Whether bride or groom it is the most important day of their life. Weddings in Pakistan are quite different from the Western culture. It can long for days, all the planning and shopping starts months ago. Marriages in Pakistan are extravagant, beautiful and heart felt. How to make weddings memorable is the question which rises in the mind of the person who is going to married. It is not only the bond between two people but it binds two families. People come close and celebrate to their fullest. Often marriages in Pakistan are arranged where parents get a chance to choose a spouse for their child. The marriages can be semi-arranged or love marriages as well. Mangni engagement is the event where all the celebrations start. The bride and groom exchange rings and this is where actually everything starts between two families. A few close friends and relatives gather from both sides and the event takes place. Mehndi is the first event celebrated a day or two before the actual wedding day. Its more like a bachelorette party in the West. But nowadays it can be celebrated at a single place. Yellow or green is the preferred theme color. The customary Mehndi night is more like a fun night and the celebrations continues till late. This is where Nikkah, the most fundamental event of the Islamic marriage takes place. Sometimes it can be signed before this day. A Muslim cleric heads the procession and looks after the signing the Nikkah forms by both the bride and groom along with three witnesses. At last he blesses the couple. With the help of them, you can easily get happy married life. Astrological tactic to get back spark of love back in relationship Love is a thing which has the power to join any of relationship and make a relationship long lasting because love is a backbone of every relationship.

Kierstin said "I Do" over five years ago in front of her local judge. It was actually pretty romantic. Source When you imagine your perfect wedding day, you envision love, sweet memories, and the beginning of a lifetime with your favorite person - not debt, family fights, and months of intense planning. However, Pinterest can also be a great place for courthouse wedding ideas and inspiration, from how you want to style your hair, to where to shop for your dream dress. Visit Old Memories Grab your photographer and head down to all your old haunts -- take pictures in front of restaurant where you had your first date, on the beach where you got engaged. Hire a Photographer Source Take it from someone who made the mistake of not having a photographer at her courthouse nuptials--you will regret it. Whether you hire a photographer to take a few portraits after the ceremony or to follow you around on your newlywed adventures for the rest of the day, this one little touch is the sole thing that will stick around as long as your marriage. Have her use your own SD card or iPhone so she can just hand it over afterward and you can enjoy a lifetime of lovely photos. Register When you opt out of a traditional wedding you also let go of the tradition of obligatory wedding gifts. For those people, you should create a small registry of non-frivolous items think kitchen staples, sheet sets, and towels for them to choose from on an easy-to-navigate site like Amazon or Target. Create a playlist of songs that are meaningful to you and your partner to enjoy wherever and whenever - from the front seat of your ancient Volvo to a tiny post-vow soiree - during your wedding day. Hire a Musician Keep in mind that forfeiting a lavish ceremony, venue rentals, and catering opens up other options financially, for the things that will truly make the day intimate and unforgettable. Consider hiring a violinist or cellist to play for an hour in a private room at a swanky restaurant while you dine with your new in-laws or a folk band to jam at your park picnic while you party it up alfresco with a half dozen of your closest friends. Hitch a Ride Schedule a horse-drawn carriage to pick you and your partner up for a ride around town to celebrate after the ceremony. Gift Your Guests If you choose to have guests present at your civil ceremony, gift them something small but meaningful to commemorate the day, like a framed verse or quote that epitomizes the love between you and your partner. Instead of just having them grab a gift as they go as with traditional wedding favors, present your gifts after the ceremony with a hug and a thank you for sharing in your special day. Source For a fun outing, visit a u-pick the evening before or the morning of your nuptials and gather flowers and greens for a very personal bouquet and boutonniere. Print Marriage Announcements The inevitable awfulness and possibly the only true downfall to getting courthouse hitched is the backlash from the uninvited. Soothe offended distant-relatives and curious friends with We Got Married! If you or your partner now have a new address, share that too as a return address will do so recipients will feel all caught up on your big changes and appreciate that you shared your special news with them. Say a Prayer A little spiritual distraction is just the thing to calm pre-wedding jitters and to bring loved ones together. Make Something Together Either before or after the ceremony, make a stop at one of those paint-your-own-pottery places and pick out a piece that you can paint together and display and use everyday like a cookie jar or a pair of salt and pepper shakers as a sweet way to commemorate the day. Make sure to date it! So go ahead, spend a hundred bucks on plates the size of your palm and order two desserts each so much tastier than dry, pasty wedding cake while you bask in your newlywed bliss. While most couples end up scarfing down a cold meal at their reception, take advantage of your quaint day by indulging in your cravings however extravagant or silly. This is the beauty of bucking tradition.

