This heresy teaches that there are geographic locations on Earth that possess super-spiritual access to the heavenlies. A corollary doctrine teaches that intercessors can open up portals to the heavens by cleansing geographic areas of demonic spirits, including ancestral or territorial powers and principalities. Different regions in our nation have different anointing and callings. We felt it was strategic to gather in the Northwest corner of our nation to cry out for the gates of Heaven and Earth to align. This will unlock the ancient sounds and paths in this nation that will produce wealth and dominion for the future generations. We also want to unlock the winds from the North. The north wind is the awakening wind. I have missed worshipping at Glory of Zion over the last few weeks. However, Europe was awesome. He became the only gate whereby men might access the Father the veil to the Holy of Holies was rent in two and eventually enter His Kingdom. There is no other. In fact the concept that one place was holier than another was soundly refuted by Jesus in His conversation with the Samaritan woman at the well. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, shall ye worship the Father. Ye worship that which ye know not: But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth: God is a Spirit: He was urging them to go back to the faith of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and to read, study and meditate on the Word and the Law. They were not to seek new revelations from God because His will was easily found in the well-trodden ancient paths. But this does not at all deter these people who profess Christianity, yet practice anything but. I have seen a portal in a vision and it was a circular opening where a column of light poured down into the earth. There were angels ascending and descending. I see cables going around the world to the different nations. We seek to mentor those with revelatory gifts so they might grow in deeper intimacy with God. Is someone trying to tell me that if God wants to communicate with an individual, He can not make Himself heard if that individual is not trained in The Art of Hearing God. I am very very curious as to which training school the prophets of the Old Testament went to considering that each of them must have had at least a PhD in Hearing God. If God could get His point across by having a whale swallow Jonah, do you really believe He can not make Himself heard unless you have been taught by John Paul Jackson? Portals, Gates and Doors In one of his teaching on Heavenly Portals, Jackson says One of the marvelous mysteries of God is the existence of portals--doors and passageways--leading to and from the heavenly realms. When you are standing in a portal, it feels like an open Heaven. A heavenly portal is a spherical opening of light that offers divine protection by which angels and heavenly beings can come and go, without demonic interference. God has designed portals to begin in the third Heaven, travel through the second Heaven, and open upon Earth. And to back up this theory he refers to any and all Scriptural verses that speak of gates and doors "Lift up your heads, O you gates! And be lifted up, you everlasting doors! And the King of glory shall come in"--Psalm And the first voice which I heard was like a trumpet speaking with me, saying "Come up here, and I will show you things which must take place after this. Immediately, I was in the spirit"--Revelation 4: For example both Isaiah and Revelation speak of the four corners of the earth, which no one in their right mind would take to mean that the earth is square. And he will set up an ensign for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners Heb. Since the Bible does not present heaven as a physical place in the sky, it is nonsense to believe that it has literal doors and gates. Horeb Jackson goes on to say.. He lay down and slept was awakened by an angel who brought him food and water telling him to "Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for thee" [V. Elijah then ate and drank and then travelled on the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Mount Horeb [V. He lodged in a cave on the mountain where he had an encounter with God [Vs ]. Horeb, there is no direct evidence that He did so. One has to consider that God asked Elijah in Verse The location of Horeb is unknown.. The city of Jerusalem is a portal. In fact, it is the major portal on the face of the Earth. Why do you suppose the enemy is trying to capture Jerusalem? He is trying to block or close off this portal.

