*Magical Pokemon, Volume 2: Cooking With Jigglypuff (Magical Pokemon Journey) [Yumi Tsukirino] on www.enganchecubano.com *FREE* shipping on qualifying offers. Follows the adventures of Hazel, who becomes a Pokemon trainer to get closer to a boy named Almond.*

Both series are complete. This manga provides examples of: Of many aspects of the Pokemon franchise. Attack of the Town Festival: In "Panic at the Cherry Blossom Festival!! Beware the Quiet Ones: Being a slapstick comedy series, everyone though Eevee, Almond and Walnut are the standouts. One occurs between Brock and Jigglypuff in one of the anime crossover comics. Cashew, although by the end of the chapter she seems to not mind so much. Hazel gets thrown this in "Clefairy Comes Through. Rape, Female on Male: Zigzagged in a PG variant. She grows out of it and luckily never succeeds. A few of the other characters Ginger, Apricot, Plum, Caraway are named after foods other than nuts. Volume 3 has a series of 4komas where the characters are placed into different Japanese fairy tales. Flower from the Mountaintop: Happens twice in the series. The first is in "Party Time! Aptly titled "The Unbearable Suspense of Several Pokemon have crushes on humans. The most lighthearted ones compared to other Pokemon manga. Hazel wants one for Almond so Grandpa uses it to bribe her into catching Pokemon. This is a far cry from the lighthearted comedy of the rest of the series. One of the events in the Pokemon Sports Meet is this. The Pokemon are each given a picture drawn by Hazel and have to find the item in the picture. Of course, since Hazel is a terrible artist, most of the Pokemon fail the event. Clefairy literally shrinks when he is upset or someone is criticizing him. Apricot, a female ninja character introduced in the first chapter of volume 8, quickly takes over nearly the entire series, with almost half of volumes 8, 9, and 10 devoted to her love life, to the exclusion of nearly everyone else. Though many people may not know about her anyway, due to the fact that Viz only translated the first seven volumes and then dropped it completely. Younger Than They Look:

The main character of this series. The love interest of the series. Almond shows little to no interest in either Hazel or Coconut. He made Hazel the outfit she wears much of the time; it has magical properties that can protect her from injury and even drowning. His bad health is caused by a mass of dark qi surrounding him; he is able to communicate with and control this qi, which is quite unusual. A ninja -in-training under the great ninja master Ditto. Wal wears glasses when not training, and contact lenses when in ninja uniform. When she first appears, Raichu is angry with her. Once Sandy explains this, Raichu forgives her and they are able to "cross over". They appear in later chapters to help pacify an angry Golduck ghost, and are reincarnated in the final volume. First appears in the eighth volume. Apricot is addicted to bread, and winds up falling in love with Walnut. First appears in the ninth volume. She falls in love with Peanut. First appears in the tenth and final volume. As soon as he meets Coconut, he falls for her and kisses her on the lips. Pikachu appears as a male one. He dislikes battling because he views himself as weak, even though his Metronome technique is quite powerful. He also uses Minimize often, usually when he gets frightened which can happen at the drop of a hat. Not seeming to realize this, she gets horribly offended when nobody wants to eat the food she makes. He calls Almond his "big brother", but at the same time seems to be absorbed by him. In the sixth volume, he meets and falls in love with At first, she loved Eevee from afar, but she managed to confess her feelings to him at the prompting of Hazel and Coconut. Later, she has to move away, but she occasionally visits Eevee. She seems to be possessive and will get angry if Pistachio talks to other women. Roko the Vulpix Rokon is the Japanese name of Vulpix has a thing for Arashi the Cyndaquil Hinoarashi is the Japanese name of Cyndaquil , despite his being somewhat dim-witted. They meet Coconut while searching for a Fire Stone. They have a contest to see which one is good enough to him, with Chiko winning. After this, Chikorita falls in love with Almond, and then with Charmander. A male Bayleef belonging to a traveling psychic named Akira. He has a thing for Chiko, but she prefers Charmander. Unlike the genderless Articuno of the games that rescues doomed people, she only appears as a challenger against Pikachu, Clefairy and Jigglypuff in the snowcone eating contest in her house, to eat 50 snowcones in order to win a free wish. She also is usually seen wearing an apron. However, he also appears as a challenging boss character, to battle against humans. However, Tangela is frightened by the intrusive Hazel and constricts her. He has a crush on the female Articuno herself. She had nothing to do with making Arbok fall in love with Wigglytuff. Pidgetta A female Pidgeotto, she dislikes Pidgeot by bringing gifts and other items to match her beauty, but she only wants the wilted flower that was picked by Hazel. She finally falls in love with him again. Ditto Shape-shifters, these Dittos are found at the hot springs resort. Once they shifted into a bunch of Pikachu and Hazel and the others had a little trouble with that. No relation to Ditto the ninja master.
