

Pokemon Sun & Pokemon Moon are the next generation releases in Nintendo's blockbuster game franchise. These new Pokemon games for 3DS will also allow players to import first-generation Pokemon.

Follow this guide to hear about updates Pokemon Sun is apart of the first installment of Pokemon Games - the other being Pokemon Moon - introducing the Seventh Generation of Pokemon. It has a worldwide release on November 18, , with a Special Demo Version released exactly one month prior to. Players can either purchase a physical hard copy of the game in Stores or online, or a digital copy of such from the Nintendo eShop on any 2DS or 3DS for the same cost. The game is set to take place in the New Region of Alola , a place that closely mirrors that of Hawaii in the real world. There are also many isles that make up this region that the player is allowed to venture through; again, something that very much so resembles the Hawaiian Islands in the Pacific. Almost the same exact culture and feel is found in the games from the real-life location. This is easily shown in how people in the region greet each other by saying "Alola," a similar catch phrase to the famous "Aloha. There are also New Forms found for many Pokemon from older generations. Much like how different species have different appearance and traits when found in one geographical area and climate to the next in the real world, so these given Pokemon have in this game. These New Alolan Forms have cause these older Pokemon to "adapt to their given environment" in order to survive - IE Survival of the Fittest - causing them to change in both appearance and typing as Time has advanced. Many other New concepts are also being introduced in Pokemon Sun. For one, both it and its counterpart Pokemon Moon will have a different eternal Time clock. When it is morning in one game, it will be nighttime in the other. This is something that has never been done with a pair of games before for the Pokemon Franchise, but a move hopefully to keep things different and unique from one game to the next. But even with all these changes and New aspects being incorporated within Pokemon Sun, there will still be many components in the plot that will remain true to the Pokemon Spirit. A trainer will continue to explore a new region while training their Pokemon and trying to complete their Pokedex new Rotom Pokedex , they will still have friends and rivals challenge them along the way, and, of course, they will ultimately have to stop the evil antagonist group causing trouble in the region. This Time around, a player must stop the troublesome Team Skull from causing havoc in The Alola Region , eventually having to defeat them at the end of the first storyline before they can harness the power of the Legendary Mascot of the game Solgaleo for Pokemon Sun. Contrary to previous antagonist groups so well organized and business-like, however, Team Skull is a completely New breed on its own. The trainers in this group have a unique look some would have never thought would be found in the World of Pokemon, a group with an uncanny resemblance to a real-world inner city gang. Yet still, it is on a much lower, age-appropriate, animated and fun sort of level. If nothing else, Pokemon Moon will surely be a New look for the Pokemon Industry, a breath of new and fingers-crossed good life to a rather simple concept that has been around for over two decade. Unlike any other main games series, the game begins with a video call made by Professor Kukui to the player. Professor Kukui helps create a Trainer Passport for the player before the player and the mother move from Kanto to Alola. As they reach Iki Town, the kahuna is nowhere to be found, so Kukui sends the player to the Mahalo Trail in hopes of finding the kahuna. On the trail, the player spots the girl that escaped the lab and follows her to the Plank Bridge. Before the player and Nebby fall to their doom, Tapu Koko flies through the Spearow and bring the pair back to safely. The player and the girl then return to Iki Town and get greeted by Kukui. Kukui introduces the girl as his lab assistant, Lillie, before the kahuna, Hala , returns from resolving a problem on the island. Kukui then lets the player train before going to the festival. After Tapu Koko approves of the battling, Hala returns the sparkling stone, which is now converted into a Z-Ring. Afterwards, the player then returns home to prepare for the next day. When the player meets up with Ilima, two Team Skull Grunts appear, but they appear to be minor threats to Ilima. On the way to Verdant Cavern, a wild Delibird drags the player to the Berry fields as more Team Skull Grunts are causing trouble with other people. As the player makes it to Verdant Cavern, Ilima explains the rules of the trial and lets the player attempt it. Midway into the trial, the Grunts from earlier challenge the player again and get defeated. After hearing that Lillie has gone missing, the player heads to Route 3 and into Melemele Meadow , where the player finds Lillie. Lillie again loses Nebby and the player has to go find it. After finding Nebby, the player returns to Lillie and leave the meadow to be greeted by Hau and Kukui. After hearing that Hau and the player passed their first trial, Kukui sends the player back to Iki Town for their grand trial with island kahuna Hala. The player makes way to the next island, Akala Island. Null , and Hapu , a wanderer traveling the region with her Mudsdales. After defeating the island kahuna, Faba invites the player and Hau to Aether Paradise. In the middle of the meeting, a weird creature from another universe attacks the player and after a short battle retreats to its own world. After completing the two trials, the player meets the Team Skull leader Guzma and visits their base at Po Town. Gladion overhears the conversation and demands Hau and the player to travel with him to the ferry terminal for their next destination. Before the trio leave, Nanu challenges the player as an island kahuna. Nanu gives the player another Z-Crystal and asks Gladion what he is depending on Team Skull for before departing. Gladion reveals to the player and Hau that they have to return to Aether Paradise to rescue Lillie and Nebby. Despite the crazy story, the player and Hau tag with Gladion to Aether Paradise. At Aether Paradise, employees begin to attack the team as they believe they are intruders. They eventually reach Faba and Faba indeed hints that there is something unusual about Aether Foundation. After a battle from the player, Faba redirects the trio to the lower level of Aether Paradise, with the trio unaware that it is a trap to buy time. After learning of the trap, they head back up to find Faba, who brought reinforcements to battle