Here are some common problems and solutions: Make sure you have the most current copy of the workbook. There is a link under Downloads tab on this website to the most current version. Choose the Mac or PC version, depending on the computer that you will be using. You can download and install Adobe Reader for free at <https://www.adobe.com/reader>: Do NOT save your file in the Cloud. The click File, Open, and then find the file in the folder that you created. The file is large, nearly 5 megabytes, so it sometimes takes a little while to open. Make sure that you can enter information in the workbook you can start entering your contact information on Page 9. Then close the workbook, open it again, and make sure that your information is still there. Having troubling entering costs? Instead, use your mouse to click in the next box. Your cost should stay in the first box. When you submit your Eagle application, it will be in a paper form. So you can add any sort of additional documents into your project workbook. Simply print out an additional document and then insert it into your physical copy of the workbook. These can be photos, project logs, sign-in sheets etc. I suggest to Scouts that they NOT insert photos or diagrams into the actual workbook. I do a lot of coaching by email, sending the workbook back and forth. Too many photos will often make the workbook impossible to email. So paste the photos or diagrams into a separate word processing document, print out, and insert the printed pages into your physical copy. If you are having any other difficulties, let me know with an email to CoachHunt EagleCoach. Just send an email to CoachHunt EagleCoach. We promise your email will not be shared with anyone else. Leadership responsibility in your school, religious organization, club, or elsewhere in your community. While a Life Scout, plan, develop, and give leadership to others in a service project helpful to any religious institution, any school, or your community. The project must benefit an organization other than the Boy Scouts of America. A project proposal must be approved by the organization benefiting from the effort, your Scoutmaster and unit committee, and the council or district before you start. To learn more about the Eagle Scout service project, see the Guide to Advancement, topics 9. While a Life Scout, participate in a Scoutmaster conference. In preparation for your board of review, prepare and attach to your Eagle Scout Rank Application a statement of your ambitions and life purpose and a listing of positions held in your religious institution, school, camp, community, or other organizations, during which you demonstrated leadership skills. Include honors and awards received during this service. Successfully complete your board of review for the Eagle Scout rank. Likewise, a Scoutmaster-approved leadership project shall not be used in lieu of serving in a position of responsibility. If a Scout foresees that, due to no fault or choice of his own, he will be unable to complete the Eagle Scout rank requirements before age 18, he may apply for a limited time extension in accordance with Guide to Advancement topic 9. Time extensions are rarely granted. He may earn these awards until his 18th birthday. An Eagle Scout board of review may occur, without special approval, within three months after the 18th birthday. Local councils must preapprove those held three to six months afterward. To initiate approval, the candidate, his parent or guardian, the unit leader, or a unit committee member attaches to the application a statement explaining the delay. Consult the Guide to Advancement, topic 8. If you have a permanent physical or mental disability, or a disability expected to last more than two years, or beyond age 18, you may become an Eagle Scout by qualifying for as many required merit badges as you can and qualifying for alternative merit badges for the rest. If you seek to become an Eagle Scout under this procedure, you must submit a special application to your local council service center. Your application must be approved by your council advancement committee before you can work on alternative merit badges. A Scout, Venturer, or Sea Scout with a disability may also work toward rank advancement after he is 18 years of age if he meets the guidelines outlined in section 10 of the Guide to Advancement.
