I look for the resurrection of the dead. You are always doing great and inscrutable things with us, glorious and wonderful, and without number. You grant us sleep for rest from our infirmities, and repose from the burdens of our much toiling flesh. We thank you, for you have not destroyed us with our sins, but have continued to love us; and though we were sunk in despair, you have raised us up to glorify your power. Open our mouth and fill it with your praise, that we may be able without distraction to sing and confess that you are God, glorified in all and by all, the eternal Father, with your only begotten Son, and your all holy, good, and life giving Spirit, now and forever and to the ages of ages. Another Prayer Read on Saturday Remember, Lord, our fathers and brethren who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection to eternal life, and all those who ended this life in piety and faith. Pardon their every transgression, committed voluntarily or involuntarily, in word, or deed, or thought. Bestow on them and on us your kingdom. For you are the life, the resurrection, and the peace of your departed servants, Christ our God, and to you we give glory, together with your all holy, good, and life giving Spirit, now and forever and to the ages of ages. Prayer Of Saint Eustratios Read on Saturday Most highly do I praise you, Lord, for you have taken notice of my lowliness and have not delivered me into the hands of my enemies but have relieved my soul of its needs. Now, Master, let your hand shelter me, and let your grace descend upon me, for my soul is distracted and pained at the departure from this, my miserable and sordid body, that the end design of the adversary may not overtake her and make her stumble into the darkness for the unknown and known sins amassed by me in this life. Be gracious to me, Master, and do not let my soul see the dark countenance of the evil spirits, but let her be received by your angels bright and shining. Glorify your holy name, and by your might set me before your divine judgment seat. When I am being judged, do not allow the hand of the prince of this world to take hold of me, to throw me, a sinner, into the depths of hell, but stand by me and be a savior and mediator to me. Have mercy, Lord, on my soul, defiled through the passions of this life, and receive her cleansed by penitence and confession, for. Our Father, who are in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory, of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, now and forever and to the ages of ages. Christ our God, bless the food and drink of your servants, for you are holy always, now and forever and to the ages of ages. Thanksgiving After Breakfast We thank you, Christ our God, for you have satisfied us with earthly gifts. Do not deprive us of your heavenly kingdom, but as you, O Savior, came among your disciples and gave them peace, come among us also and save us. Prayers Before Dinner The poor shall eat and be satisfied, and they who seek the Lord shall praise him; their hearts shall live to the ages of ages. Glory to the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, now and forever and to the ages of ages. Lord, you have gladdened our hearts in your creation, and we have rejoiced in the work of your hands. The light of your countenance has shined upon us, Lord. You have gladdened our hearts. We have been satisfied with the good things of the earth. We shall sleep in peace and repose in you, for you alone, Lord, have sustained us in hope. Another Prayer Blessed is God, who has mercy upon us and nourishes us from his bountiful gifts by his grace and love always, now and forever and to the ages of ages. Glory to you, our God, glory to you. Heavenly King, Comforter, the Spirit of truth, who are present everywhere filling all things, Treasury of good things and Giver of life, come and dwell in us. Cleanse us of every stain, and save our souls, gracious Lord. All holy Trinity, have mercy on us. Lord, forgive our sins. Grant this to me, Savior, and save me. Glory to the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Now that the day has passed, I glorify you, Master, and I entreat that the evening with the night be without offense. Now and forever and to the ages of ages. Now that the day has ended, I praise you, Holy One, and entreat that the evening and the night be undisturbed. Lord, have mercy Awaken me in due time that I may glorify you, for you alone are good and love all people. Grant me a peaceful and undisturbed sleep. Protect me from every abuse and plot of the evil one. I believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth and of all things visible and invisible. Light of Light, true God of true God, begotten not created, of one essence with the Father through whom all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became man. He was crucified for us under Pontius Pilate, and he suffered and was buried. On the third day he rose according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and dead. His kingdom will have no end. And in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the Giver of life, who proceeds from the Father, who together with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who spoke through the prophets. In one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. I expect the resurrection of the dead. And the life of the ages to come. At all times and in every hour, you are worshiped and glorified in heaven and on earth, Christ our God. Long in patience, great in mercy and compassion, you love the righteous and show mercy to sinners. Lord, receive our prayers at the present time. Direct our lives according to your commandments. Set our minds aright. Cleanse our thoughts and deliver us from all sorrow, evil, and distress. For you are blessed to the ages of ages. Virgin Theotokos Theotokos virgin, hail most blessed Mary, the Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb, for you have given birth to the Savior of our souls. Baptizer Of Christ Baptizer of Christ, remember us, so that we may be saved from our sins. For to you has been given grace to intercede for us. Intercede for us, holy Apostles, and all you saints, so that we may be saved from danger and sorrow. We have received you as fervent defenders before the Savior. Beneath your compassion we seek refuge, Theotokos. Do not overlook our prayers, but deliver us from danger, only pure and blessed one. My hope is the Father; my refuge, the Son; my protection, the Holy Spirit. Holy Trinity, glory to you. I place all my hope in you, Mother of God. Keep me under your protection. When ready for sleep, say: Under the protection of your wings I shall be covered and fall asleep, for in you only, Lord, does my hope lie. Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my soul and my body. Do bless me, do have mercy on me, and grant me eternal life. You were lifted up upon the cross of your own will, Christ our God. Grant your mercy upon the new commonwealth that bears your name. May they have your alliance as a weapon of peace, and an invincible trophy. Most praised Theotokos, establish the Orthodox people, save those whom you have called to govern and grant them victory from above, for you have given birth to God, only blessed one. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will among all people 3. Lord, open my lips and my mouth shall proclaim your praise 3. Psalm 3 Lord, why have they multiplied who afflict me? Many rise up against me. Many say to my soul, there is no salvation for him in his God. But you, Lord, are my helper, my glory, and the one who lifts up my head. I cried to the Lord with my voice, and he heard me from his holy mountain. I lay down and slept. I awoke, for the Lord will help me. I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people who have set themselves against me all around. Arise, Lord, save me, my God. For you have struck all those who without cause are my enemies; you have broken the teeth of sinners. Salvation belongs to the Lord, and your blessing is upon your people. Psalm 37 38 Lord, rebuke me not in your anger, nor chasten me in your wrath.

