Because UPSC is one among the recruiting agency, that frequently conducts tests for enrolling persons to different government cadres across country. Competitors are allowed to take their exams in OMR sheets issued by invigilator. Answer keys will be usually released only for objective type questions. Commission had prepared four different sets of question papers, for Statistics-I as well as Statistics-II. In the same way, answer keys would also be updated separately for these four sets of question papers. Against each question number, only correct responses will be mentioned i. By seeing the success in this competitive test, cut-offs will be set by UPSC. Then maximum number of least mark secured candidates will be shortlisted. For marks the viva-voce test will be conducted by recruitment panel, for top mark scorers in exam. Finally 44 leading contestants will be fixed in the respective services, on seeing overall merit. Common paper of General English and General Studies is included in both the exams. Marks will be reduced for descriptive type answers, if handwriting is not too good. For objective type, 80 questions are asked in each paper. Some of the disabled persons are given extra time also. Only through the official website of exam conducting authority, this key will be published. Most importantly two benefits are there incase of release of answer keys. Steps to get this answer key are, Go to the Commission website upsc. Published answer keys will be displayed. For each paper, a downloading link is given. If participants have shaded the answers with pencil, then no marks will be given by commission. Depending upon the number of correct answers, marks will also increase. If you have marked any wrong response then reduce about 33 marks for each incorrect answer. Marking more than one response for a single question also penalty is applicable. Finally count and write the total marks, that you have calculated. If candidates are having marks above the cut-off set by Commission, then you are safe.
