Thinking clearances were properly handled with Love Story meets Viva la Vida, we were later dismayed to discover when you create a mash-up you need personal permissions from songwriters before it can be sold. There still remains the possibility of perhaps having to take the original video down. It has been gut wrenching, to say the least. As a consolation to everyone, I desperately wanted to create an awesome new arrangement of just "Love Story," to which we could make a new video permissions were easy on this one, by the way. Unlikely as it seemed, I hoped people would like it just as much. All I can say is I have never felt so helped with a song as I have with this one: I could not be more thrilled! For those interested, the minus track to Love Story meets Love Story will be available next week. Regarding sheet music, we should be able to secure permission fairly quickly. Watch the website for new developments. It has several live cuts including a song that was composed on the spot during a show and a classic moment that I think is very funny. I could not be more thrilled with how it turned out!!! So after you watch the new YouTube video, listen to the entire album. Steven Sharp Nelson will join me in this beautiful outdoor venue with a majestic waterfall backdrop. Showtime is at 7 pm gates open at 6 pm. For more details see Upcoming Events below.