them. Wicke then appears to them and says that Lillie might be with the President, but it would be hard to get to them. Faba then ambushes them again with more employees. The trio then spot Team Skull and Guzma in front of where they need to go. Gladion immediately takes on Guzma while Hau and the player take out the Grunts. After taking out the Grunts, Guzma takes down Gladion and the player takes his place in battle. Guzma gets defeated by the player again and is forced to let the team move onwards. The player then runs into Lusamine and Lillie. The player witnesses a darker side of Lusamine and learns that Nebby is being sacrificed to bring back the beast from earlier. Lillie tries to reason with her mother, but fails to do so, resulting in the player going after Lusamine. Gladion and Hau catch up to the player and Gladion tells his mother not to open the Ultra Wormhole, but again, Lusamine ignores her children and opens the wormhole anyways. This results in many Ultra Beasts being spread out in Alola. With the help of Guzma, Lusamine tries to put a stop to the team, but they put both of the villains and the beast to a stop. As the Ultra Wormhole closes, Guzma, Lusamine, and the beast retreat to Ultra Space while Lillie checks on Nebby, who has now transformed into a new form. The player and Lillie eventually find Hapu again, who reveals the island has no kahuna. Lillie shows Hapu the flute Gladion gave her and are told the other flute is on Exeggutor Island. After the player takes the other flute, the player and Lillie return to Poni Island and head to the Altar. On the way to the Altar, they get ambushed by Team Skull. Team Skull battles the player in order to try and get them to talk about where Guzma disappeared to, but Plumeria puts a stop to the battling. Plumeria apologizes for her actions and lets them continue onwards in hopes of rescuing Guzma. Soon after, Hapu challenges the player to a Grand Trial and the player attends another trial soon after. With both trials complete, the player completes the island challenge. The only thing left to do is to rescue Lusamine and Guzma from Ultra Space. With its new power, Nebby takes Lillie and the player to Ultra Space. The two then run into Guzma, who seems to be possessed by the Ultra Beasts. Lillie continues to find her mother, and soon the two find Lusamine with the creature called Nihilego. Lusamine calls out a captured Nihilego and merges with it, leaving the player to battle Lusamine until Nebby separates Lusamine and Nihilego from each other. Nebby then grabs the trapped people and brings them to the Altar, where Hapu takes Lusamine and Guzma to safely. Nebby, still wanting to travel with Lillie and the player, gets rejected by Lillie as she believes that Nebby will not be able to get the adventures it wants with her as she is not a real trainer. Lillie then recommends Nebby should be captured by the player. The player gets into a battle with Nebby and eventually captures it. Lillie is thankful that Nebby will now be taken care of by its new parent and leaves to help out her mother. Nanu then appears at the Altar to let the player know that the next step is to battle all four kahunas in a row. The members include island kahunas Hala and Olivia, who use Fighting - and Rock types respectively, Trial Captain Acerola, who uses the Ghost type, and Kahili, a former island challenge champion and golfer who uses the Flying type. After becoming Champion, the player is invited back to a big festival in Iki Town to celebrate the big accomplishment. During the festival, Lillie pulls the player to the side and the two revisit the Mahalo Trail and cross a rebuilt Plank Bridge to the Ruins of Conflict, hoping to get congratulated by Tapu Koko for finishing the island challenge. The player touches the statue in the Ruins of Conflict and gives thanks to Tapu Koko. After the battle, the two return to the festival. Shortly after returning, Lillie tries to tell the player of her next steps, but decides to instead let the player enjoy the rest of the festival. Hau and the player catch up to Lillie and Professor Kukui before the departure, and it is revealed Lillie is going to Kanto to help make herself and her mother get better and stronger. Lillie gives Hau and the player a gift before she sets sail to Kanto, leaving Hau in tears. Trade and battle with friends all over the world! Adventure awaits in the Alola region! Recommended Pokemon in the Early Game Magnemite Magnemite is a very accessible Pokemon early on in the game as it is almost present in various locations. Magnemite evolves into Magnetron at level 30, then eventually turns into Magnezone. Magnemite is very common. He has great stats in the early stage of the game. Hawlucha can also be a valuable asset against the Island Kahunas Hala and Olivia. Aside from that, Hawlucha can use Roost to restore its HP and temporarily remove its Flying typing to adapt to certain situations in battle. Hawlucha can be found on Route 3 on Melemele Island. It can also be obtained through trading. Growlithe Growlithe evolves into one of the strongest Fire type Pokemon, Arcanine. Arcanine boasts good stats that even matches some Legendary Pokemon. It can also be considered a great sweeper because of its huge Attack and Speed stats. You can find Growlithe in Route 2 on Melemele Island. Magikarp Magikarp is a very weak Pokemon and is mostly thought of as a joke to use in battle. Gyarados is considered to be one of the strongest Pokemon in the game. He is often used competitively and a strong option against most types of Pokemon. Gyarados is also a versatile Pokemon as he can also learn a wide array of moves. Magikarp appears in Routes 7 to 15 on Akala Island. Cubone Cubone is a strong Pokemon once he evolves. His Alolan evolution, Alolan Marowak, is a great option against many types of Pokemon. You can turn your Cubone into an Alolan Marowak by leveling up in nighttime starting at level 1. Alolan Marowak resists nine move types, with Normal and Fighting types having no effect against him. Getting a Cubone early is a good investment and can greatly help you in the latter stages of the game. Eevee Eevee is a good Pokemon to catch in the early parts of the game. Maximizing friendship with Eevee allows it to evolve into Espeon or Umbreon. Aside from that, it has seven more evolutions with each of them having different types. Each one of them has different strengths. Jolteon, for example, has a better attack speed compared to every Eevee evolution. On the other hand, Flareon has the best attack stats. Eevee is a versatile choice because each evolution is unique and can fit any team depending on who you evolve it into. Eevee appears in the tall grass along routes 4 and 6 on Melemele Island.
