4: "I Have Heard Your Prayers, I Have Seen Your Tears" 2 Kings 20

The LORD said to him, "I have heard your prayer and your supplication, which you have made before Me; I have consecrated this house which you have built by putting My name there forever, and My eyes and My heart will be there perpetually.

Trust that love is more powerful than evil. Tuesday, August 13, 2 Kings With bitter weeping, Hezekiah begged God to spare his life. You see, God did respond to Hezekiah. I have seen your tears; behold, I will heal you. Hezekiah used the extra time on earth foolishly. In reading these verses, I sense pride in Hezekiah actions. Pride in his riches. Not a smart move. Isaiah, comes again with a severe word from the Lord. For he thought, Is it not good, if [all this evil is meant for the future and] peace and security shall be in my days? Have you ever been in a situation where you begged God to intervene? I have been thinking about Hezekiah because recently, because I sought God with bitter tears in regards to a situation, which I felt was intolerable. God granted my request, a request that He had denied numerous times in the past ten years. Will begging the Lord to do things my way impact future generations? I pray that it would not be so. I am on the right path at the right time! No, I am not Hezekiah. I am a beloved daughter of the King of the Universe, and I do care about the future knowing that my actions will impact my progeny. Holy Spirit, we all have been in situations where we feel overwhelmed. I thank You for understanding our mortal frame with all of its weaknesses. We embrace our weaknesses knowing Your strength will be made manifest in our weaknesses. The future belongs to You, Lord. Open our ears that we might hear Your direction and empower us to follow Your commands. Posted by Beautiful Grace at

*I Have Heard Your Prayer: The Old Testament and Prayer [Michael E. W. Thompson] on www.enganchecubano.com FREE shipping on qualifying offers. Michael Thompson has had a long-standing interest in the Old Testament, and during recent years has focused in particular on the subject of prayer.*

He wants us to pray from the heart. Man was created to need God. But mankind today in general has not known the true God and His revealed way of living. Man has generally failed, leading to all of the evils and suffering we see around us. Even those who have tried to live as close to God as they could have done so imperfectly. Yet even if imperfect, the benefits of a relationship with God far exceed anything offered by this world. Prayer To have a relationship with God, we have to keep in constant communication with Him through prayer. The Bible is full of examples of the people of God talking with Him. For example, many of the psalms were actually prayers, and many of those were by David, the great king of Israel. Consider Psalms 3, 4 and 5, to mention just a few. There are many types of prayer mentioned in the Bible, but one common factor in prayers that helped build a relationship with God is that these effective prayers were heartfelt. The Bible records many examples of prayer from the heart. When the prophet Isaiah told King Hezekiah that he would die, Hezekiah reacted to the message with a supplication found in verse 3. Hezekiah reminded God of his efforts to walk before Him with a loyal heart. It seems he might have wanted to say more to God, but emotion overcame him and he broke down in tears and cried bitterly. What did God hear? The audible words of the king were a reminder to God of his efforts to walk before Him with a sincere heart. God does not want lip service. He wants people who seek Him with their whole heart. Jesus warned that those who simply come with words and not actions not doing what God says from the heart will not be in the Kingdom of God. It is fair to conclude that the king wanted to ask God to spare his life. God granted that two-part prayer by adding 15 more years to the life of the king. He wants people who seek Him with their whole heart Isaiah Jesus warned that those who simply come with words and not actions not doing what God says from the heart will not be in the Kingdom of God Matthew 7: Hers was a prayer in her heart. Because of mental anguish, her lips were moving as in a whispered prayer, but Eli the priest thought she was drunk and rebuked her verse God, however, heard that inaudible supplication and responded by granting her request verse We can pray fervently out of joy, love and positive emotions as well. We can express our thankfulness to God for wonderful things like marriage, the birth of a child, healings, the beauty of His creation and the way He has fulfilled our needs. We can rejoice in the knowledge of His truth and the perfection of His plan. Whether in anguish or joy or thanksgiving, every one of our prayers should be from our hearts. Sometimes God will test us to see the sincerity of our prayers. This is shown in the parable of the unjust judge Luke When our prayers come from the heart, then we will be persistent and unwavering. God understands our groanings Sometimes we have a prayer in our heart, but we fail to say it properly Romans 8: Hezekiah groaned in his heart, and God heard the complete prayer. God through the Holy Spirit helps us pray as we need to, and He understands what we are trying to say. If we always come to God with a true heart, then words of sincerity will follow Hebrews

6: What does Isaiah mean?

