A dead-end town with scarce shopping areas or anything remotely fun and the guys are either creepy, weird guys and thugs. In addition, Jerry Falwell owns most of the town and is completely ignorant and needs to stop ripping of Christians. Friend who lives out-of-state: Yeah, our university party was awesome last night. What did you do last night? Girl lives in Lynchburg: Went to Food Lion and got hit on by 2 freaks and a liberty student who talked about not being able to watch rated-R movies. A dead end, broken down, landlocked, miserable city located in the mountains of Central Virginia. Everyone there is possessed by the devil whether they know it or not. Once you cross the route 29 bridge over the James River Lucifer takes your soul. A disgusting, boring, shithole of a town that Satan raised out of the depths of the River Styx and placed in Central Virginia. This was done in order to use as an alternative punishment for non-Lynchburg resident college students when they committed a grievous sin. The town however, does provide some great lulz to any non-resident when it and its citizens try to pass it off as an "up and coming city".