Jerusalem is located on a land bridge that touches Asia, Africa and Europe: I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about her. In fact medieval maps call Jerusalem Umbilicus Mundi Navel of the World and show it as the center of the universe possibly a reflection of The Book of Jubilees 8: Everyone on the earth is affected, in one way or another, by the city of Jerusalem. The spiritual importance of Jerusalem extends into eternity. Several portals exist on this land which had been prayed over by the Moravian brethren for over years. Obviously the enemy knows this, because he has been blocking the use of this portal and providing access only to the second Heaven. Every time I climb to the top of the land, which the locals refer to as "the Pinnacle", I have torn down demonic altars erected by witches who trespass on the property and defile places where God had once revealed Himself. But God is calling us to take back these high places, so that His angels can come and go without hindrance. Sadly, while many in the New Age movement recognize the existence of portals, the portals they recognize are those of the second Heaven. Many erroneously think they are hearing from God when actually they are being deceived by the counterfeit. The people of ancient Israel they did not have as the understanding of the universe that we do, and wrote in terms with which they were familiar. The Jews spoke of three heavens. Quite simply there is no Second Heaven. In fact many Dominionists consider those believers that do not share their opinion and experience of the miraculous and the mystical to have a very flimsy and insubstantial kind of Christianity. Do Miracles Produce Faith? Gathered together, Scripture says they were "in one accord," when suddenly, a portal opened. A sound from Heaven was heard that resembled a mighty rushing wind, filling the whole house. A supernatural manifestation that looked like flames of fire appeared on the believers and filled them with the Holy Spirit--Acts 2: But ye shall receive power, when the Holy Spirit is come upon you. The Holy Spirit came when they were all gathered together, which they apparently did quite regularly. Clark later resigned from the Vineyard churches and founded the Apostolic Network of Global Awakening. I believe this because I believe Tommy Tenny is right in stating that wherever there has been a visitation in the past that the heavens are thin there and it is easier to receive another visitation. It is easier to punch through, so to speak, through prayer where the heavens are thin. Making a connection to the other world becomes almost effortless. Most of these thin places were high ground, or in the woods and wildernesses. It is entirely true that there are places we visit, experiences that we go through, or even music we listen to that seem to cause us have a much more powerful sense of the Divine. Times when the ordinary day to day world does not so insistently try to drown out our awareness of God. When we behold breathtaking natural beauty it is quite easy, and I daresay quite natural, to get a feeling for the power of the God that created the awesome display. Are Experiences Synonymous with Faith? That is a shallow and ignorant faith indeed, and a shallow and ignorant teacher that teaches it! In fact, as said before, the concept that one place is holier than another was soundly refuted by Jesus in His conversation with the Samaritan woman at the well. However Jesus tells the Samaritan woman that the time was coming when place would not be important, and worship would not be relegated to a building but would be according to the spirit. This of course presented a strong contrast to what was then in existence in the original covenant. Similarly Paul blurs the lines between regular and holy days when he says. One person regards one day above another, another regards every day alike Each person must be fully convinced in his own mind. It is an occult town with many secrets. They were a very civilized and intelligent race that understood the energies of earth and how to use them. Not only did they have the ability to travel through these worlds, but entities from those worlds also used the portals to go in and out of. A vortex plural vortices in physics is an occurrence where matter whirls in a spiral pattern. Familiar examples of vortices are whirlwinds, tornadoes, dust devils and water spiralling down a bathtub drain. In the occult, vortices act as portals to other dimensions. Is there more to it than imagination? The Juniper trees in the area do not grow straight but in a slow spiral. Apparently the stronger the vortex energy, the more twisted the branches. A recurring theme has been its possible connections with astronomy and the skies. Among the theories advanced are a Neolithic calendar, a solar temple, a lunar observatory etc. Yet there are those that persist in believing that it actually had no connection with astronomy at all. The astrological calculations were actually necessary, not so much to calculate the calendar, but to know the precise times when the gateways of these energies were aligned. New Agers believe that the intersection points have a special psychic or magical energy.

2: Can You Solve This Riddle About the Doors to Heaven and Hell?

Outposts of Hell or Portals to Heaven written by Tom Ward, is an honestly written testimonial that brings a reasonable person to a reality about today's winds of doctrine. Mr. Ward's book exemplifies spiritual warfare and the true faith of Christianity.

Pat and I have been friends for several years. We have featured her prophetic and intercession tapes on a number of our tape of the month subscriptions. Beneath the portals were individuals and groups of believers who were completely focused on the face of Jesus and His Kingdom. Their attention was heavenward. Angels and believers were ascending and descending while releasing heavenly glory into the earthly realm. I had the understanding that the Lord was making His people aware of their ability to embrace the glories of heaven and to see them manifested in the earth through visitation and prayer. As the light touched them, the essence of what that color represented was imparted to the one receiving. The Lord impressed upon me that great wealth and provision will come with the manifestation of the glory. For those who look for His face, who long for His glory, they will be poured out upon by divine provision. Haggai 1 and 2 came to mind. Signs and wonders of every kind were also being released. Things that eye has not seen and ear has not heard and neither has entered into the heart of man will soon be revealed by the Spirit of Glory. Many will stand in awe of what the Lord will do through the manifestation of His dunamis power. The Lord is looking for those who will stand in faith on the truth of His Word believing Him for the manifestation of His glory in this hour. All things are possible, only believe. He is looking for operative faith in His church. Faith in Him is His landing strip for manifestation. Unbelief, mockery and slander will be enemies of the coming move of His glory. Jesus is going to raise up a generation of young child evangelists who will release through simple child-like faith, the reality of the heavenly realm in power and authority. He is visiting children with great outpourings of the glory and capturing their hearts affections. When he fulfilled that act of righteousness, "the heavens were opened Pray for the exaltation of Jesus Christ in the heart of every believer, every ministry, every city and every nation. Pray for portals of heavenly glory to be opened up over your family, church, ministry, city and nation. Pray for an increase of operative faith in order to release miracles, signs, wonders, and the glories of heaven. Believe for great outpourings of the Spirit of God upon children. Pray for teaching and equipping for the church concerning the realms of glory and believe for strong and solid doctrinal foundations to be taught concerning the heavenly realm. Pray for the unity of faith amongst believers in your area. Pray for "wisdom from above" along with all discernment to be "downloaded" to believers at this hour. Believe for Christian leaders to spend time in the glory presence of the Lord. Pray for the increase of "God authored" dreams and visions of the glory realm. Pray for the release of heavenly provision to the church in order to fulfill kingdom mandates. The Glory School consists of 15 -- 20 hours of Biblical teaching, instruction, and activation on the glory realm including:

