sandwiches & pizza Pizza primavera Thin crust pizza topped with asparagus, zucchini, peas, sun-dried tomatoes, arugula (rocket), and a combination of mozzarella and Parmesan cheese.

Pour warm water into a large bowl; sprinkle with yeast, and let stand until foamy, about 5 minutes. Whisk oil, sugar, and 2 teaspoons salt into yeast mixture. Add flour, and stir until a sticky dough forms. Turn out dough onto a floured surface, and knead until smooth, about 8 minutes. Transfer to an oiled bowl, and turn to coat. Let stand, covered, in a warm place until doubled in volume, about 1 hour. Meanwhile, make the filling: Preheat oven to degrees. Spread tomatoes on a rimmed baking sheet, drizzle with 3 tablespoons oil, and season with salt. Roast, flipping after 30 minutes, until shrunken and slightly dehydrated, 45 minutes to 1 hour. Raise oven temperature to degrees with convection on if possible. Turn out dough onto a lightly floured surface, and divide into 8 pieces. Form each into a ball. Let rest, draped with plastic wrap, for 15 minutes. Arrange a layer of tomatoes on half of the dough, and dot with 2 tablespoons goat cheese. Top with 4 slices soppressata. Tear off pieces of mozzarella, and place over top. Fold dough over to enclose filling, but do not seal. Repeat with remaining dough, tomatoes, goat cheese, soppressata, and mozzarella arranging 4 sandwiches per baking sheet. Bake until golden and cooked through, about 10 minutes. Let cool for at least 15 minutes before serving. Season with salt and pepper. Open each sandwich, and fill with arugula-basil mixture. Cut each in half.
