2: Why do white people wanna say "nigga" so bad? : Negareddit

"As we all know, you just can't believe everything you see and hear, can you? Now if you'll excuse me, I must be on my way.." [Schoolly D] Don't call me nigga.

PART I 1 Lie about how big your dick is all the time, and about how many white women you fucked while their husbands were away at work. This way, you feel wanted by someone other than law enforcement. Wear your cap backwards or sideways. Wear a bandana underneath the cap if possible. Ride around in white neighborhoods at night and play rap music as loud as you can. We love the rattling trunk, we really, really do. Children are a plus. Especially in libraries or theaters. Black women, this is a perfect time for you to chimp out on your "boo". Remember, white folks invented home video just because of you. Oh, this is the perfect time to call your homegirl if you can get reception to your cellphone. Then, when giving your order, keep changing it around. If you work at a fast food place, take an excessively long time to get the order ready, especially for white people. This is a reasonable means to attack or mug them. When you get caught, state your reason as "dey wuz white. Go to the dentist and get those rotten teeth replaced with gold implants. Ignore red lights, ambulances, and fire trucks. If you hit someone, drive off. In certain instances, you may end sentences with " It had absolutely nothing to do with you running the red light moments before. Be sure to spray swastikas and vulgarities on the car, then tell the police you are the victim of a hate crime. Never move for any oncoming vehicles. When they honk, just give them a scowl and smack your lips a lot. Never move your shopping cart, and never tell your heathen children to move out of the way. Fuck anyone or anything Anything to get your freak on. Tuck your eight children into bed, go out to the clubs and get drunk and "freaked" by five or six negroes. When you return home at 8: They will think you are ignorant if you try to go to college, and will think less of you. Go tell your friends what a "playa you is". Make sure the cameras are rolling when you say it. Never pay them back or be there for them in their time of need. Rule 1, get a white girl!! Find yourself a white girl with enough low self-esteem to be seen with a negro. Always have a white woman, no matter what she looks like. They are too busy praising you to sue you. This way, everyone will respect you even more. Breathe fast and hard, clench your fists when staring. If your friends are following, make sure you all drive alongside each other so you can take up all the lanes. Drive under the minimum speed limit. Make sure a lot of white girls see you doing this. Black women will grow old and teach their niglets lies about white people so they can carry on their practice of whining and receiving handouts, and so they can justify black-on-white crime. Walk slowly so you can hold up traffic. Chimp out in front of the cameras, lie about how your "baby" was a hardworking, loving, caring son The more insignificant the item, the more justified it was to shoot him. WB is not completely overrun by negroes yet, so it is not yet appropriate for viewing. Spitting while screaming is a plus. The more you exaggerate, the more important you will feel. When greeting them, give them a dirty look and smack your lips. This further justifies your hate for the "white devil" and now leaves the door open for you to become an activist. This will allow you to publicly criticize the white man for your shortcomings and exempts you from hate crime legislation. All finances are poured into one or the other. Dress like they do, try and talk like they do, and process the kinks and knapps out of your hair and dye it blonde. Bleach your skin if you are excessively dark. Though the cologne stinks, it is an improvement over your funk. Greek and Egyptian civilizations, inventions, and even claim that America was built on the backs of negroes. Instead, the main focus should be expanding affirmative action, the need for slavery reparations, more hate crime legislation aimed against the white man, and the troubling fact that hurricanes are not given black names When stranded, blame the president and white rescue teams for being racist and abandoning them, even though they were warned they could be on their own for an unknown period of time. Negroes should always wait for the government to do everything for them. If you repeat the lie long enough, perhaps one day it will become the truth. When police stay out of your neighborhoods due to the high number of brutality complaints, cry racism and say the city government does not care about blacks. He should then boast about what a great job he did when indicted for corruption charges. Never blame yourself or other negroe city officials. Al Sharpton in the Tawana Brawley case. They should also incite riots and then blame white people.

