Maui is visible on clear days. The area boasts a perfect climate of just enough rain to keep the streams going and the flowers blooming, cool trades off the ocean, and a daytime year-round temperature of between 70 and 85 degrees, with cooler nights. The property is landscaped with a vast variety of exotic trees, ferns, orchids, palms, flowering shrubs and exotic fruits to pick. We are in the early stages of growing Vanilla, Cocoa, black sapote Chocolate pudding tree , Cashew and Macadamia nut trees. Try our fully mature when in season hamakua coast coffee beans, mangoes, mangosteens, avocados, pomelo, Jackfruit, papaya, passion fruit, soursop, breadfruit, rambutan, lychee nuts, starfruit, Brazilian cherries, jaboticaba, cherymoya, mountain apples, true cinnamon, cloves, Miracle berries, a variety of citrus, bananas and much more grown on the property. Walk out to the point for one of the best views on the island. Take another short steep path for sturdy feet only past the Banyan tree and passion fruit vines into the gulch on our property. Ocean and waterfall views. Enjoy the peace and privacy of your own suite complete with private outdoor soak tubs. No children under 6 Staying at Hale Kukui is an ecoadventure and an end destination in itself! It is also a great jump off point for other destinations! Overview of the neighborhood: Old Hawaii meets modern conveniences, safe, private, lush natural beauty and most of the comforts of home. If you are able to pull yourself away to see other parts of the island, Hale Kukui is a great stepping stone to the whole island. Walk or drive 1. Try local ride the rim, surfing, biking, helicopter tours of Waipio Valley, horseback, hiking, camping and enjoy the longest black sand beach in Hawaii below the property. Drive to Hawaiian cowboy country in Waimea and you may smell eucalyptus on your way to the cooler climate in Waimea Kamuela. Here there is more shopping, fast food chains, a bigger hospital and some of the best food in the islands is here only 30 minutes away. Drive over to the white sand beaches about 35 minutes from Waimea, the 5 star hotels and high end shopping of the southwest coast. Otherwise drive east along the lush Hamakua coast, see Akaka falls, the world famous botanical gardens, Hilo, Volcanoes National park, Natural hot springs in Paho. Take the saddle road between Hilo and Waimea and drive to the 14, top of Mauna Kea along the way many countries have their space observatories there. Mauna Kea is the tallest mountain in the world from the sea floor. Visit Kona and see if you think the preferred coffee of the white house is really as good as the lesser locally known rich tasting Hamakua coast coffee. Hilo has a great outdoor market, shopping, surfing, etc. Another hour or so beyond is the must see Volcanoes National Park and swim in the hot springs in Paho.. Kona is about 1. The whole island has so much to offer but you will definitely want to relax at Hale Kukui for its incredible views and natural private surroundings.