Another important point here is that this marriage advice is more often than not, unsolicited!! However, when we get advice in the form of marriage advice quotes by famous people, we tend to sit up and take notice. Pixabay , under Creative Commons License Best Marriage Advice Quotes These marriage advice quotes are the cream of the lot, the ones that we feel are both beautiful and sensible. You go off through your door, he goes through his, but at the end of the day you have to come back to the corridor, touch base, hold hands, because through every door are more doors, and beyond them, more again, and if you both go through too many without coming back to the corridor, you may never find your way back. The ultimate list of tips on what makes a good marriage 2. This quote beautifully describes that you always need to keep the relationship first and not look at it as losing to another person. Good battle is objective and honest â€” never vicious or cruel. Good battle is healthy and constructive, and brings to a marriage the principles of equal partnership. Fighting is normal, good even, but what matters is how you fight. Bonus quote from an unknown source: Google, copyright-free image under Creative Commons License 4. If happy, it lessens our cares by dividing them, at the same time that it doubles our pleasures by mutual participation. Being friends makes spouses act like true partners sharing and helping each other out. It is threads, hundreds of tiny threads which sew people together through the years. And so true as well! Every day, you weave an invisible thread with your partner, through every shared experience and every conversation. The bond between you is the cumulative effect of these little things. Best marriage advice that has stood the test of time 6. It is something you do. These funny marriage advice quotes are bound to relate to you on some point, and make you smile at the same time. When you have years of companionship behind you, why would you want anyone else? This will help you decide whether you should stay or run! Google, copyright-free image under Creative Commons License Couples often forget that the two of them are from different backgrounds with different tastes and opinions. Many men just tune out when their wives are speaking to them, and this leaves the wives feeling ignored. So put away that gadget you have in your hand and listen! Yet, it was too good to be left out on a technicality! You must learn how to make a perfect chicken-dumpling stew. And you must sew my holey socks, And soothe my troubled mind, And develop the knack for scratching my back, And keep my shoes spotlessly shined. And while I rest you must rake up the leaves, And when it is hailing and snowing You must shovel the walkâ€!and be still when I talk, And-hey-where are you going? Will the road ahead be smooth? Will we still love each other this much, even after 5 years? Marriage is not the end of romance, it is the beginning. Marriage brings with it its own special brand of romance, and it grows and transforms over time. But soon, selfishness takes over. It is important to keep trying to make the other person know that he or she is still loved. Exciting because of the new, and comfortable because of the old â€” what more could you ask for! People bail and give up on their marriages way too early. Caught up in caring for a helpless new life, young parents can lose focus of the primary people in their lives â€” each other! Just remember that marriage is a journey, where both of you grow and learn every day. Such is the charm of this country. Regarded as one of the most romantic of all places on Earth, it makes couples dream of a Switzerland honeymoon even before they get married. This country is all sorts of amazing and never fails to impress anyone. Whether you go solo just with your partner, or you book an Europe group trip, a honeymoon in Switzerland is always going to be special. But if you want to make your Switzerland honeymoon memorable, these are the things you absolutely have to do. But among them the Jungfrau Region is one that you should not absolutely miss. This region boasts of huge snow covered peaks of three prime mountains of Switzerland- the Jungfrau, the Monch and The Eiger. From here, you can relish bewitching views of the lush green meadows and beautiful valleys in the region. Even the various tour companies that provide Switzerland Honeymoon Tour Packages swear by this destination for honeymoon couples. Be ready if your heart skips a beat or two when you reach here. Be a Part of the Local Culture and Participate in the Local Festivals The best way to get to know a place is to be a part of its local culture. In Switzerland, there are a number of festivals that locals celebrate throughout the year. If you want your honeymoon to be full of fun and entertainment, participate in one of these. The kind of festivals vary from wine tasting festivals to Swiss folk music festivals, arts and crafts festivals and even wrestling festivals. The most famous festival that is held here is the Fasnacht Spring Carnival in Basel that takes place between February and March. A visit to these festivals is a great sneak peak into the culture of this beautiful land. Take a Romantic walk at Lucerne A honeymoon trip should be all about romance blossoming. Lucerne is known as one of the most romantic places in the country. You can take a walk hand in hand with your partner at the bridge which is surrounded by serene turquoise blue water on all sides. This town is car free, so you can roam about in a carefree manner without worrying about