He has a medical condition, often equated with Treacher Collins syndrome, which has left his face disfigured. Due to his condition, August has been homeschooled by his mother; however, wanting him to experience a larger world, his parents enroll him into Beecher Middle School for the start of fifth grade. On his first day of school, August tries not to draw attention to himself. His efforts are in vain, and Julian, one of the students whom the principal has asked to help August at school, immediately bullies him for his appearance. The situation comes to a head on Halloween when August, disguised in a costume, overhears Jack joining in with the bullying. Returning to school, August ignores Jack but admits to Summer that he had overheard the incident. Jack, feeling ashamed, punches Julian in the mouth and is suspended from school. Over the Winter break, Jack attempts reconciliation with August. As the school year progresses, the bullying August faces become more serious and extends to Jack as well. Julian manipulates several friends into turning against August and Jack. August overhears and storms out of the room. Her family celebrates by taking her and Miranda out for dinner. At the end of the school year, the students are invited on a three-day school trip to a nature reserve. August is initially concerned about going. However, upon hearing that Julian will not be attending, August decides to join his friends on the trip. August lost his hearing aids and started hearing ocean sounds. One of the boys said "your hearing aids fell off. With the summer vacation fast approaching, August is informed that Julian will not be returning to Beecher Prep for the next grade. Main characters[ edit ] August "Auggie" Pullman: His face is deformed due to a type of "bulofacial dysostosis", [8]: He faces many difficulties when he goes into his first year of middle school after being schooled by his parents for many years. In the end, he is able to make new friends and accept himself for who he is. She talks about the boy Auggie and the hardships of being a sister of someone who is deformed in Part 2. Often, Via feels jealous. She often scolds herself and feels guilty for feeling this way. She sits next to him at lunch on the first day of school when no one else would. She is always very kind to him. Isabel and Nate Pullman: Isabel and Nate work with Auggie to make sure going to regular school instead of being homeschooled is ultimately his decision. The school bully of the grade. He dislikes Auggie and convinces the other students that if they touch him, they will develop "The Plague. He has a main part in "Our Town" with Via at their high school. He also mentions that he has "tics," especially when he is nervous and describes them as "hard blinks" and "the occasional head pull. She is generally nice to Auggie and warned Jack about the "boy war" declared by Julian. He is a 7th grader who bullies August when he goes to a sleepaway camp. As he makes precepts for every month for the class to ponder, Auggie marvels at these precepts. Browne wants to give Auggie a good year at Beecher. Via, Miranda, and Ella were friends. Miranda had recently cut her hair into a bob and dyed it pink, and dressed in a manner that she would have never dressed before. Miranda took care of August and thought of him as her own "little brother;" when she went to summer camp immediately previous to the events in the book. She was the one who gave him his astronaut helmet he would wear to conceal his face, and they would also sing " Space Oddity " by David Bowie together, and she would call him " Major Tom " after the astronaut in the song. The director of Beecher Prep. He is extremely welcoming and positive towards Auggie throughout the course of the school year. He tries his hardest to make him feel welcome at school. He delivers an important speech at graduation where he says "if every single person in this room made it a rule that wherever you are, whenever you can, you will try to act a little kinder than is necessary - the world would be a better place.
