Special songs can make your vow renewal ceremony all the more special and deliver a subtle message to your guests at the same time. Reflect on your years together or back to your wedding for song ideas for your vow renewal ceremony.

Simply put, a vow renewal is a way to celebrate your marriage. Maybe you want to reaffirm your commitment to each other after a rough period in your relationship. How Soon Can You Renew? A reaffirmation can take place anytime after your actual wedding—from the next day to 30 years late. Many couples host their own renewals, and some have their children do the honors. Where Should It Be? You can renew your vows in a house of worship, at home, on the beach, in a pretty garden or park, on a mountaintop or on a cruise—basically, anywhere that has sentimental meaning for both of you. Who Should Be Invited? But you can definitely throw a large party for your extended family and a wider circle of friends. A word of advice: What Should the Invitation Say? Jonathan Smith [or Susan and Jonathan Smith]. Jonathan Smith [or Susan and Jonathan Smith] request the honor of your presence at the reaffirmation ceremony of their parents. Feel free to dress up. Or choose another dress—a pretty cocktail dress, formal evening gown or a nice suit, depending on your taste and the formality and style of the celebration. Carry flowers or pin a corsage. Or choose a new ensemble for this celebration. Wear a gift of jewelry your wife has given you—cuff links, a watch—and a boutonniere in your lapel. Should You Have a Wedding Party? Attendants are unnecessary for a vow renewal, but you might choose to invite your original bridesmaids and groomsmen to stand up for you informally, for sentimental reasons. Many couples also involve their children and grandchildren, perhaps being escorted down the aisle by them or having them perform a reading during the ceremony. Who Walks You Down the Aisle? What Actually Happens During the Ceremony? You could also vary the verbiage and write original vows. This is an opportunity for both of you to really think about how you feel about your relationship, especially if the last time you exchanged vows was decades ago. These can be your original bands with new engravings perhaps the date of your vow renewal or a meaningful quotation or new rings purchased expressly for the reaffirmation a great time to upgrade those bands, if you want to. Children, close relatives and special friends can do readings, and you can have meaningful music playing, just as you would at a wedding ceremony. Should You Have a Reception? The party can be any style, from a casual backyard barbecue or an intimate family dinner to a cocktail party or dinner as large and complex as a traditional wedding reception. There can be champagne, dancing, a cake—the works. Be sure to hire a photographer to capture the event. A vow renewal is not the time to upgrade your kitchen or china collection. If guests insist, suggest they make donations to your favorite charity. An intimate vow renewal deserves just as much style and personality as a big, traditional wedding.

2: 7 Christian Songs Sure To Give You Hope and Strength Today

Song of the Day: In the wake of the most vital mid-term US elections in a generation, the rock song that is often wheeled out on these occasions, but less known is that it is a reworking of an earlier song, Reflected.