vehicle crowds, pollution and horns. Head to Zurich, if you want your Honeymoon to be full of Colours Zurich is a city that is full of life and colours. This city is a perfect blend of both the traditional and contemporary style of living. The city is set in between lush green small hills and the River Limmat that is the most serene shade of blue. This was once a village but it has now transformed to one of the most happening places and how! Newly married couples find this city a paradise with its perfect combination of natural beauty and modern luxury. The best time to visit this city is during the summer months. So, if you are planning to book a Switzerland honeymoon package during this time, do visit Zurich to make it more memorable. Visit Geneva if you Want Nothing but Peace on your Honeymoon trip Different people look for different things on their honeymoon trips. If you are a couple who wants peace and a few days away from noise, think no further than Geneva. It is strange how Geneva even after being the second most populated city in Switzerland, still manages to be called as the Capital of Peace. But that is the beauty of it. Geneva stands between the Alpine mountains and the hilly terrains of Jura. That makes this city give a view of the Mont Blanc that is out of the world. Geneva is the ideal spot for some alone time together and romance. It is located on the banks of the Lake Geneva. Head to Interlaken for its Spectacular Scenery It is impossible to find any place in Switzerland that is void of scenic beauty. Every corner of this country provides breathtaking views and magical scenic beauty. But Interlaken deserves a special mention. This place is nestled between the Lake Thun and Lake Brienz. That is where it gets its name from. Interlaken also provides ample opportunities for adventure sports. So if you want to satiate your adventurous spirit amidst the mountains and lakes, here is where you should be. The ideal time to visit Interlaken is between June to August. We all want our honeymoon in Switzerland to be memorable, but most of us are clueless how to make it unforgettable. Now that you know everything you need to do to make sure that your honeymoon in Switzerland remains a unique one, do not delay. Visit all these places and come back home with our heart filled with happiness.

7: 10 Wedding Ceremony Ideas To Make It Memorable | New Love Times

The sister marriage is always an memorable things to everyone. To make more special to that day celebrate grandly. To invite all the relatives and friends to give big party.

A Skeptic Makes Peace with Marriage 3. I love you simply, without problems or pride: I love you in this way because I do not know any other way of loving but this, in which there is no I or you, so intimate that your hand upon my chest is my hand, so intimate then when I fall asleep your eyes close. Seuss Give Amazon holiday gift cards 6. It jumps hurdles, leaps fences, penetrates walls to arrive at its destination full of hope. And life is a little weird. And when we find someone whose weirdness is compatible with ours, we join up with them and fall into mutually satisfying weirdnessâ€”and call it loveâ€”true love. Those who wish to sing always find a song. At the touch of a lover, everyone becomes a poet. I make mistakes, I am out of control and at times hard to handle. Le Guin, The Lathe of Heaven Love one another but make not a bond of love: Let it be rather a moving sea between the shores of your souls. I have met in the streets a very poor young man who was in love. His hat was old, his coat worn, the water passed through his shoes and the stars through his soul. It is when an imperfect couple learns to enjoy their differences. Do you believe that you will be able to converse well with this person into your old age? Everything else in marriage is transitory. That word is love. When you are loved, you can do anything in creation. When we find someone with weirdness that is compatible with ours, we team up and call it love. In your beauty, how to make poems. You dance inside my chest where no one sees you, but sometimes I do, and that sight becomes this art. But when you fall in love, it is impossible to stand again. Stories of My Life I have those things already. I wantâ€”a steady hand. When the soul lies down in that grass the world is too full to talk about. How glad we shall be, that we have somebody we are fond of always, to talk to and sit with. The good things, the bad things, the terrible things, the mundane thingsâ€”all of it, all of the time, every day. Your life will not go unwitnessed because I will be your witness. The best is yet to be. All that we love deeply becomes a part of us. In all the world, there is no love for you like mine. I love you not only for what you have made of yourself, but for what you are making of me. In the beginning a flame, very pretty, often hot and fierce, but still only light and flickering. As love grows older, our hearts mature and our love becomes as coals, deep-burning and unquenchable. It will not do. My feelings will not be repressed. You must allow me to tell you how ardently I admire and love you. It erupts like volcanoes and then subsides. And when it subsides, you have a to make a decision. You have to work out whether your roots have so entwined together that it is inconceivable that you should ever part. It happens accidentally, in a heartbeat, in a single flashing, throbbing moment. Because if you pick it up, it dies and it ceases to be what you love. So if you love a flower, let it be. Love is not about possession. It is about appreciation.

