Install these fonts on your computer! Show the Word Bank? This text is editable on the puzzle! Click the "Save As Or it is obstructed by the left menu. Are you clicking the "Print Puzzle" button on our menu? You MUST click that button to print. I put in 26 words - but only 23 are put into the puzzle! If you really are missing words, do you have duplicate words? Duplicate words are currently causing issues. Do this a few times to see if all words get included, as a completely new puzzle is created each time, BUT the more duplicates you have, the harder it will be to get them all to show by regenerating the puzzle. In general a couple of duplicates and regenrating should get them all in, 4 or more and it starts becoming difficult we are trying to find a solution. This usually occurs for 1 of 2 reasons: Try closing ALL instances of your browser, then re-open and try again. This crossword maker takes a decent amount of your browser memory. If you are already using too much, it will not make the puzzle. You must close ALL instances of your browser for your computer to reallocate that memory to a single window. You have a very old browser. This crossword creating tool uses technologies only available on the latest browsers. Try Google Chrome browser - it works wonderfully! Can I put this worksheet on my website? Can I put this worksheet in my book? How do I adjust font size? How do I change the font? Can I add my own images? Instructions: Start each line with an answer word, then type a slash "/" character, then the clue. Press the Enter key after each clue.

Fresh Words Crossword puzzle maker The Crossword puzzle maker is used to make simple crossword puzzles. It turns out that good crossword puzzles of the type found in newspapers are fairly hard to generate, and require a pool of lots of words, not all of which are used. This program puts all of the words you specify no more, no less into a simple crossword puzzle. The puzzle that is generated will remain on this server for about two months. If you want to ensure that you have a copy of the generated puzzle, make sure you save a copy. If you want help with international characters, you can call up an Alphabet chart to use for cutting and pasting letters that are hard to type. This chart will come up in a separate window. This is the way that the web is going. If you see any errors, please let me know. Paolo Guanciarossa has updated the "Solve Online" to be much easier to use. Use the Tab key to change between across and down. You can type in the answer to the puzzle in an obvious fashion, and the cursor moves to the next appropriate cell in the puzzle. Dave Regan The first part of this is for you to enter a list of words and clues. Once that part is done, hit the Make Puzzle button for a puzzle which incorporates your words. As the number of words you put in the puzzle, increases, the wait increases exponentially. However, if you want a puzzle that is larger than what fits with this form, go to the Large Puzzle page. We try lots of combinations to get you a nice puzzle. This takes time; time for our computer to generate the puzzle, and time for you to wait. This lets you set the trade off. The time is in seconds. Once we start finding a puzzle that has all of the words in the grid, we grow the puzzle up to this number of cells in both height and width attempting to get all of the words interconnected. Bigger numbers will take longer. Minimum number of groups: We try to connect all of the words into a single group. Setting this to 1 will cause the program to run longer. Although we try our best, we may still not get you the puzzle you were looking for. This allows you to play with the size of the puzzle. Bigger numbers make larger puzzles. Grey squares use less ink when printing. Black is more traditional. Change to upper case: Change letters to all capital letters, or leave as they were entered. Remove spaces in words:
