Pastor and civil war chaplain E. Prayer is what connects us to the Creator, without prayer we lack His guidance and His power in our lives. We become an ineffective, dysfunctional part of the body of Christ. Bounds has experience with the results of true, faith-filled prayer. Let him show you how to turn your frustration into praise as you move mountains through life-changing prayer. Bridge Logos Foundation Format Available: He used terms such as: These faith-building, Spirit-inspired, never-before-published writings are now gathered together in one powerful volume in the Pure Gold Classics series. If heaven is truly a paradise where God dwells, we should desire it more than anything on this frail, fleeting earth. The trials and difficulties of life should each be seen in light of the coming glory of heaven. Unfortunately, we rarely view things from this perspective. Our schedules are filled with the present, allowing no time for contemplating or desiring eternity. Our incorrect perspective makes us spend our time on the least important things while ignoring those things that are most crucial. Take a break from the present and let E. Bounds help you discover A Place Called Heaven. Examining virtually all the Scriptures that pertain to heaven, Bounds masterfully explains the nature of heaven and our purpose in it. Get a taste of heaven here on earth, learn a true Christian attitude toward eternity, and discover a purer, truer life. Bounds have been edited down to average two and a half page daily readings.

Prayer That Gets Results Prayer is the Christian's lifeline to God, and with it lives are changed for eternity! E. M. Bounds knew the secrets of prayer and that God has established divine principles and promises for our every need.

He is the son of Thomas Jefferson and Hester A. In , Thomas contracted tuberculosis and died. After four unsuccessful years, they returned to Missouri. Bounds studied law in Hannibal, Missouri , after which, at age 19, he became the youngest practicing lawyer in the state of Missouri. Following a brush arbor revival meeting led by Evangelist Smith Thomas, he closed his law office and moved to Palmyra, Missouri to enroll in the Centenary Seminary. Two years later, in at the age of 24, he was ordained by his denomination and was named pastor of the nearby Monticello, Missouri Methodist Church. They had two daughters, Celeste and Corneille, and a son, Edward. Emmie died on February 18, His son Edward, by his first wife, died at the age of six, and his son Charles, by his second wife, died eight days after his first birthday. Bounds did not support slavery. Edward saw no reason for a U. He was held with other non-combatants in a Federal prison in St. Louis for a year and a half. He was then transferred to Memphis and released in a prisoner exchange between the Union and the Confederacy. On June 28, , Bounds was among Confederate prisoners who were released upon the taking of an oath of loyalty to the United States. Pastoral service Upon his release as a prisoner of the Union Army, he felt compelled to return to war-torn Franklin and help rebuild it spiritually, and he became the pastor of the Franklin Methodist Episcopal Church, South. His primary method was to establish weekly prayer sessions that sometimes lasted several hours. Bounds was regionally celebrated for leading spiritual revival in Franklin and eventually began an itinerant preaching ministry throughout the country. After serving several important churches in St. Louis and other places, south, he became Editor of the St. The trial of his faith came to him while in Nashville, and he quietly retired to his home without asking even a pension. His principal work in Washington, Georgia his home was rising at 4 am and praying until 7 am. He filled a few engagements as an evangelist during the eighteen years of his lifework. No man could have made more melting appeals for lost souls and backslidden ministers than did Bounds. Tears ran down his face as he pleaded for us all in that room. He was one of the most intense eagles of God that ever penetrated the spiritual ether. He could not brook delay in rising, or being late for dinner. He would go with me to street meetings often in Brooklyn and listen to the preaching and sing with us those beautiful songs of Wesley and Watts. He often reprimanded me for asking the unconverted to sing of Heaven. Quit asking sinners to sing the songs of Zion and the Lamb. After his death, Rev. Claudius Claude Lysias Chilton, Jr. By , more editorial work was being done by Rev. They are hidden treasures, wrought in the darkness of dawn and the heat of the noon, on the anvil of experience, and beaten into wondrous form by the mighty stroke of the divine. They are living voices whereby he, being dead, yet speaketh!