And since we do not want your most special day to be like any other cookie-cutter wedding, we want to dish out the choicest of wedding ceremony ideas to involve your guests in the sentiment and process of the day. Check out our heart-picked list of wedding ceremony ideas that shall not only make your big day a standout celebration, but an occasion that shall make it etched in hearts for years to come: A surprise choreographed dance Image source: Google, copyright-free image under Creative Commons License Kick up the standard waltz by a notch or more by shaking your hips to a sultry tango routine or the bold bachata. For an even bigger surprise, get your dad or even your grandpa in on the act. Piece-it-together guest book Image source: Google, copyright-free image under Creative Commons License Create a jigsaw puzzle of you and put up as many pieces on each table as the number of people seated. Could it get any better? Google, copyright-free image under Creative Commons License While it is always a good idea to include a crayon-station or bounce-house for the tiny tots at the wedding, why limit the fun? So, plan some fun games for the party after the ceremony. So much fun – people will remember your wedding for all the right reasons! You could have a personal game between yourself and the groom too! All-over lighting Image source: Google, copyright-free image under Creative Commons License Revolutionize the weddingscape by adding creative lighting patterns to your whole wedding venue. You could choose to project autumnal leaves over a beige wall to add that special drama or use snowfall to give the whole setting an ethereal look. You could even go for funky geometric patterns or your own personal monogram. This outdoor wedding ceremony idea will make it hard for your guests to stop staring, and that is a good thing!! Take them in style Image source: Google, copyright-free image under Creative Commons License No, no, this is not what you think. If you have to shuttle your guests from the wedding venue to the reception, choose a hot-air balloon ride or a trolley ride or a wagon or a horse-driven carriage! Even better, if you can scoot them together in a big yellow school bus for a screening of your childhood memories! Fun and nostalgia clubbed in one – I know, I know, I rock! You will not be able to believe in the impact of the same unless you watch it for yourself. So, go ahead and try! Clinks with words alright, albeit musically Image source: Google, copyright-free image under Creative Commons License Forget the clinking glasses and ringing bells – but if you are intent on using them, make sure you let it be known that what should follow is not a speech but a song! Let the guests sing to you of their feelings and best wishes. Of course, you can give them a heads-up to prepare the re-lyricized versions of songs to rephrase their speech! It shall be a surefire way to have your guests entranced, smiling, chuckling, laughing even falling all over , coupled with the inevitable tearing up as the emotions ride on high notes. This is one of those small wedding ceremony ideas, which will work in your favor. Alcoholic ice pops Image source: Try these and see people relieve the fun of their childhood. Food with soul Image source: Have the buffet spread read that out in special cake pop cards or engraved martini glasses that double up as favors and include special anecdotes like how the killer midnight snacks like the crinkle French fries or chocolate chip cookies and milk shooters are best when mom makes them. Include a note that speaks volumes about how the waffle truck people have actually pestered your mom-in-law for her waffle expertise! A hip after-party Image source: Google, copyright-free image under Creative Commons License After your reception, add in a post-wedding bash for you and your hardest-partying guests. Pick a space that has a completely different vibe from that of your wedding venue like a relaxed patio bar or a karaoke club, and let the party continue!! Of course, you could have more like a Polaroid photo booth and a consequent photo tree or a truck bar where you can down your favorite tipples- but we only wanted to serve the most unique, best-of-the-best wedding ceremony ideas! You can blame me for LONG sentences, though!