He should also attempt to have sex with every negress in the congregation, married or not. And more recently, the claim that whites blew up the New Orleans levees to drown the negroes. It is absurd, but the negro will believe it. Degenerate and violent behavior is accepted in this peaceful protest. Claim that the convict is a victim of the white justice system. If you get a sandwich or MREs, complain that they are cold. If you get a cot to sleep on, complain that it is not a waterbed. Negroes should trash and vandalize the hotels and facilities they are staying in, and should attempt to rape or rob any volunteers or residents of that city. Claim that the white man has you "locked up in the ghetto". For added effect, they should burn their front yards and throw charred wood on top of the area to add the effect of a cross burning. Look what dey done did to mah crib Lie about a medical condition, if possible. Then, turn around and call each other niggers. Justify it by saying they should be able to hear you coming anyway from the bass out of the speakers. When you do not get your way, wait for the manager to leave work and try to run her over. When the manager has to kick you out of the store, spit at him. Celebrate your false heroes such as Martin Luther King, Jr. The very next day, return to your true ways and kill, rob, and rape each other. Indeed, niggers hate niggers, too. In time, the media will expose your deviant and criminal past. She should claim that she will make it to the top of the music world someday, and they will regret throwing her off the show. Wearing a blonde wig is a plus. It is no secret that negroes love to commit insurance fraud of all kinds. Run out in the street to an oncoming vehicle and bump it as it passes. Fall over and act injured, and later sue the vehicle owner. Make sure your victim is white, negroes usually live below the poverty level, never have insurance, and usually drive off after hitting someone. Negroes operating a motor vehicle should slam on the brakes purposely to cause an accident, and then act injured. Again, the victim should be white, and again, you will sue. Negresses should wear maternity dresses and strap on a cut-open basketball half underneath as if to show pregnancy. Walk into the department store of choice and shoplift until no more items can be carried. Watch for cameras, employees, and security guards. Eat at expensive restaurants. Eat everything on the plate except for an extremely small chunk of food. Complain to the waiter that you now feel ill as a result of the food, and demand that they give you the meal for free.

A person with glasses and a polo shirt holds their palm up toward the camera. In the midst of this debate, though, there is generally one rule when it comes to the n-word on which there is almost total consensus among Black people: And despite how important listening to the voices of marginalized and oppressed people is to social justice work on the part of those with privilege, White people on the whole really seem to have hard time with this one. Or perhaps we just have trouble hearing the voices of those we consider, at some basic level, to be lesser, not fully human. So here is my message to you. Dear White Folks, We have to stop using the n-word. And remember how that whole system was enforced by a violent system of repression whereby Black slaves who did not act the way the White folks wanted them to were beaten and murdered? And it was used just about every time a Black person was whipped, chained, beaten, insulted, spat upon, raped, lynched, or otherwise humiliated and mistreated by White folks. Our people gave up the privilege to use that word the moment we invented it as a tool of oppression. Also largely middle- and upper-middle class, the worst of these would have us believe that if black men only pulled their pants up, stopped littering, and stopped calling each other that word, racism and poverty would come to an end. If White folks are interested in this debate, we should listen, but we should not assume that there is consensus within Black communities on the issue. No matter how long that conversation goes on in Black communities, though, White people do not get to take part. As the ones from whom the word of violence and oppression must be reclaimed, we do not get to have a word in that conversation. As White folks, we tend to think that every door should be open to us, every conversation should be ours, and every space should welcome us. We think this way because, when it comes to racialized spaces, that tends to be the case. We have the privilege of having our voices heard and our presence recognized in just about every space there is. Thus, we hate it when we are told that we are not actually welcome in a conversation. There is hardly a single context in the United States in which a White person but particularly White, cisgender men cannot assert themselves into a space and have their voice heard. White women can hopefully begin to though never fully understand this when you think about the ways in which you are denied voice and space by dominant men. Though these oppressions cannot be compared, hopefully this comparison can help generate a little empathy into why it simply is not okay for us as White people to expect our voices to be heard in every conversation. Just because we are not welcome to use one word in the English language does not mean that we are being discriminated against. Which means that we can put this whole thing to rest, right?
