My papa and I went to the beach together. Alison Serino April 26, My dad kept us in front of us always. He exited the pew first in church every Sunday so we would walk ahead even though it always confused the seating arrangements when we returned. Without fail we rode our bicycles in front, never behind. He is keeping us in front of him now and I am forever comforted. He is given a gift. A father loves his daughters for all they are and will be. They are given wings. He cared deeply for others and he brought fun and sparkle to our college days. Tom Rollo April 23, As a freshly minted bank examiner, Bob mentored me and guided me through an eye opening experience of testifying to Congress. From that moment on during our careers at OCC, Bob and I became friends and he would always say, we Bostonians stick together. He was always willing to share his expertise and advice with a bit of humor thrown in along the way. Bob was a consummate professional and just a great human being. I will miss him. He has been such a positive influence on so many lives over the years, especially mine. He did it right. He knew what was important in life. We are all blessed to have know him and to have learned from him. He will be truly missed. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. Oh Bobby how we miss you already. What joy you gave all who knew you. Keep thinking of "enthusiasm" Yours for a new place to eat,the views from your deck, your family and ours too, a good writer-the world. Helen and Steve Robbio April 19, So sorry to hear of your loss We will always remember him fondly for his fun loving spirit and smile. I pray that the Good Lord treats Bob in the special way that Bob treated everyone that crossed his path. Bill Conway April 19, My condolences to the family, a good friend, and team mate. My he rest in peace. Dave Norris April 18, Bob was a kind and generous soul with any easy smile and a youthful enthusiasm. I will remember Bob fondly especially while hitting up to the eighth green at Scituate Country Club. Sorry for the times I misclubbed Bob! Thanks for your friendship! I have fond memories of playing tennis with him at Twin Farms. A really nice man Rob MacKinnon. R Karen Ward April 18, Bob was truly one of my favorite "patients". I got to see him every six months and he always greeted me with a hug and left with a hug! He was always genuinely interested in my boys and what they were doing and I will truly miss him. Thoughts and prayers with you, Marilyn, the girls, and families during this sad time. Bob will definitely be missed. I have many fond memories of when we were kids in Scituate. You, your children and family are in my thoughts and prayers. Bank regulation can be humorless, but not to Bob. He treasured a funny workday story, and laughed often with us. I worked with Bob for over 20 years at the OCC. Bob was our wise mentor, guide, and advisor. We could feel his unyielding Boston bulldog loyalty to the OCC and to its employees. He taught us about the love of life and family. What a terrific legacy he leaves to us all.

3: Robert B. Serino Obituary - Scituate, MA

This is a very nice book but I was disappointed there wasn't more information about the founding of Scituate and its first years. Of course, photography wasn't available in and this is a picture book, but I was hoping for something more.

This genealogy is imperfect yet remains a good first step for many of our researchers. Unnamed wives, children and servants are not included. While there may have been residents in our town prior to that year no good primary sources have been found. However, there is implied evidence that a settlement did exist before. There are also families who arrived a generation later who went on to have enormous roles in the development of the Town and the country. No offense is meant by the inclusion or the exclusion of any family. The work continues and the sources emerge. Both towns were originally part of the Massachusetts Bay Colony. History[edit] Scituate was first settled in by emigrants from Scituate , Massachusetts. Stephen Hopkins later became a governor of Rhode Island and was a signer of the Declaration of Independence. In Scituate representative, militia general and Supreme Court Justice William West led an armed anti-federalist mob of farmers into Providence to protest the U. Supreme Court decided its first case, West v. Barnes , regarding a farm in Scituate. Foster was incorporated as a separate town in , taking the western half of Scituate. This project resulted in the condemnation of "1, buildings, including houses, seven schools, six churches, six mills, thirty dairy farms, eleven ice houses, post offices, and an electric railway system, the Providence and Danielson Railway system". Scituate has played an important role in many of the United States wars. Because of this, in , the Chopmist Hill area was considered as a candidate for the location of the headquarters of the United Nations. Scituate Reservoir[edit] One of the most prominent features of the town is the Scituate Reservoir. The large reservoir spans a large portion of Scituate and has forever changed the face of the town. During construction of the reservoir, numerous villages were flooded along the former banks of the Pawtuxet River. Some foundations of the old structures are still visible today during times of drought. The reservoir, and a large portion of land surrounding, it is owned and maintained by the Providence Water Supply Board. The main Scituate reservoir was formed by the construction of a dam across the Pawtuxet River at the former village of Kent. Water storage in the reservoir began on November 10, An aqueduct from the dam feeds the nearby treatment plant which was placed in operation on September 30, The Scituate Reservoir is the largest artificial freshwater body of water in the state of Rhode Island. It and its six tributary reservoirsâ€™ which make up a total surface area of 7. The original treatment plant was state-of-the-art at the time of its construction. The plant was considered to be among the most technologically advanced of its day, and for many years the filtration system was the only plant of its type in New England. As demand continued to grow, the treatment plant underwent major expansions and renovations in the s and again in the 60s.