Two Commonly Used Blessings Bless, O Lord, this food to our use and us to thy service, and keep us ever mindful of the needs of others. For this and all we are about to receive, make us truly grateful, Lord. Through Christ we pray. Other Blessings There are hundreds of prayer forms used before meals. Here are some good ones: For good food and those who prepare it, for good friends with whom to share it, we thank you Lord. For food in a world where many walk in hunger; For faith in a world where many walk in fear; For friends in a world where many walk alone; We give you thanks, O Lord. Let us thank God for food when others are hungry; for drink when others are thirsty; for friends when others are lonely. Be present at our table, Lord! Be here and everywhere adored. Your mercies bless, and grant that we May feast in Paradise with Thee or: May strengthened for thy service be. Bless the Lord, O my soul, And all that is within me, bless his holy name. Bless the Lord, O my soul, And forget not all his benefits. Blessed be God, eternal king, for these and all his good gifts to us. Our Dear Heavenly Father, we thank Thee for this food. Feed our souls on the bread of life and help us to do our part in kind words and loving deeds. Our Heavenly Father, kind and good, we thank Thee for our daily food. We thank Thee for Thy love and care. Be with us Lord, and hear our prayer. Most Holy, Righteous and everywhere present God, our Father who art in Heaven, we ask thy blessing upon this food. Bless the hearts and hands that provide the same. And when it is ours to pass from time to eternity, own us and crown us heirs to Thy kingdom. These favors and blessings we ask in the name of Christ, our Great Redeemer. From thy hand cometh every good, We thank thee for our daily food. And with it Lord, thy blessing give, And to thy glory may we live. Great God accept our gratitude, For the great gifts on us bestowed-- For raiment, shelter and for food. Great God, our gratitude we bring, Accept our humble offering, For all the gifts on us bestowed, Thy name be evermore adored. May this food so fresh and fragrant, call forth reverence for You in our souls. As you give this strength to our perishable limbs, So give us grace for our immortal lives. Be present at our table, Lord; Be here and everywhere adored. These mercies bless, and grant that we May feast in fellowship with thee. Blessing for Thanksgiving Day Our Father in Heaven, we give thanks for the pleasure of gathering together for this occasion. We give thanks for this food prepared by loving hands. As we partake of this food, we pray for health and strength to carry on and try to live as You would have us. This we ask in the name of Christ, Our Heavenly Father. Thank You for a roof over our heads, and more than enough food to eat. Thank You for the family You have given to us, for family and friends who have gathered together to eat this Thanksgiving Day meal. Amen O Gracious God, we give you thanks for your overflowing generosity to us. Thank you for the blessings of the food we eat and especially for this feast today. Thank you for our home and family and friends, especially for the presence of those gathered here. Thank you for our health, our work and our play. Please send help to those who are hungry, alone, sick and suffering war and violence. Open our hearts to your love. We ask your blessing through Christ your son. Especially Suitable for Children For food and health and happy days receive our gratitude and praise In serving others Lord may we Repay our dept of love to thee. Thank you for the food we eat, Thank you for the world so sweet, Thank you for the birds that sing, Thank you God for everything. God is great, God is good. Let us thank him for our food. By his hands, we are fed. Let us thank him for our bread. God our Father, Lord and Saviour Thank you for your love and favor Bless this food and drink we pray And all who shares with us today. This clever one was written by Robert Burns Some hae meat and canna eat, And some would eat that want it; But we hae meat, and we can eat, Sae let the Lord be thankit. We thank you, God We thank you, God, for this our food, for life and health and every good. Let manna to our souls be given -- the bread of life sent down from heaven. From a hymn by John Cennick, Several from Ireland: May the blessing of the five loaves and the two fishes which God shared out among the five thousand be ours. May the King who did the sharing bless our sharing and our co-sharing. Bless, O Lord, this food we are about to eat; and we pray You, O God, that it may be good for our body and soul; and if there be any poor creature hungry or thirsty walking along the road, send them into us that we can share the food with them, just as You share your gifts with all of us. May this food restore our strength, giving new energy to tired limbs, now thoughts to weary minds. May this drink restore our souls, giving new vision to dry spirits, new warmth to cold hearts. And once refreshed, may we give new pleasure to You, who gives us all. Bless us, O God. Since you redemmed us so dearly and delivered us from evil, as you gave us a share in this food so may you