

1: Organ and Harp Preludes

duet harp organ christmas Summary Andrea Mumm, Harp and June Marano-Murray, organ play a series of Harp and Organ Preludes on Christmas Eve at the Second Reformed Church of Hackensack, NJ.

Prelude for Peace is a beautiful ensemble for 8 instruments and vocals in 3 parts. The piece can be played entirely on harps. It is a great piece to play at your harp circle. It is not a difficult. There is a full conductors score as well as each individual part. The vocals do not need to be included in the piece. It can be done all instrumentally. Here are the words to the vocal part: Alleluia, Allelu, Sing a song from me to you, Hand to heart and heart to hand, Alleluia. Alleluia, Allelu, May peace flow from me to you, Hand to heart and heart to hand, Alleluia. Alleluia, Allelu, A gift of love from me to you, Hand to heart and heart to hand, Alleluia. Below is an excerpt from the conductors score which is 11 pages long starting on page 4 of the book. The book also includes each part separately so they can be distributed to each individual. We have just finished 9 concerts all over the place all for charities and mostly in churches. One was for amnesty international and another was for homeless and struggling youth. Your music was a smashing hit. Congratulations and thank you so much Noni I am the one palying the harp prelude video From Sharon: Annie and I are thrilled with your performance. In fact we encourage that!! We will be assembling the full compliment of instruments minus the cello part which will be played on electric bass and doubled by the bells. I wish you much success with this beautiful creation!! On person told me that he usually sits through the prelude with his mind racing, but not today. This is such a gorgeous piece but at first glance one would think that a small ensemble could just not perform it. On the contrary - The Memphis Harp Ensemble has performed it many times. The parts for other instruments can be played on the harp - or other instruments than recommended. AND there are apps for the hand bells. They played it in very large dining room filled with people and were surprised to learn that the iPhone could be heard without amplification. There were times the phone was plugged into an amp. The ensemble looked at and played your Prelude for Peace. They were very enthusiastic. One of our members has a daughter with Down Syndrome and for years has limitedly played the harp. She can count simple rhythms. Mom had bought her a set of bells like those used in classrooms. There was a wonderful hush over the congregation, and many grateful comments were received after worship. Because of the simplicity we were able to feel the peace that our music was providing. Thank you for giving us peace. Barbara Beautiful piece Sharon! I like how well the calm setting prepares the congregation for worship. This seems like a piece that any size of music ministry could prepare in a short time. Janet Your song, "Prelude for Peace" was used at my church a few months back as a lovely prelude for the new building dedication service. There were strings, brass, choir and harp involved and it was the perfect choice for all levels of ability while offering the correct mood for the service. Mona Terry You can see a performance of this piece on here and here Go back to the Books ,.

2: PreludeforPeace

All three movements arranged skillfully for two pedal harps.

The crowning touch to your wedding or special event. I will play recessional music until the guests have vacated the church or immediate area. Is the ceremony fee less if it is a shorter ceremony or a small guest list? The ceremony package is a flat fee regardless of length of ceremony, number of guests and amount of music requested. A Catholic Mass might incur a small surcharge. Can I request my favorite songs? Yes, I take requests and want to hear what your dream song list would be. I do my very best to accommodate all requests. Some music is not appropriate for the harp for a variety of reasons. I will advise accordingly and honestly. Any changes in music must be requested at least 72 hours prior to the event. I want the harp to sound its very best! If I cancel the event, can I transfer my deposit to use towards another event? The deposit is non-refundable and non-transferable if the event is canceled. Any cancellation or modification made after 30 days prior to the event does not change the obligation of the client to the harpist for the total fee. What if the event is outside and weather turns inclement? The harpist cannot play in inclement weather or outdoors, without express advance approval of the harpist. The harpist must cover the harp immediately in even the smallest amount of precipitation no matter what else is going on. There must be a large, dry, flat surface for the harp and harpist to sit. Is there a fee for returned checks?

3: Catholic Mass - Harp Column

This book was created from the older "Harp Preludes For the Church" collections with some revisions of the arrangements and typographical improvements.

A series of arrangements by Darhon Rees-Rohrbacher, for pedal or lever harp, not too hard. The tunes are modal in flavor, with harmonies using perfect fourths, fifths and octaves. Plastic bound, lies flat. Hymn arrangements by W. These are for pedal harp and are not easy; however, if you are good at adapting, you might do these on nonpedal harp. The arranger believes that the church is a good place for harp players to start performing, as the audiences are quite receptive. All pieces have a performance time given for the indicated speed. A medley of several hymns. Jesus Loves Me variations. Arranged by Darhon Rees-Rohrbacher. Key of C, for all harps, intermediate. Arranged by Darhon Rees-Rohrbacher for non-pedal harp. Christmas Harp and Holly: Ancient Carols in Modern Dress arranged by W. Fairly advanced; intended for pedal harp. Performance time is given for the indicated speed of each piece. You can hear Christmas bells in this one. Setting for flute and pedal harp by Cary Ratcliff. Includes separate music for the flute and pedal harp, and a third piece with the full score. This is a somewhat more difficult arrangement; it is transcribed from an adaptation for three violins, cello and basso continuo. This is the theme from Masterpiece Theatre. Handel, arranged by Darhon Rees-Rohrbacher.
