Early history [ edit ] squad, with Captain Knute Rockne holding ball Football did not have an auspicious beginning at the University of Notre Dame. In their inaugural game on November 23, , the Irish lost to Michigan by a score of 8–0. I bet you a hundred no one ever makes a remark like that again. By the end of the season they had amassed a record of wins, 31 losses, and 13 ties. Jesse Harper became head coach in and remained so until he retired in . In an effort to gain respect for a regionally successful but small-time Midwestern football program, Harper scheduled games in his first season with national powerhouses Texas , Penn State , and Army. Knute Rockne has the highest winning percentage. I counted 20 scoring plays that this man ruined. The team played all of its games on the road while the new Notre Dame Stadium was being built. Anderson resigned as Irish head coach after the season to accept the position of head football coach at NC State. Yost , healing a rift between the two schools. Leahy fell ill during the game, which led to him collapsing during halftime. From to his record was 15– Brennan was a former player under Leahy and before joining the Irish had coached the Mount Carmel High School team in Chicago and later the freshman squad and assistant at Notre Dame. The consensus opinion was that Kuharich never made the adjustment from pro football to college football, attempting to use complicated pro coaching techniques with collegiate players, and never adapted to the limited substitution rules in effect at the time, having big, immobile linemen playing both ways in an era where smaller, quicker players were preferred. In , Notre Dame faced Syracuse at home and trailed, 15–14, with three seconds left to play. Notre Dame linebacker Bob Crable climbed up onto the back of opposing long snapper Mike Trgovac [ ] and was able to block the kick, preserving a 12–10 Irish victory. In his first season, the Irish finished 5–6. Faust proceeded to take over as head coach at Akron. That would be his only losing season as he posted a record of 95–24–2 over the next ten seasons adding up to a 30–2 record overall. Convicts series [ ] and a win over No. Following a 6–10 season in and an 8–8 showing in , the Minnesota Vikings were rumored to replace Jerry Burns with Holtz. However, Holtz denied these rumors each of those two seasons. In , Holtz led the Irish to a 12–1 record.