give us a share in eternal life. Give us O God of the honey-sweet milk, the sap and the savor of the fragrant farms. God in our waking, God in our speaking; God in our cooking, God in our eating; God in our playing, God in our digesting; God in our working, God in our Resting. In a world where so many are hungry, may we eat this food with humble hearts; in a world where so many are lonely, May we share this friendship with joyful hearts. O Lord, who clothes the lilies And feeds the birds of the sky, Who leads the lambs to pasture And the deer to the waterside, Who has multiplied loaves and fishes And converted water to wine, O Lord, come to our table, As guest and giver, to dine. Lord, bless this food and grant that we May thankful for thy mercies be. Blessings for Christmastide In the peace of this season our spirits are joyful: By your coming may the hungry be filled with good things, and may our table and home be blessed. God of all gifts, we thank you for the many ways you have blessed us this day. We are grateful each of those who are gathered around this table. We ask you to bless us and our food and to bless those we love who are not with us today. In our gratitude and love, we remember your humble birth into our lives and pray for those who are without enough to eat. We remember the stable in which you were born and pray for those who have no place to live. We remember your challenging message of caring and giving and we pray for peace in families and nations throughout the world. We bless you and give you thanks in your Spirit who brings our hearts to life the Christmas Day and forever. Ah, dearest Jesus, holy Child, Make thee a bed, soft, undefiled, Within my heart, that it may be A quiet chamber kept for Thee. My heart for very joy doth leap, My lips no more can silence keep, I too must sing, with joyful tongue, That sweetest ancient song, Glory to God in highest heaven, Who unto man His Son hath given While angels sing with pious mirth. A glad new year to all the earth!

3: Prayer Before Meals - Daily Devotionals

All of these can be traced to the and Episcopal books of common prayer, and the Roman Catholic church. Give us grateful hearts, O Father, for all thy mercies, and make us mindful of the needs of others; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Variations of Common Prayer All of these can be traced to the and Episcopal books of common prayer, and the Roman Catholic church. Give us grateful hearts, O Father, for all thy mercies, and make us mindful of the needs of others; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Contributed by Alan K. For the bounty laid before us, may the Lord make us thankful, and ever mindful of the needs of others. We have passed it down from generation to generation to our children. For what we are about to receive, may the lord make us truly thankful. And may we always be mindful of the needs of others, for Jesus sake, Amen. Dear Lord, bless this food to the nourishment of our bodies and us to thy service. Contributed by Dorothy B. May we use it to nourish our bodies, and thee to nourish our souls. Make us ever more mindful of the needs of others, and the needs of our planet. Through Christ Our Lord, Amen. Contributed by Thomas H. It helped me to remember the prayer my father said before many of our meals. It is a variation of some of those already listed. Bless this food to our use, and us to thy service. Fill our hearts with grateful praise. Like many such "mixed" couples, they found a home in the Episcopal church as a bridge between the Catholics and Protestants. Bless us, O Lord, for these Thy gifts, which we are about to receive from Thy bounty. Through Christ our Lord we pray. Help us to be mindful of all our blessings, and the needs of those who have less. When they were young, I introduced them to different prayers. As a matter of fact, collecting prayers to teach them was my key motivation for starting this project. They are now Boy Scouts and give thanks at least once every summer camp with the Philmont Grace. However, after editing this collection for seven years, I have settled on this variation of a traditional Anglican prayer as my favorite. I encourage my sons also to pray spontaneously, but our family has made this our standard. Many complain that memorized prayers lose their meaning with repetition, but I experience a mystical, amplifying effect when all gathered around the table are praying in unison. Dear Lord, thank you for this food. Bless the hands that prepared it. Bless it to our use and us to your service, And make us ever mindful of the needs of others. All creatures that on earth do dwell Sing, to the Lord, with cheerful voice. Him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell Come ye before Him , and rejoice. The Lord ye know is God, indeed, Without our aid He did us make. For good food and those who prepare it, for good friends with whom to share it, we thank you Lord. At weddings he adds: There once was a cock and a hen, Who gave lunch to a goose in a pen. The blessing I found on the net. May their twin thoughts spiral upward like leafy vines, like fiddle strings in the wind, and be as noble as the Douglas fir.
