Many ticket sellers make their tickets available to you before they have even been printed, which gives customers an edge on getting great seats in advance. Because this sometimes happens, tickets may not be "in hand" at the time of purchase. Seller notes often indicate when an order will ship at the latest, so customers know when to expect their tickets. They may also note that tickets are "in hand," which means they can ship immediately. After your tickets have shipped, you will receive a FedEx tracking number, so you may track your purchase. Either way, Sensational Seats guarantees your tickets will arrive in time. Tickets are shipped via FedEx. Shipping through FedEx allows ticket sellers to ensure that the tickets they sell have arrived to the proper recipient, and ticket buyers can track the progress of the package. Can customer ship to a P. Yes, tickets can be shipped to P. Just un-check the box next to "use my billing address as the shipping address" in checkout and enter your P.
