What does the Bible say about angels? Angels are personal spiritual beings who have intelligence, emotions, and will. This is true of both the good and evil angels demons. Angels possess intelligence Matthew 8: Angels are spirit beings Hebrews 1: Although they do not have physical bodies, they are still personalities. Because they are created beings, their knowledge is limited. This means they do not know all things as God does Matthew They do seem to have greater knowledge than humans, however, which may be due to three things. First, angels were created as an order of creatures higher than humans. Therefore, they innately possess greater knowledge. Second, angels study the Bible and the world more thoroughly than humans do and gain knowledge from it James 2: Third, angels gain knowledge through long observation of human activities. Unlike humans, angels do not have to study the past; they have experienced it. Therefore, they know how others have acted and reacted in situations and can predict with a greater degree of accuracy how we may act in similar circumstances. Though they have wills, angels, like all creatures, are subject to the will of God. Good angels are sent by God to help believers Hebrews 1: Here are some activities the Bible ascribes to angels: They praise God Psalm They worship God Hebrews 1: They rejoice in what God does Job They serve God Psalm They appear before God Job 1: They bring answers to prayer Acts They aid in winning people to Christ Acts 8: They observe Christian order, work, and suffering 1 Corinthians 4: They encourage in times of danger Acts They care for the righteous at the time of death Luke Angels are an entirely different order of being than humans. Humans are primarily physical beings, but with a spiritual aspect.
