Re: If you want a M but cant afford the real M price tag The real poseur thing is the "M" grille badge. I see there's a "Report" link on the right side of the main page - opposite the tabs.

Tweet America, despite all of her current woes, still remains the greatest country in the world. One of our ultimate freedoms is the right to openly express ourselves without fear of retribution. Journalists, reporters and news broadcasters are all guaranteed protection under the Constitution. With it comes an expectation of great responsibility and respect for the rights of others and a strong moral code of behavior. Within our own families we often blurt out whatever we want without regard to how the other party may feel upon hearing it. We can be rude, hurtful, mean-spirited, and hateful. My rights do not supersede the rights of others. So before speaking, consider the following questions: Does it emanate from a place of love for all parties? Is it based on truth rather than speculation, lies, jealousies or my own insecurities? Does it care for the well-being of all those concerned? Does it take into consideration the feelings and needs of the other? Is it absolutely the best choice I can make at this time? Will it achieve long-lasting and far-reaching benefits for all those concerned? Let us vow to always make choices that are life-affirming and beneficial to all of humanity. Her name has appeared in print more than million times, including The Wall Street Journal, Huffington Post, Alaska Business Monthly and more than 50 other publications. Bernie Siegel says, "All books of wisdom are meant to be read more than once. The Great Truth is one such book.

2: Nation That Says It Can't Afford Medicare for All Has Spent $ Trillion on War Since 9/11

The subsidies come from four main categories. About $ billion is federal spending on programs like Medicaid and the Children's Health Insurance Program, which help insure low-income people.

Notify of BAP Just remember to vote out all incumbents. They are there to vote themselves big raises and lifetime benefits , which you and I pay for! Vote out ALL in November! Thank God for beer. Term limits are essential as is the elimination of all financial contributions to candidates and campaigns. Office holders should be held to no more than two four year terms at all levels of government and campaigns funded from a public fund with all viable candidates receiving the same amount of funds. This would not only show us just who is best skilled at money management but also give us a much better, wider and diverse selection of people in our government. Most importantly though this would allow us to have a government made up of and much more responsive to the needs of the American people, a citizen government. We must not allow EPA to write regulations without strict oversight of Congress. Shutting down the Power Grid to the Proles? The would be leader is self appointed. Even an idiot can have his name placed on the ballot. We are doing the same today, except that we are using a surrogate thief. Witzler Texas has the right to require either to see your drivers license and or a DOT license. The reason why Texas was denied this LAW is because the Judge takes his marching orders from the President and he will do as he is told to do or else. In Louisiana you can not vote in less you show your drivers license or DOT card. A Fourth Branch if you will. One that takes the power to police the elite in government from the Executive branch and places that power in an independent Fourth Branch. I have written a book that details the idea. It is available in e-book format as well as PDF and is available online too. Please download the free part and share the idea with your friends. Well-educated, well-prepared, ambitious individuals are circumventing onerous city, state, county and federal regulations, rules and so-called guidelines to materialize and realize their dreams of owning and operating a business. Something very difficult for the aforementioned government agencies to detect and much less control. Thus, the aforementioned unaccountable, bureaucratic regulatory actions, Paule so aptly described, blows back to government with lost tax revenues, and causal, never-ending domino effect of governments at the aforementioned levels increasing taxation on individuals and established businesses. Then there is competition amongst states and countries: Otherwise we will just continue to spit into the wind. Learn what the problem is and try and get your Congressman and Senator to do something about it. Their goal is have two classes. There will be the political insiders and the political outsiders. Those on the inside of the beltway will reap the good life while those living outside the beltway will toil and beg for just enough to keep themselves going. It is always that way with socialists because an educated reasonably well funded middle class results in a steady stream of accurate criticism and resistance to the unworkable socialist policies. A good example is the current attack on the 2nd Amendment of the Constitution. These include added fees and taxes as well as lengthy and expensive background checks. My vote along with five of my conservative friends was cancelled out suppressed by one woman in Cincinnati who voted for Obama six times in The only reason she was caught was because she bragged about it to my friend Tom McKee who works for channel 9 news. Look what just happened in Texas. Free enterprise is a proven success. No more bail outs! If a company fails on its own so be it. A company can succeed if the government would keep its nose out of it. We the people will decide if we want to purchase that companies products or not. True, we need some regulations to keep the companies honest but give me a break, where does it all end? Congress should not be judged by how many laws they proposed. They should be judged by how many useless laws they repealed. There are too many laws and regulations on the books now. This will have a direct and indirect effect on anything that burns carbon sourced fuels all current ignition fuel sources. It will affect fuel costs, electricity, construction, manufacturing, transportation, etc. Most impacts will be indirect, or unseen by the public except through higher prices necessary to pay for increased costs companies bear. They have an obligation to their stockholders to be profitable, of course, so you and I will pick up the tab.
