Quotes[edit] Towards morning the light of His countenance did very graciously arise upon me. My trust and confidence are renewed in Him, blessed and praised be His adorable name! I was suddenly arrested by what seemed to be an awful voice proclaiming the words , " Eternity! The great depravity and sinfulness of my heart were set before me, and the gulf of everlasting destruction to which I was verging. I was made to bitterly cry out, "If there is no God â€” doubtless there is a hell. On his inspiration, when he was still learning English and walking alone in the fields of Long Island, to take up the reading of No Cross, No Crown by William Penn , after having first set it aside upon realizing it was a religious book. As quoted in Stephen Grellet by Rev. Any good , therefore, that I can do or any kindness I can show to any fellow creature, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it for I shall not pass this way again. This, and variants of it, have been widely circulated as a Quaker saying since at least , and attributed to Grellet since at least I expect to pass through this world but once. If, therefore, there be any kindness I can show, or any good thing I can do any fellow human being let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for I will not pass this way again. Scott I expect to pass through this world but once. Any good thing, therefore, that I can do or any kindness I can show to any fellow human being let me do it now. Let me not defer nor neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again. I shall pass through this world but once! Any good thing, therefore, that I can do or any kindness that I can show to any human being, let me do it now, in his name, and for his sake! Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again. Anonymous quotation on a card, as quoted in The Friend, Vol. Any good, therefore, that I can do or any kindness I can show to any human being, let me do it now. Anonymous quotation on a card, as quoted in A Memorial of a True Life: If, therefore, there be any kindness I can show, or any good thing I can do, to any fellow being let me do it now. As quoted anonymously in The Lamp Vol. XXVI February-July Misattributed[edit] If I can anyway contribute to the diversion or improvement of the country in which I live, I shall leave it, when I am summoned out of it, with the satisfaction of thinking that I have not lived in vain.
