our continual cleaving to His Promises! How can we await an appointed time of departure from this earthly abode without confidence in God? The promise of our LORD coming to take us before the Tribulation Week begins is further founded upon our confidence that He is able to subdue us to Himself. How could we be ready otherwise? Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto His glorious body, according to the working whereby He is able even to subdue all things unto Himself" Philippians 3: What an ecstatic relieving of a great burden will our departure be! A present tense confidence in God and His Promises is necessary for our prayers to be answered. And if we know that He hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of Him" 1John 5: The mighty men of faith and prayer of the past such as George Muller and Hudson Taylor have taught the Church to expect great things from God-- and to attempt great things for God. They will be waiting in Heaven with the Saviour to welcome us as soldiers of the Promises, who have come home. The Immutability of God assures us that He will most assuredly perform all of His promised prophecies. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof" Matthew 6: But why should we be so unconcerned about the evil that could befall us tomorrow? Because our God is demonstrating His sustaining power through His Promises toward us today. How could we be in a state of Spiritual readiness as Wise Virgins Matthew He that feareth is not made perfect in love" 1John 4: Your faith in God honors Him, and He will likewise honor you with the fulfillment of His Promises in answer to your prayers. He has promised eternal happiness for His people. The wicked are promised eternal suffering. Those who are walking in righteousness are promised to be delivered from the upcoming Tribulation Week, while the backslidden and the wicked will not escape it. The Foolish Virgins i. Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? All Israel is promised to be finally saved. Conclusion promise need not start with an "If" to be a promise. Your faith is the understood condition of all of the Promises of God. For all things are yours" 1Corinthians 3:

7: Discovering God's Truth Promises And Timing - Walter Kahler - www.enganchecubano.com

discovering gods promises: studies in genesis life-related for personal and group study (joy of living bible study series) book condition: new. publishers return.

8: Discovering Hidden Treasure in God's Kingdom

In The Promises of God: Discovering the One Who Keeps His Word R.C. Sproul tells us that nothing could be more foolish than not to trust the promises that God has made to us. He explains in this book the biblical covenants God has made with us His people and how He never breaches or alters these promises.

9: Autism's Hidden Blessings

On the other hand, the promises of God are rock solid. What God says, he promises. Ezekiel declared the promises of God saying: 'The word of the Lord came to me: "Son of man, this is what the Sovereign Lord says "' (vv).

Talk to officials you didnt elect Remembering Santa Fe Notecards (pink) Ument maker Back In Your Arms Harraps Tintin Illustrated Dictionary 2001 chevrolet suburban owners manual Introduction to uv visible spectroscopy. Nonprofit public policy research organizations Family caregivers in popular culture : images and reality in the movies Carol Levine and Alexis Kuerbis Why didnt the North hang some rebels? Christopher Hamptons Tales from Hollywood The importance of a retributive approach to justice Graham T. Blewitt Microsoft office 2007 bible Reclaiming our minds Personalism v. Socialism Where are files ed android Indonesias 1982 General Election (Research notes and discussions paper Institute of Southeast Asian Studi History and culture of india in tamil Ncyclopedia of Bible animals Constitutional amendment to limit congressional terms The science of soap s and soap bubbles Gender and cultural issues that influence communication about sex Physical testing of leather Calculus graphical numerical algebraic ap edition 3rd edition The Hidden Greatness in The Dwarf The investment framework Software engineering 8th edition ian sommerville The 7 stages of marriage book Mcse server 2012 study guide Usa holiday list 2015 Pirates on the high seas K kundun maths Count Fontenac by W.D. LeSueur. v. 4. A tale of a hero and the song of her sword Music and instruments of the Middle Ages Journal of mathematics and music Before the law 8th edition Nts nat ie book The Lazy Persons Guide to Fitness Ableton guide for beginners