

1: Sheet music: It Is Well With My Soul SATB (SATB)

Only a musician of Lloyd Larson's caliber can infuse a beloved hymn with such depth of color and expression. Conceived for voices and piano only on accompaniment, this artistic rendering offers a glorious harmonic palette and expressive piano writing at every phrase.

And the peace of God which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds through Christ Jesus. Life is just too hectic. Thankfully, the Bible reminds us that peace and harmony can be the rule rather than the exception. What an amazing statistic! Peace and harmony have not been the norm; war, hostility and aggression have dominated our human existence. So does it surprise us that in our own experience, conflict, fear and frustration dominate our emotions? Our hymn helps us find an answer to our dilemma, for it takes us to God, the author of peace. And He loves us! The power of the love of Jesus Christ is incredible—you just have to focus your mind, that is your intellect and your emotion on Christ and let Him do His work in your life. It sounds simple and it really is! As you focus on Christ, you exchange your own attitudes—that is, your fear and frustration—for that of Christ. And then peace will be the reality, not the negative emotions conveyed by Satan and his evil helpers. You are in a battle. But the Prince of Peace is on your side. Your conscience can be clear. Godly living can be the rule, not the exception. As you focus on the words of this hymn, remember that Jesus Christ can take your sin—the source of your frustration—and eliminate it completely. Your sin has been nailed to the cross. You will sin again, but confess it and then claim the cross of Christ as your sign of victory. Satan has no power over you. So, sing this hymn and memorize Phillipians 4: It may take 7 days to learn, but instead of frustration, you will know peace and contentment. It will be "well with your soul! Spafford was a successful businessman in Chicago in the late s, heavily invested in real estate along the shores of Lake Michigan. The disastrous Chicago fire of wiped out his holdings. He immediately worked to rebuild the city and assist the many that were left homeless. In he arranged to take his family to Europe. He was close to D. Moody and Ira Sankey and planned to attend their evangelistic meetings in England, then take a vacation. At the last minut See More Horatio G. At the last minute, urgent business kept him home, but he sent his wife and four daughters ahead on the S. Ville du Havre, planning to soon follow. The night of November 22, , the Ville du Havre, was struck by an English iron sailing vessel, the Lochearn. The ship sank in 12 minutes. Of the people on board, only 47 of them survived. Spafford was found nearly unconscious, clinging to a piece of the wreckage. Their four daughters did not survive. When she reached Cardiff, Wales, she cabled home, "Saved alone, what shall I do? En route, the captain pointed out the place where he believed the Ville du Havre had gone down. Returning to his cabin, he wrote, "It is well; the will of God be done. Although Spafford in his hymn tells of the comfort that God gives, no matter the circumstance, he does not dwell on tragedy. As we through faith understand these things, we too can say, "It is well with my soul. A Christian radio station near you may feature our weekly hymn lessons.
