He might be one of the only old school era bodybuilders that did this and has it still to this very day. Now that I know better, I do better but what I did back then? With steroids any pencil neck could and can look great with minimal efforts and virtually no dedication to scientific conditioning. Let us show you how. Not everyone qualifies for this so please inquire directly as we review each individual case accordingly. Well, you might be seeing the effects of aging especially if you 40 years or older. It could just be a bad day, not a bad life. If you think you might be in need of rejuvenation therapy, there are a few things to look for. Are you lacking the same level of energy or general wellness that you always had, or are you losing hair and gaining fat? Are you slowly losing interest in sex? Do you feel weak and depressed? Any of these alone or in combination might mean that your testosterone production is slowing down. Your first step is to get a blood test to learn what is causing the problem s. You have to pay attention to nutrition, exercise and all the medical technology we have out there to FIGHT the aging process. We want to help you address the physical aging process and keep you vigorous and youthful in spirit for many more years to come. The Strydom Academy promises you that anything that makes you look good, usually makes you feel good. It illustrates how to fight the aging process with every single weapon known to man. Please be sure to scroll down and read all of the services we have accumulated to offer you in a very technical and organized manner. This is what he left America to master in a free environment that offers highly effective Stem Cell and other reasonably costed services. Intravenous infusions can provide rapid effective hydration and energy, enhancing recovery from stress and strenuous exercise. Other services included are TRT theory and cycles. Who is this for? This program is designed to cover TRT Testosterone replacement therapy and other processes that retard the aging process. Our base platform starts with the correct amount of exercise and nutrition. Anti-aging involves everything in the exact amounts. Exercise and training focuses more on workouts that maintain health, fitness and general wellness constantly striving to decrease body fat and build lean body mass within reason. Too much mass is taxing and not efficient. Remember the more we give the body to process whether its exercise or nutrition the faster we age. This anti- aging training is very specific. Nothing that risks injury leading to downtime and inactivity. Training format is as follows: The path to anti- aging is wellness which begins by addressing the core clinical imbalances through functional diagnostic testing, exercise and nutrition. The full package gives you mobility and conditioning coaching in the morning, weight training one on one in the evening with Gary.
