

1: Meet Garth Brooks' Daughters Taylor, August, & Allie

Show me How is the second book in the 'It's Kind of Personal' series by Anna Brooks. I thought this was a fantastic second book in the series, again it was well written and I was hooked from the very first page.

This book is about Brandon and Mary. Both we know from the previous book. When I met them I was itching to know their story and Ladies this story is astounding. Grips you from the start Mary has really been dealt a shit hand of cards in life but that lasts till she meets the Parkers. Th I had no idea the special Kind of spectacular stories I have had on my Kindle for awhile now. They give her the family she never had. They love her unconditionally and she feels the same for them. They are her Safe Haven. Till they are threatened and hurt by what she thinks is her fault. They see her as a daughter and Brandon sees her as the Only woman he wants to spend his life with. Evil but Brilliant Woman That my Ladies is the Power of true Love. Yes he is angry and wants questions answered but this is not all he is. Brandon and Mary have ups and downs when reunited but like adults they work through all the bumps. I love how patient and understanding Brandon is. It was incredible watching these two build a life together and finally have the love the deserve This man is so Seductive and Hot. He is also an extraordinary man, his love and charming ways would melt a stone so you can only imagine the effect he had on a Woman that already was inlove with him I know now that Anna is not a one trick pony. This woman can write ladies. Hot sexy time and moments that have you blushing like a Nun This story was so different and I loved every second of this book
