An all-time children's favorite, this book contains vivid portraits of fourteen major prophets mentioned in the Qur'an. It provides insight into their struggle to serve the true God and guide their communities from going astray.

She has been teaching Arabic for the past five years. She views teaching as a way of retaining and imparting her knowledge and expertise. While not learning and teaching Arabic she is a full-time teacher of mathematics at a secondary school in Essex. Arabic and teaching are her lifelong passion. Queen Mary, University of London Your teacher for the course first began studying Arabic Language properly during her first year as an undergraduate. Before this time in her life she only knew how to read the Quran as taught as a child in mosque classes. As a young person she became increasingly dissatisfied with not being able to read the Quran with full understanding and tajweed. She used her time at university to develop her Islam immensely, attending and organising various Islamic lectures, classes and events. She completed several part-time and weekend courses in Arabic. After graduating she completed a PGCE in secondary mathematics. She especially enjoyed her intermediate Arabic course she undertook at the al ansar centre in goodmayes which was taught by Abu Talha, graduate of the Islamic University of Madeenah. His wife was also her teacher of Tajweed. In summer , she had the privilege of studying under Muaawiyah Tucker also a graduate of the Islamic university of Madeenah, completing an intensive course studying Madeenah Book 1, 2 and 3 with him as well as doing covering al-Ajroomiyah. In summer , she studied the advanced course again with Muaawiyah, reading books including qisas un nabiyeen stories of the prophets and seerah tun nabawi Biography of the Prophet pbuh. She has experience of teaching Madeenah Book 1, 2 and 3 and has been teaching Arabic for the past 5 years. She attempts to apply the skills she has accumulated in her professional teacher training course and experience as a maths teacher to teaching Arabic. She has a vast knowledge of teaching methods and is confident in dealing with a variety of people. Shahena continues to study Arabic through books, lectures and online courses. Shahena was born and raised in East London. She is married with two children. Learning Arabic has been and continues to be an amazing journey and she encourages every Muslim to embark on. Wa ma thawfeeqi illa billah And success comes only from Allah. Increase me in knowledge.

It is, also, only logical to believe that this Creator had to be an eternal being without beginning or end and that nothing could be like this Creator. Allah the Almighty stated this about Himself: He is the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful. Glory be to Allah! High is He above all that they associate as partners with Him. He is Allah the Creator, the Inventor of all things, the Bestower of forms. To Him belongs the Best Names. All that is in the heavens and the earth glorify Him. Allah the Exalted declared: Allah it is He Who has created the heavens and the earth, and all that is between them in six Days. Perhaps these six days are thousands of years, or even millions of centuries, by our calculation nowadays, or perhaps they are more or less than that. Allah told us that He created the heavens, the earth, and everything that is between them in six days, the established Himself on the throne of the universe. Everything submitted to His will; everything was indebted to Him; everything prostrated and showed reverence to Almighty Allah. He controlled the working of everything and everything needed Him. He is the One Who needs nothing and no one, but everything was everyone needs Him. The universe was created and had prostrated to Him as a symbol of its needs and its desire for sustenance and in submission to His will. Among the angels are those whose mission is to communicate with human beings. Allah the Almighty called him "the trustworthy": And truly, this Quran is a revelation from the Lord of the Alamin mankind, jinn and all that exists, which the trustworthy Ruh Gabriel has brought down upon your heart O Muhammad that you may be one of the warners. The Symbol of Evil Along with the angels, Allah has created the jinn. They are part of the Ghaib the unseen and have no visible or tangible bodies. The jinn and the angels are totally different even in the stuff they are made of, for Allah created the former from fire and the latter from light. They are pure and absolutely good. As for the jinn, they are assigned a certain nature; some of them are good, while others are corrupt. It was revealed in the Quran that a small group of jinn had listened to the Quran. Some of their words were revealed therein; There are among us some that are righteous, and some the contrary; we are groups each having a different way religious sect etc. And of us some are Muslims who have submitted to Allah after listening to this Quran and of us some are Al Qaasitun disbelievers, those who have deviated from the Right Path; and whosoever has embraced Islam has become Muslim by submitting to Allah, then such have sought the right path. Will you then take him Iblis and his offspring as protectors and helpers? When Satan refused to prostrate, he became a symbol of evil in the universe. Allah the Almighty revealed: And remember when We said to the angels: He was one of the jinn, he disobeyed the Command of his Lord. Their essence is human, and they are the purest of human beings. Allah the Almighty declared: We have sent you O Muhammad not but as a mercy for the Alamin mankind, jinn and all that exists. The resulting versions did not respect the dignity and infallibility of the prophets. For example, the corrupt books of the Jews narrate a story of a prophet who drank alcohol and committed adultery with his own daughter; of a prophet who sent the commander of his army to war in order to ensare the commander's wife; of a prophet who worshipped idols after marrying a pretty young idol worshipper, they said he preferred to please her by worshipping her idol than to please his Creator. All the time you read these books you feel that you are confronting a false, confused, and misguided mentality which lies about Allah and His prophets. If you leave the corrupt books of the Jews for those of the Christians, you will find a contrary attitude which is almost a reaction to the first. The Christians glorified their prophet Jesus pbuh to the degree that most of the sects call him the son of Allah. Allah is high above that! The true image of the prophets was lost by either degrading or over glorifying them. Were it not for the Quran, we would not have known their true nature. The prophets and messengers have different levels and degrees. Allah the Almighty stated: We preferred some to others; to some of them Allah spoke directly; others he raised to degrees of honor. Allah the Exalted said: They say, "We make no distinction between one another of His Messengers.