The Giving of Rings A circle is an ancient symbol of wholeness and peace. It represents the boundaries beyond which the special nature of a particular relationship does not extend. The ring is the accepted token of a marriage covenant. In giving and receiving these rings, you again acknowledge that your lives remain joined in one unbroken circle, wherever you go, you will always return to your shared life together. The Blessing of the Rings Heavenly Father, by your blessing let these rings be to N and N a symbol of unending love and faithfulness, to remind them of the vow and covenant which they have made this day through Jesus Christ our Lord. The man places the ring on the hand of his wife and holding it there says N, I give you this ring as a sign of our marriage. If rings are to be exchanged the woman places a ring on the hand of her husband and, holding it there, says N, I give you this ring as a sign of our marriage. Blessing upon the Marriage Before God and this congregation Name and Name have renewed their marriage vows to each other. They have re-confirmed their covenant of marriage by the joining of hands and the exchange of rings. May there be truth and understanding between you as you are a joy and a blessing to each other. May you enjoy length of days, fulfilment of hopes, and peace and contentment of mind. God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Spirit, bless, preserve and keep you; the Lord mercifully grant you the riches of his grace, that you may please him both in body and soul, and, living together in faith and love, may receive the blessings of eternal life. May God bless and keep you always. Amen Additional Material for the Service Prayer Spirit of God, in whom we live and move and have our being, you have given us the life and grace of human love that draws us to each other. Today we pray for Name and Name in their continued life together. We are thankful for the joy they find in each other and the hope they declare in this act of re-marriage. May they always be strengthened to keep the vows they have made and cherish the life they share, and to honour each other in love. Bible readings suitable for the service 1 Corinthians Love is never boastful, nor conceited, nor rude; never selfish, not quick to take offence. There is nothing love can not face; there is no limit to its faith, its hope, and its endurance. I will make a helper suitable for him. He brought them to the man to see what he would name them; and whatever the man called each living creature, that was its name. So the man gave names to all the livestock, the birds of the air and all the beasts of the field. But for Adam no suitable helper was found. Then the LORD God made a woman from the rib he had taken out of the man, and he brought her to the man. These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full. This is my commandment: That you love one another as I have loved you. You will eat the fruit of your labor; blessings and prosperity will be yours. Your wife will be like a fruitful vine within your house; your sons will be like olive shoots around your table. Thus is the man blessed who fears the LORD. Peace be upon Israel. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife; and they shall be one flesh: What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. Ephesians Submit yourselves one to another as the fear of God. Wives, show reverence for your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church and He is the saviour of the body. Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own Husbands in everything. Husbands, love your wife, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave Himself for it; that He might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word; that He might present it to Himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkles or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. So ought men to love their wives as their own body; He that loves his wife loves himself. For no man ever yet hateth his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as the Lord the church. For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. This mystery is a profound one and I am saying this as it refers to Christ and the Church; however, let husband love his wife as himself, and let the wife see that she respect her husband. It erupts like an earthquake and then it subsides and when it subsides you have to make a decision, you have to work out whether your roots have become so entwined together that it is inconceivable that you should ever part, because this is what love is. Love is not breathlessness, it is not excitement, it is not the desire to mate every second of the day, it is not lying awake at night imagining he is kissing every part of your body. Love itself is what is left over when being in love has burned away. Brahm-Sutra Blessed art though, O Lord, who makes the bridegroom rejoice with the bride. Talmud Ketubot 8 What greater thing is there for two human souls than to feel that they are joined for life, to strengthen each other in all labour, to rest on each other in sorrow, to minister to each other in all pain, to be with each other in silent unspeakable memories at the moment of the last parting? George Eliot More Information Length of the service We allow about an hour for the service which includes time for the taking of photographs outside afterwards or inside the church if it is raining. Please do not be late as we will not allow a late service to interfere with another booking of the Church Centre and the Minister may have other appointments. If you arrive late then the minister may decide not to proceed or shorten the service accordingly. Confetti This may be thrown by your guests outside the church. Usually the photographer is the one to give permission, so as not to spoil his photographs!! Orders of service Some people have their own orders of service printed. The church has facilities to produce an order of service using different coloured or white card, and several designs are available. Samples are available to see, the cost is 65p each. You may also like to include a special item in the service. Please entrust your orders of service to a reliable person - usually female, they often arrive late having been locked in a car boot or forgotten. What music should I choose? Most people prefer traditional wedding music as the bride enters and leaves the church - however our organists are accomplished musicians and very happy to vary music according to your wishes. One of our organists will telephone you prior to the wedding to discuss arrangements with you. Permission may be given for you to provide your own organist, however please note that the payment of usual fees to the church for the use of the organ will still be required. Please do choose hymns yourself, perhaps with the advice of the organist, two or three would be normally be suitable. A list is attached with some suggestions but it is only to help and not meant to limit your choice. Hymns and Psalms and Mission Praise are used in both churches, but if your hymn request is not available we are happy to use the church printing facilities to produce a copy of a hymn to enable you to include your choice. There is no charge for this and the church has copyright permission which will cover your wedding. Hymns Choosing hymns can be difficult. Choose well known hymns your guests will know - here are some possibilities to help you try to decide.

