I always keep at least 1 of these in my purse for a hot day when I need to be able to freshen up a little. They are designed to help you maintain your natural PH balance so you can feel comfortable all summer long. This coconut scent is my personal favorite, however they also come in unscented if that is more your style. While we are on the subject of my favorite feminine products, I want to share with yall the PFB Vanish gel. I have dark hair, so I am constantly shaving during the summer. With shaving, comes ingrown hairs, shaving bumps, and dark spots—all unattractive things. This roll on gel helps to prevent ingrown hairs, minimize shaving bumps, and brighten dark spots. This gel can be used on your face, neck, underarms a big favorite for me , legs, and bikini area. I am always down for trying out new beauty products. I tried it out last night and it was so much fun, Matt was a little skeptical at first haha. But there are so many amazing benefits from them such as; tones skin, smoothes fine lines, helps stimulate skin renewal, boost collagen, and decreases pore size. It was completely pain free, and did not leave my skin looking red. I think this would be so much fun to try out with your girlfriends. Ladies save yourself the headache and leave your phone at home. Taking your phone to the beach or pool, you are just asking for trouble. I love this bright white watch from Baby-G. It is waterproof up to meters, and the bright white color still looks fresh and fashion forward. Soy Renewal Beach Spray. You will want to start off by spaying it lightly all over your hair. Then use your hands to work it in and let the sea salt spray work to give your hair some texture and grit. You will then want to take the front section of your hair and french braid until the crown of your head. I am using my new Floxsee mirror so I can easily see myself when braiding my hair. It is perfect for any hairstyle, easy to set up, and small enough you can travel with it. After your have finished your braid, tie the rest of you hair up in a high pony tail. Then wrap the braid around and pin it underneath. It takes less then 5 minutes and your hair will look cute all day while at the beach. Thank you Babblebox for sponsoring this blog post, as always all thoughts and opinions are my own.