PRAYER FOR THE DAY MY PRAYER Power of Prayer Prayer For a Child School Theme Sister Prayer Prayers for sister Birthday prayer for friend Prayer signs Husband prayer Forward Dear God, Thank you for the woman reading this right now.

Pocket Often, God answers prayer straight away, or within hours or days. This morning when I woke up, those words were the first thing I thought of. So I looked them up in the Bible. I found encouragement in these two testimonies: They had no children because Elizabeth was unable to conceive, and they were both very old. But then one day, unexpectedly, when Zechariah is carrying out his priestly duties, this happens: God has heard your prayer. Your wife, Elizabeth, will give you a son, and you are to name him John. Even though he and his Elizabeth were both past the age of childbearing? Had he not given up on his dream after all? Why did God wait so long to answer their prayer? I believe He waited until the situation was so impossible in the natural that Zechariah and Elizabeth, as well as anyone else looking on, for all time, would know that only God could have done this! In her childbearing years Elizabeth had not been able to conceive and now she was considered in the natural too old to become pregnant. So for this to happen could only be a miracle! He WILL answer, according to his perfect plan. We just need to know and trust that He hears and keeps a record of our prayers. You have collected all my tears in your bottle. You have recorded each one in your book. Since the first day you began to pray for understanding and to humble yourself before your God, your request has been heard in heaven. I have come in answer to your prayer. But for twenty-one days the spirit prince of the kingdom of Persia blocked my way. Then Michael, one of the archangels, came to help me, and I left him there with the spirit prince of the kingdom of Persia. And sometimes, when we pray, a spiritual battle takes place. Does God want your loved one saved? Sometimes the reason the answer to your heartfelt prayer seems not to be being answered is because of spiritual warfare, behind the scenes. Little did Daniel know that behind the scenes, there was a such a battle raging in the spiritual realm for those twenty one long days! Sometimes battles rage in the spiritual ream due to our prayers. He hears every sigh and sees every tear. He remembers a single prayer from ten, twenty, fifty years ago. In His time, not ours. 7: Prayer From the Heart - Life, Hope & Truth

Turn back and tell Hezekiah, the leader of My people, Thus says the Lord, the God of David your [forefather]: I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; behold, I will heal you. On the third day you shall go up to the house of the Lord.

Text - 2 Kings In those days Hezekiah became sick and was at the point of death. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, "Thus says the Lord: Set your house in order, for you shall die; you shall not recover. Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the Lord: Before Isaiah had gone out of the middle court, the word of the Lord came to him: I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; indeed, I will heal you; on the third day you shall go up to the house of the Lord. I will add fifteen years to your life. Then Isaiah said, "Bring a lump of figs. Let them take it and apply it to the boil, so that he may recover. Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "What shall be the sign that the Lord will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the Lord on the third day? Isaiah said, "This is the sign to you from the Lord, that the Lord will do the thing that he has promised: Hezekiah answered, "It is normal for the shadow to lengthen ten intervals; rather let the shadow retreat ten intervals. The prophet Isaiah cried to the Lord; and he brought the shadow back the ten intervals, by which the sun See Isa Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever. Friends, if God healed Hezekiah, he can do the same for you! Hezekiah was a very good King but there came a time when he became very sick and was at the point of death. Obviously, anyone in that kind of situation would be looking for some good news. Unfortunately though, God told Hezekiah through the prophet Isaiah that he was not going to make it. Could you imagine what that must have felt like? Not all of us are prepared to die. We are so wrapped up in the things of this world that we live as if there is no end. We eat and drink and buy and sell and then suddenly the end comes without warning. Sometimes death is preceded with much pain and suffering. For example, just when everything seems to be going well you find out that there is a small lump or tumor somewhere that tests positive for cancer. News like this can shatter your life. You have probably planned for many things in the future, you have a family that depends on you and just when you want to enjoy some comfort and rest, devastating news breaks the peace and joy of your home. Unfortunately, life in this world is filled with tears and suffering and they come to us in many ways. Some believe that sickness and sorrow come to them because of some wrong they might have done or simply because God does not favor them. This seems logical but it is not always true. King Hezekiah was an example. He was a good man and sometimes, bad things happen to good people because we live in a world that is less than perfect. Even good people get sick and endure suffering. Wonder if some of you might be feeling the same way this morning. You try to be faithful in the many things that you do and yet sorrow or sickness seems to follow you all the time! It does not seem to be fair and once in a while this even shakes the roots of your faith. You probably wonder if it is even worth your while praying because sometimes it appears that God is not even listening. Friends, Even the most Godly people are not exempt from the trials of life.

