Without my being blest? Father, help me to follow Christ to the very end. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men. A true Christian not one by name only is expected to be a disciple of Christ. However, not all Christians are willing or ready to make the commitments of a disciple. We, therefore, need to examine who a Christian disciple should be and how to become one. To study the meaning and the requirements to become a Christian disciple. Through the lesson, students should be able to: To achieve the above-stated objectives, teachers should: A few lessons can be learnt from the life of Simon Peter and his co-fishermen: A true disciple is to be committed. This is in preparation for another escapade. A true disciple must be prepared always for the next assignment from the master. A true disciple must be a person of faith and be ready to obey always. He considered himself unworthy sinner to receive such benevolence from the Lord Jesus. He, therefore, fell down at Jesus knees which symbolizes worship or gratitude. A true disciple must be a worshipper. Unity to win the race through collaborative efforts of others is a must for a true disciple. A Christian disciple must sacrifice all for the Lord. This story teaches us: Teacher to use lecture method. Teacher to use two 2 lesson outlines time. What are the differences between a Christian Disciple and a social media follower? I Personal decision to follow Christ Luke 9: Why do some people stop following Jesus after a while? To be a true disciple of Jesus, you must prepare to follow him totally. A close study of the daily life of the first apostolic church reveals certain peculiarities worthy of note. This seems to run contrary to some trends noticed in some churches today. We need to examine what the early church looked like and practiced in order to realign ourselves with the will of God for His Church. Fellowship â€” Warm and healthy horizontal relationship with one another and vertical relationship with the Almighty God. Breaking of bread â€” Holy Communion and sharing. Prayers â€” Be it in supplication, thanksgiving, petitions. Miracles â€” Many wonders and signs were performed through them. Fear upon soul right reverence was attributed to the Almighty God. Bonded â€” Oneness and unity. Had all things in common, similar behaviour, bowel of mercy and rendering support. Hospitality â€” Sharing from house to house. Appreciation -Thanksgiving to God. Monetary rewards and other forms of compensations have replaced selfless services. True, genuine and agape love has been replaced by suspicion. Sacrificial giving is gradually fading away. Pride, competition, egoistic tendencies, rivalry among leaders and followers have replaced complementary and true submission to one another and God. Envy and strife, suspicion and hatred have found their ways to the church. Gimmicks resulting in fake miracles, lies, exploitation, intimidation, evil packaging, deception etc. Class to identify the effects of the above stated work of the flesh and the devil in addition to secular-like songs and indecent dressing to the church. Warm, truthful and loving fellowship. True signs and wonders were common in the early church. Unity in love and togetherness. The early church members were generous. The early church enjoyed favour with all people. The early church experienced tremendous growth on daily basis. How can the above-stated qualities of the early church return fully into the modern-day church? Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, and today and forever. While we cannot rule out the need for innovations and creativities that make the church of God lively today, the present day church must be modelled after the early church. Mention four 4 shortcomings of the modern-days church and four 4 qualities of the early- Christian church. Father, let the five 5 of the early-Christians church return to our present day church. Students should find ten 10 qualities of the early -church from Acts 2: Without my being blest?
