It is the Greek word mysterion from meuo which meant "to initiate into the mysteries," i. Mysterion means a secret, rite, or teaching which the initiate knows but no one else knows. The root idea then is information known only to those on the inside, but hidden to those who are without Mark 4: It refers to information which has been kept secret, veiled Rom. In most cases in the New Testament it refers to church truth which was not known in Old Testament times, but has become revealed in the New Testament cf. The Old Testament revealed the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ and the salvation of the Gentiles, etc. These things were mysteries Rom. It is also used of spiritual-truth revealed in Scripture, Old or New Testament truth, but which remains a secret, veiled truth to the unbeliever because he cannot fathom or spiritually understand it. It refers to truth which man cannot comprehend by experience, trial and error, testing, or by his own reason or human philosophy 1 Cor. For this more general use, compare also 1 Cor. Click here to see the series index. Through object lessons, a small group study of multiple verses, and a memory verse game, students will learn who the Holy Spirit is, as part of the Trinity of God. Multiple scriptures explaining the Holy Spirit; focus on Isaiah 9: As you ask the students the following questions, be the first to raise your hand to encourage their own participation. How many of us have ever done something wrong? How many of us felt sorry about it? How many of us have ever been brave when we could have been afraid? How many of us need help making the right decisions? If you answered yes to any of those questions, you may have had a little help from the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit, you say? Who is He anyway? What does He do? Is He an egg? Did He come from a chicken? Is He like water? Or is He like the wind? So how do you get Him? Will He give us super powers? Like an Egg, Water, or Wind? We know Who God is. We know Who Jesus is. So who is the Holy Spirit anyway? Some of you have heard that God is three persons in one. How can we explain it? Well, this egg right here has three parts. There is the shell, crack open , the yolk, and the white stuff. It has three parts, but it is still one egg. Or, we could use the water analogy. There is water in its liquid form pour or drink , there is water in its solid form which we call ice show cubes , and there is water as a gas which we call water vapor. You may have also heard that the Holy Spirit is like the wind. The wind comes and goes as it pleases, but we never actually see the wind itself. We see its affects when the branches sway, leaves blow, and when your cat gets launched across the yard in a really bad storm. The Holy Spirit is kind of like the wind. God is three persons in one. We explain that by using the three parts of the egg and the three forms of water. We explain the Holy Spirit as one of these parts and also like the wind. But, He is NOT like an egg, water, or the wind in any other way. He is a mystery. He is not like anything we know. But we can trust Him and we can know that He is good. Bibles one for each team , pencils, fill in the blank statements; Optional: There should be three to a group. Designate the following roles or have the students select: Clearly explain student roles and the importance of working together as detectives, solving a puzzle. Who is the Holy Spirit? The Holy Spirit is a part of the Trinity of God. How do you get the Holy Spirit? This means to turn from sin, to change direction from wrong to right, and to follow Jesus. Where does He live? What does the Holy Spirit do in our lives? He gives us courage to tell about Jesus! We do not have to be troubled or afraid. That means that He makes us sorry for our sin. We become people who have these characteristics in our lives. Give students time to work in their teams. Have the presenters read each question and answer. Discuss how Jesus is referred to as God and the Holy Spirit, emphasizing the Trinity, and briefly explaining the names of God. Once students get a grip on the verse, divide into two teams we had the eggs and the chickens. Each team should be split in half, across the room from their teammates in a straight line. Demonstrate balancing an egg on a spoon, walking it across to the teammate first in line, saying the verse, and handing off the egg carefully. The student receiving the egg then walks across the room to say the verse and give it to the next person in line. If a student drops an egg, have them pick it up quickly and continue playing. Play continues until all students have received a turn. The first team finished should sit down to signal their completion. Play the game again if time remains.