8: I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears. Behold, I will heal you. ~2 Kings

"I have heard your prayer, and I will add 15 years to your life" there was a worldwide call to pray and fast for America and millions of believers around the world cried out to God to have.

Send To Devices Send Are you glad to see this year coming to an end? Or maybe there is another year in your past that you were proud to be done with because of unusually hard circumstances. Sometimes life comes at us hard and fast and we find ourselves in the middle of an unexpected crisis. It seems you get knocked over by one punch and then here comes the follow through left hook! God did it for Hezekiah more than once. Not only did he pray, he wept bitterly. Look at his prayer: He wanted God to remember his faithfulness in the event that he lived or died Matt. It reminds me of the 3 Hebrew boys from the book of Daniel. As Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were about to be thrown into the fire, they told King Nebuchadnezzar that God would deliver them out his hands Dan. They confidently stated that God is ABLE to deliver from the furnace, but they also acknowledged that he might not in verse 18 but even if He does not! Either way, they were delivered by God. If the fire happened to kill them, they would be in the presence of God. If not, they would come out praising the only true God! Either way, it was a victory. Back to Hezekiah " Before Isaiah even got out of the courtyard of the temple God sent a message through him for Hezekiah. I love verse 5: So many times when we are in the midst of the crisis, we wonder if God is anywhere around us. But He is " our tears and our prayers touch His heart. Who can know what our prayers have accomplished here on earth? No matter how you are feeling through the storms of life, always remember that God hears your prayers and sees your tears! Never underestimate the power of prayer " it gives us the ability to communicate our deepest fears, dreams, and desires to the Great I Am!

9: I Have Heard Your Prayer – Daily Virtue

"I Have Heard Your Prayer" 04/01/ "Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah, saying, "Go and say to Hezekiah, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of your father David,' I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; behold, I will add fifteen years to your life.'"

To the gates of the nether world I shall be consigned for the rest of my years. No longer shall I behold my fellow men among those who dwell in the world. Those live whom the LORD protects; yours is the life of my spirit. You have given me health and life. As those who have walked the El Camino know, it is fraught with challenges and often a physical pain blisters, muscle strains, sprains, etc. Just as Hezekiah cried out to the Lord in the reading from Isaiah, so have I cried out for the healing my brother. In prayer, we break silence, and sometimes those words flow out of our deepest parts. In much of the world, modern skepticism taints prayer. We breathe in an atmosphere of doubt. Like all good things, prayer requires some discipline. Yet I believe that life with God should seem more like friendship than duty. Prayer includes moments of ecstasy and also dullness, mindless distraction and acute concentration, flashes of joy and bouts of irritation. In other words, prayer has features in common with all relationships that matter. If prayer stands as the place where God and human beings meet, then I must learn about prayer. Most of my struggles in the Christian life circle around the same two themes: Prayer is the precise point where those themes converge. The moment that my prayer was uttered, the Lord gave me a peacefulness and strength to endure the pain of a busted knee over the last three days of the El Camino. As we entered the large public square of the Cathedral of St James last Saturday, signaling the end of the El Camino journey, an overwhelming joy came over me and the assurance that the He had heard my prayer. What a Friend we have in Jesus, All our sins and griefs to bear! What a privilege to carry Everything to God in prayer! O what peace we often forfeit, O what needless pain we bear, All because we do not carry Everything to God in prayer! May the virtues of faith, hope, and love go with you today – DV.