According to Judaism, Haggai , Zaqariah , and Malachi were the last prophets, all of whom lived at the end of the year Babylonian exile. In the New Testament, however, the word "messenger" becomes more frequent, sometimes in association with the concept of a prophet. But the last book of the Old Testament, the Book of Malachi , speaks of a messenger that Christian commentators interpret as a reference to the future prophet John the Baptist Yahya. Please help improve this article by adding references to reliable secondary sources , with multiple points of view. June Learn how and when to remove this template message In Muslim belief, every Islamic prophet preached Islam. The beliefs of charity , prayer, pilgrimage, worship of God and fasting are believed to have been taught by every prophet who has ever lived. Namely, that ye should remain steadfast in religion, and make no divisions therein The prophets and messengers "share no divine attributes", and possess "no knowledge or power" other than that granted to them by God. Female prophets[ edit ] Most mainstream Sunni scholars agree that prophets were males only. Islamic holy books The revealed books are the records which Muslims believe were dictated by God to various Islamic prophets throughout the history of mankind, all these books promulgated the code and laws of Islam. The belief in all the revealed books is an article of faith in Islam and Muslims must believe in all the scriptures to be a Muslim. Muslims believe the Quran, the final holy scripture, was sent because all the previous holy books had been either corrupted or lost. According to the Quran, the Tawrat Torah was revealed to Moses, [49] but Muslims believe that the current Pentateuch, although it retains the main message, [50] has suffered corruption over the years. The Quran implies that the Torah is the longest-used scripture, with the Jewish people still using the Torah today, and that all the Hebrew prophets would warn the people of any corruptions that were in the scripture. The Quran mentions the Psalms as being the holy scripture revealed to David. Scholars have often understood the Psalms to have been holy songs of praise. Book of Enlightenment Arabic: The Quran mentions a Book of Enlightenment, [54] which has alternatively been translated as Scripture of Enlightenment or the Illuminating Book. It mentions that some prophets, in the past, came with clear signs from God as well as this particular scripture. Books of Divine Wisdom Arabic: The Quran mentions certain Books of Divine Wisdom, [55] translated by some scholars as Books of Dark Prophecies, which are a reference to particular books vouchsafed to some prophets, wherein there was wisdom for man. Some scholars have suggested that these may be one and the same as the Psalms as their root Arabic word, Zubur Quran Although many lay Muslims believe the Injil refers to the entire New Testament, scholars have clearly pointed out that it refers not to the New Testament but to an original Gospel, which was sent by God, and was given to Jesus. The current canonical Gospels , in the belief of Muslim scholars, are not divinely revealed but rather are documents of the life of Jesus, as written by various contemporaries, disciples and companions. The verse mentioning the "Scriptures" is in Quran Some scholars have stated that they could possibly refer to the Book of the Wars of the Lord , [60] a lost text spoken of in the Hebrew Bible. This section uncritically uses texts from within a religion or faith system without referring to secondary sources that critically analyze them. June Learn how and when to remove this template message The Quran mentions various divinely-bestowed gifts given to various prophets. These may be interpreted as books or forms of celestial knowledge. Although all prophets are believed by Muslims to have been immensely gifted, special mention of "wisdom" or "knowledge" for a particular prophet is understood to mean that some secret knowledge was revealed to him. The Quran mentions that Abraham prayed for wisdom and later received it.