3: During college prof's NDE, he saw portals leading to heaven or hell | God Reports

Description: Outposts of Hell or Portals to Heaven is a no-holds-barred book that tells the truth about the teachings and actions of some Evangelists and Christian entertainers that have led the Body of Christ to fall away from the teachings of Jesus. As a result of these teachings, some Christian homes have become more like outposts of Hell.

God delights in revealing Himself to those who love His appearing and to those who watch for His coming. One of the marvelous mysteries of God is the existence of portals--doors and passageways--leading to and from the heavenly realms. When you are standing in a portal, it feels like an open Heaven. A heavenly portal is a spherical opening of light that offers divine protection by which angels and heavenly beings can come and go, without demonic interference. God has designed portals to begin in the third Heaven, travel through the second Heaven, and open upon Earth. Throughout Scripture, we see the existence of doorways or portals: And be lifted up, you everlasting doors! And the King of glory shall come in"--Psalm And the first voice which I heard was like a trumpet speaking with me, saying "Come up here, and I will show you things which must take place after this. Immediately, I was in the spirit"--Revelation 4: As His friends, the Lord wants to open the portals of Heaven and release an unparalleled visitation of heavenly hosts. Jacob Discovered a Heavenly Portal Jacob spent the night in a place where his forefather Abraham had "called upon the name of the Lord"--Genesis As he rested his head upon a covenant stone, a portal opened. Jacob saw a vision of a ladder with angels ascending and descending on it. When he awoke from sleep, he said, "Surely the Lord is in this place, and I did not know it How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of Heaven! Have you ever wondered why the Lord, who could speak to you anywhere, would instruct you to go somewhere else, so that He could talk with you? Divine portals into the heavenly realm exist around the Earth today. The city of Jerusalem is a portal. In fact, it is the major portal on the face of the Earth. Why do you suppose the enemy is trying to capture Jerusalem? He is trying to block or close off this portal. In Moravian Falls, North Carolina, Rick Joyner has shared that he and his staff have had numerous angelic visitations on their property that was once owned by Count von Zinzendorf and the Moravian community of faith. Several portals exist on this land which had been prayed over by the Moravian brethren for over years. Obviously the enemy knows this, because he has been blocking the use of this portal and providing access only to the second Heaven. Every time I climb to the top of the land, which the locals refer to as "the Pinnacle", I have torn down demonic altars erected by witches who trespass on the property and defile places where God had once revealed Himself. But God is calling us to take back these high places, so that His angels can come and go without hindrance. Sadly, while many in the New Age movement recognize the existence of portals, the portals they recognize are those of the second Heaven. Many erroneously think they are hearing from God when actually they are being deceived by the counterfeit. While living in Babylon, the prophet Daniel encountered angels who had battled with principalities. However, since the prince of Persia ruled the nation, the portal to the third Heaven was stopped up, much like a kitchen sink that is clogged with debris, so that nothing can flow from the source. But the Lord is calling us to take back these places full of divine destiny, so that His angels can come and go unencumbered in our midst. Gathered together, Scripture says they were "in one accord," when suddenly, a portal opened. A sound from Heaven was heard that resembled a mighty rushing wind, filling the whole house. A supernatural manifestation that looked like flames of fire appeared on the believers and filled them with the Holy Spirit--Acts 2: We are entering an hour when God wants to give us a mighty outpouring of His Spirit and an unprecedented visitation of heavenly hosts on the Earth--Joel 2: Believers will be anointed and empowered to perform even greater works than those Jesus did--healing the sick, casting out demons, raising the dead, and proclaiming the Kingdom of God has come to Earth--John In the coming day, the Lord will begin to show many of you where portals exist in your community, so that you will be able to receive even greater spiritual insight and revelation from God.

He watched as two paths shot out from the earth: One extended out into darkness that was so pitch black it could be felt, the other path stretched toward an amazingly brilliant light. Curious, he put his foot on the path leading to darkness and was immediately overwhelmed by feelings of being completely lost. He felt loneliness and despair like never before in a blackness that kept intensifying and coming closer by the second.
