I am a talented medium; so let me ease your pain. Give me a call. Tweet Seeing Numbers in Dreams If a number appears to you in a dream, does it mean anything? First of all, the very act of dreaming in numbers is often seen as a sign that it is time to attend to the more practical sides of your life. Numbers mean math and other practical matters. They are symbolic of business. Usually we see the number represented by objects in the dream. We could see 7 pillars or 3 coins or 13 cats. If you are handing a number of something in a dream, try and count the objects because there could be significance to it. For instance, 7 pillars could mean you are in a temple and dreaming prophetically. It is open to personal interpretation as well as what the object of the dream might mean in symbolism. Some dream interpretation experts could see numbers as applying to relationships. For instance, if you dream of a 1, it can mean that you are lonely. If you dream of the number 2, it is interpreted as a sign you will meet someone. This means that it can symbolize a conflict between two sides of yourself. If you dream of a 3, it can mean that something special is going on between you and your higher power, as it is the power of the holy trinity. You are on the right path. Need help interpreting your dream? Receive FREE, amazing guidance and insight. If you dream of 4, it might represent the mother as it is a very feminine energy. Some people who feel trapped by a situation in life may dream of the number 4. The number 5 is seen as the source of life itself. It is a sexy number that can also signify the need to have intercourse. It can foretell that a baby is on the way. You should pay attention to any creative idea that comes your way. If you dream of a 7, be sure to play it in a lottery as it can be lucky. It can also mean that money is on the way. Dreaming of the number 9 can mean that you subconsciously are discerning the end of a phase in your life. It is apparently not that common to see the number 9 in a dream. It can mean a spiritual calling, but it can also mean a victory will be yours, but at the price of a terrible sacrifice. It is not really considered to be that lucky to dream of 9 because it can mean accelerated karma, which is not always that pleasant of an experience. Sometimes it is easiest to interpret the dream if you can figure out how the number got into your head in the first place. More than half the time there is no meaning to it at all. It is simply a number we have seen in ad or somewhere. If the number happens to be talked about a lot in the media, then it is more likely that we will have a dream about it. For instance, there is so much talk about the apocalypse and the year in the news, it would not be surprising at all if people were dreaming about that particular number constantly.

The Meaning of Numbers in Dreams! Debra Swihart June 1, at 6: I thought I was awake. When I did really wake up I thought about this image and realized it was a message from my unconscious. I then felt the message was the death of an old way of connecting or being in relationships. Debra Lamont Klepper June 7, at 6: Months ago I had a dream of my ex girlfriend, she had the number 86 written on her leg. What could this mean? We had broken up months ago, but i cant seem to stop thinking about her and that dream. I am of the firm belief that there can be no wrong interpretation of a dream image " it is all a matter of what resonates for the dreamer. In my work, I always turn to the basics of numerology or some other universally held meaning. If you add the numerals 8 and 6, you get 14, add 1 and 4 and you get 5. The numerological meaning for the number 5 relates to freedom. Another interesting note from my days of waiting tables a million years ago. Tegan September 30, at 9: I have been trying to help my mother interpret her dream though with little information i am really struggling and am not sure which section is most relevant to this dream as many things come into factor. She said her dream was to do with the number 5 and that out of that number she became very wealthy though heres the catch I was invovled with the creation of this wealth through perhaps what she thinks me buying a winning lottery ticket. The only sense i could make out of it was that my mother wanted to be happy, financially wealthy, secure and safe, she wanted to go on a holiday and gain freedom, and she missed me and wanted to be able to visit whenever she felt instead of whenever she had enough money. I am unsure of why I was in the dream and how it could be a family connection sort of dream as I live a long way from her approx 3 day drive or 4. I would love any ideas you have to help us out thanks. Thank You both, you have made my life so much better. Tegan mlennox September 30, at 4: Perhaps your presence in the dream and the connection to the lottery is reflecting a desire on her part to have her happiness and freedom appear to her in one fell swoop, like magically winning the lottery. Also, that you have the winning ticket may reflect that she is looking to you and more contact with you as the way in which she can feel more happiness. By the way, the chances of that happening are about as likely as her actually winning the lottery. I am being flippant, of course, but the point is this: Our freedom and happiness is something that has to be worked for and not gambled on. I hope this has been of value. What cycles in your life are coming to an end? Apartments or any homes represent the sense of self. This apartment is your spiritual Self! DaySean Phelps July 28, at 1: The other one is 19 corrects answers for objective questions. Mm, what can these mean? D November 17, at 6: The number 47 " for my husband " 47 lifelong lucky number. It has appeared on his items like boyhood football jerseys and later on military items, etc. LK December 1, at 1: Does those numbers in my dream mean something? Please advise , is this a good sign?? The one offering the job was a woman and she handed my husband a piece of paper with the offer on it. Before it takes off, my granddad who has been dead several years now, gets off the helicopter and walks to me. What does this mean? When I look up the number 2, it seems to have conflicting meanings. Yesterday I dreamt about phoning a phone operator to ask her to confirm a number. I made the phone call, and we had a conversation she was a woman. I remember telling her a phone number which was wrong but then I corrected myself and asked to confirm the number , because I needed to communicate with Alfredo Stroessner A note here: Alfredo Stroessner was a dictator that ruled my country until He committed a lot of crimes against humanity during his dictatorship. But, after waking up, I thought to myself WTF this dream??? I was trying to find the correct phone number of a person I had never met in my life, and who has been dead since the dictator passed away in , when I was barely 18 years old. So, I was wondering if you could provide some insight on the phone number? What does it mean? Gururaj Walvekar May 18, at 7: Tami June 17, at 3: Dominika June 22, at I recently renewed my interest in yoga, meditation and spirituality on a daily basis. I thought of my dad all the next day and went outside to listen to the birds and the most beautiful blue butterfly landed on top of my hand. It stayed for a while. Can you please help me to find out what they mean? Thank you, Stacey August 26, at They were coming back for me. Obviously not a license plate number. What does it mean?! H November 10, at Hope you understand my English! This is maybe one of the good meaning of the number I think that if you put parts on yourself is from the devil. Also, I think another mistic speak about the hell as a state of being of self! Cheen Parcon November 13, at 2: I had a dream and the number kept repeating multiple times. As if someone kept trying to tell me it was important. When i woke up the number was the only thing i remembered clearly. The rest of the dream was kind of hazy. Kellie December 30, at 6: And when I saw it a small rectangular box appear around it and the whole thing descended into my scalp and disappeared. Any thoughts on this? Kerisitiano January 16, at 7: Diana January 25, at The date of my death was Jan 30th. Later in the same year my full grown younger daughter died, I think from influenza. The reason I knew she died is because I was able to visit among the living. We could visit among the living for a certain period of time, maybe 2 or 3 days then we had to go back to the afterlife then could again return to the living. A fear that one day we will no longer be able to return came over me. A realization that I would no longer be able to watch and be involved with my family and that they would one day have to accept that I would be gone forever. Who would watch after them? I remember her correcting me as to the anniversary of my death. I thought it was the day I was in Jan 27th in my dream but she said it was Jan 30th; this is how I knew the date of my death. The bridge was low enough that I could have jumped off if I wanted to. As we were there just talking, we heard screeching tires behind us. We both turned around to see what happened and I saw one car hit another in front of it, popping the car in front and flipping it. I jumped off to help my sister. I looked at her in panic, just waiting to see a pool of blood coming from where her head laid. Her face was covered by her jacket or something. I desperately tried dialing but was having trouble trying to dial the numbers. The emergency number was backwards, had to dial Someone asked what happened and if help was.
