Verified Reviewer Original review: When I finally got to talk to a person after calling the number on the website which was a wrong number then trying to get through the robo answer service find out that I need to call country-magazine. Helpful 4 people found this review helpful Alida of St. Even in March and June My impression is that they do it on purpose to overbill seniors like my father he is 92 and does believe that it needs to be renewed every time he sees those notices times a year. If a subscription is for one whole year it should be sent a bill once a year. I wrote several emails. RD care but no response. I then will go to my browser and type in It will go to either the USA or Australia website. July 26, I made payment on on Total payment of 50 shipping. They handed me a book and after that not even one books is couriered to me on time. July 31, On June 27, , I enquired about my Subscription status by emailing rdcare intoday. On July 1, , I get a response from Kabita saying "We regret to inform you that your payment made by you through online has not been realized from the bank". In other words, although my Credit Card was charged after making online payment, they are not going to send any issues because of some internal problems. I responded the same day asking "why am I being penalized if my payment made online has not been realized from the bank? Also what earlier was "your payment made by you through online" now became "your subscription has been lapsed"!!! On July 11, , I receive an email from Sugandh asking for an "alternate number". I responded the same day saying "Please just call for once on There has been complete silence after that! What was once a publication held in extremely high esteem and something I grew up reading, has now fallen to these dismal levels. Thanks for your understanding. However, if I need to, I most certainly will. Please let me know.