It was such a special service with a wonderful reception following in the fellowship hall. Here are a few of the ideas that I used to plan and decorate for this occasion. The couple has weathered 25 years together. They have raised children, sent them to college, and faced the loss of special friends or family members. They have experience many triumphs and many trials. Today, if a couple has remained together and endured two and a half decades, it is very unusual, and they should be recognized. Use silver in the color scheme for a 25th anniversary reception. Personalize color scheme with a complementing color. If the couple enjoys the beach or ocean, use blue as a complementing color. Decorations for the Reception: For the centerpieces, I placed three fresh white roses in silver vase for each table. You could decorate with a complementing silver and blue or favorite color scheme. If it is a night celebration, you could use strings of lights and candles. Light silver candles in white candelabras or white candles in silver candelabras. Buy large bouquets of silver balloons and fill the ceiling. To cut costs, put single stem white roses in silver bud vases on the tables. Use silver or white table cloths for buffet table. Place a bouquet of 25 roses in a silver vase in the center of the table. Accent remainder of table with white candles under clear globes. Position a few white silk flowers at the bases of the globes. Place finger foods on silver trays lined with white paper doilies. Order a two-tiered wedding cake with either a wedding or 25th topper. For the cake table, layer a translucent silver cloth over a white table cloth. Pictures of the Couple: I placed original wedding pictures in black frames on each of the tables for guests to view. Linens or Paper Goods for the Tables: I used all silver and white on the tables. Renewal of Wedding Vows Ceremony: Renewing wedding vows can make a 25th Anniversary Celebration very special. This does not have to be an elaborate ceremony, but it can be a simple exchanging of vows before close family and friends. It is always nice to include children and immediate family members in the ceremony. A child of the couple could create a poem or story or do a reading about his parents and present it to them during the ceremony. Example of a Reading: The times have changed, but your love has stayed strong. You have survived some very difficult times, yet you have weathered them. When we look at the love that you have for each other today, We are both proud and inspired by the life that you have built together and for us. So today as you renew your wedding vows, We all join you as you celebrate your love all over again. Music for the reception: Play Christian Wedding Songs softly on the piano. We played a CD of wedding songs through a sound system. Make a Memory Tree using a big branch painted silver. Make a Time Capsule. Leave small cards at each place setting and have guests write a favorite memory of the couple on the card and place the card in a basket or large glass jar labeled Memories. The couple can read the cards later. I promised to love you, comfort you, honor and keep you, in sickness and in health. I also pledged that, forsaking all others, I would keep myself only unto you, so long as we both shall live. During these twenty-five years, I have been faithful to those pledges. Now again, at the beginning of our twenty-fifth year together, it is with deepest joy that I renew my vows to you. So today, in the presence of God and our family and friends who have gathered for this happy occasion, I vow to you to continue to be to you a loving and faithful husband. I promise you my deepest love, my fullest devotion, and my most tender care. I renew these vows to you today Date and pledge myself to continue my devotion to you as long as we both shall live. Husband Exchanging of Rings: I give you this ring as a symbol of my love and faithfulness. As I place it on your finger, I recommit my heart and soul to you. I ask you to wear this eternity ring as a reminder of the vows we have renewed today on our twenty-fifth anniversary. I promised to love you, obey you, care for you, and ever seek to please you. I know that God has prepared me for you so that I am able to ever strengthen, help, comfort, and encourage you. Therefore, throughout the remainder of our lives, no matter what may be ahead of us, I renew my vows to you today Date. I pledge to continue my devotion to you as an obedient and faithful wife as long as we both shall live. I give you this ring to wear with love and joy. As a ring has no end, neither shall my love for you. As I place
